begin with Joe Shell. Republican leaders tonight

GOOD EVENING EVERYBODY: of California - will send

Nixon The former Vice President of the United States - is over that first hurdle on the come-back trail.

Richard Nixon, as you have heard - ran up the big majority that was considered mandatory. His two-to-one sweep over his Republican rival Joe Shell - putting him in a strong position to challenge Governor Brown.

The question now - just how much is the G O P split in California? Shell ran a right wing campaign
- in which he was backed by the John Birch Society.
The question now - will the Republicans who voted for Shell in June, turn out to vote for Nixon in November?
In five months much can happen - and bitterness can wear off.

Dick Nixon and his supporters are already arranging a series of conciliation meetings; these to

LEAD - 2

begin with Joe Shell. Republican leaders tonight predict that the voters of California - will send Nixon to the State House in Sacramento, come November.

Ed - nephew of the Speaker of the House. At stake - the Democratic nomination for United States Senator.

Both
Two powerful candidates backed by two powerful

groups,
political organizations. And, like the G O P in California-

the Democratic party in Massachusetts will need some repairs

after it's all over.

MASSACHUSETTS FOLLOW NIXON

~~Now~~ The political spotlight shifts to - Massachusetts. To the duel between Ted Kennedy - and ~~Ed~~ McCormack. Ted, ~~of course~~, - the President's <sup>young</sup> brother.

Ed - nephew of the Speaker of the House. At stake - the Democratic nomination for United States Senator.

~~Two powerful~~ candidates - backed by ~~two~~ powerful political <sup>groups,</sup> ~~organizations.~~ And, like the G O P in California -
the Democratic party in Massachusetts will need some repairs
after it's all over.

SENATE

The anti-administration vote in the Senate today - came as a surprise. Especially to Presidential Assistant McGeorge Bundy - who sent a letter of appeal to Capitol Hill. Bundy, asking the Senate - not to cut off aid to Yugoslavia. Warning that this would play into the hands of - in his words - "the hard liners in the Kremlin."

But,
~~was~~ the Senators went farther than a vote -
They even in favor of the anti-Yugoslav amendment. ~~Supported~~ a motion - to cut off American aid to any country dominated by Communism.
could be quite a
This ~~striking~~ blow to administration foreign policy - if it goes through.

The summit conference of the Soviet bloc - is "illegal". So says - a charter member of the group. <sup>Albania</sup> Albania, an opponent of Khrushchev. - ~~therefore~~ <sup>Albania</sup> excluded by Khrushchev.
Czar <sup>Tsar</sup> that he has no authority to hold such a meeting. And that Albania will not respect - any of its decisions.

Whatever the Albanian comrades may think - <sup>evidently</sup> Khrushchev <sup>had</sup> to summon the leaders of the satellite nations.
The economic crisis behind the Iron Curtain - too dangerous to be ignored. Especially with some of the ~~nk~~ satellites interested in - that booming common market of western Europe.
Khrushchev hopes to arrange - an alternative to the common market. A Red version, to get his empire out of the mess - ~~into which he has led~~ <sup>the economic primrose</sup> trail down which K led them.

VIET NAM

Here's a question for - military experts. How do you ambush - an ambush? This is how - if you happen to be operating against the Red Guerrillas in South Viet Nam. Saigon sent an armored convoy down a jungle road - as a decoy. The Reds - taking the bait. Ambushing the convoy - which radioed an S O S, according to plan.

American helicopters took off - within a few minutes, ferrying loyalist troops - to the scene of the battle. Result - another important victory. Most of the Reds - cut down by machine guns. The rest, either captured - or ~~for~~ fleeing into the jungle. The strategy of - ambushing an ambush.

NEW GUINEA

The target of the diplomatic shooting in New Guinea - Uncle Sam. The American proposal - satisfying no one. We suggested a negotiated settlement - that would transfer the island to Indonesian control in two years.

The Indonesians responded with the invasion - that touched off the present fighting. Now, the Dutch say - the invasion has changed their attitude. The Hague, less inclined to parley - with Jakarta. Finally - the Papuans, the native people of New Guinea, — today their ~~xxx~~ spokesman said flatly - that the Papuans will not accept the American plan <sup>to give their country away.</sup> ~~that~~ Rather than submit to Indonesian control - they'll set up a Papuan Republic and fight for their independence.

ALGERIA

French security forces in Algeria - today struck the O A S a shattering blow. Raiding the terrorist headquarters - outside Algiers. Throwing a cordon around a farmhouse - <sup>and</sup> ~~then~~ storming <sup>it.</sup> ~~in with guns ready.~~ There was a flurry of shooting - before the men inside surrendered. Filing out - with their hands up. Seventeen gunmen - of the O A S. Including - seven deserters from the French Army. The Security Forces also found - a small arsenal belonging to the right wing underground. Featuring machine guns and plastic bombs - the favorite weapons of the O A S.

D-DAY

When an honorary citizen of Sainte Mere Eglise visits that French town - when he happens to be an American - you can be sure that he's thinking about D-day. That's what James Gavin - was doing today. Our Ambassador to France, returning to the place where he landed by parachute - on June Sixth, Nineteen Forty-four. Colonel Gavin, he was then - Deputy Commander of the Eighty Second Air Borne. The Colonel, jumping with his men - during the landing on Omaha Beach. That's how he became an honorary citizen of the first French town to be liberated from the Nazis - Sainte Mere Eglise.

Jim Gavin has a lot of memories - tonight. So do the thousands of allied soldiers who smashed into Hitler's fortress Europe, exactly eighteen years ago - on D-Day.

MUSIC

If you have a taste for modern music, you might head for London - and the international festival. But wait a minute - is that really music they're playing?

Let's see. Here's a piece - for the piano. That is - for every part of the piano, except the keyboard. The pianist beats the steel frame, twangs the strings, kicks the legs, jounces the pedals - but never touches the keys. Piano playing - the like of which London has never heard before.

Another composition is called "Concerto For Radio." The fiddles and flutes play a few bars - and then they turn on the radio. The program - doesn't matter. Music, discussion, western, anything at all has a part in this "Concerto For Radio."

Then there's a piece entitled "Breaking the pain barrier." One of the instruments - an electronic tape covered with piercing noises, Sirens, bells, fog horns - and the like, ~~like~~ the composer says that the purpose of "Breaking The Pain Barrier" - is to give the audience an earache - as well as a pain in the - neck!

Changed, but by no means obsolete - and still relevant.
