

EISENHOWER

LT. - 6620. Tues. Oct. 13 - '59,

President Eisenhower, today, put forth a proposal that the vast sums of money, which might be saved by an East-West armament agreement - should be invested in an international program to help the less developed countries. The President suggests a worldwide plan - to transfer money from armament over to global benevolence.

He made the statement - on arriving at his home town, Abilene, Kansas, where he presided over a ground-breaking ceremony - for the Eisenhower presidential library, which is to be built - less than a block from the old home, where Dwight D. Eisenhower was reared.

POLAND

In Poland, the Communist authorities are blasting - against ~~the~~^a new manifestation of religious enthusiasm. Crowds in Warsaw - gazing up at a church steeple. Many proclaiming that they see there - a vision of the Virgin Mary, whom pious patriots regard - as the Queen of Poland.

The Church of St. Augustin is built of red brick, -- A tall spire - sheeted with copper. The Reds claim - that the vision is nothing more than a curious light reflection. Plenty of people having seen - an eerie glow. But the skeptics are out-numbered - by the believers, especially women. One, today, insisting - "I saw it, and I know it was a miracle."

One odd thing - the fact that the church authorities agree with the Communists. The parish priests of St. Augustin's Church - declaring: "There is no miracle." They, too, think it's a curious light reflection, and add - that the Church does not accept miracles, until after exhausted^{we} investigation.

But, in Poland, the religious feeling of the people is intensified - by the Communist oppression.

ISRAEL

In Israel - an outcry, ~~Demanding~~ - the extradition and punishment of Adolph Eichmann, ~~called~~ - the "master butcher" of Nazi Germany, ~~Who~~ presided - over the extermination of millions of Jewish victims, during the Hitler regime. Eichmann, they say, is now ~~in~~the Arabian oil principality of Kuwait, ~~Working~~ there - for an oil company.

In Israel, today, the statement was - that the Israeli police have long been looking for Eichmann, ~~Who~~ was tracked down finally, by Tuvia Friedman, a former inmate of a Hitler concentration camp.

The extradition problem ^{is} ~~is~~ difficult, ~~Because~~ Kuwait is an Arab country - hostile toward Israel. ^{And -} It is under British protection - which involves London in the question.

VENEZUELA

Venezuela charges the Dominican Republic - with inciting revolutionary outbreaks against the Venezuelan government.

Last night, a wave of shootings and bombings in Caracas -and the oil city of Maracaibo. The police - arresting one hundred and fifty suspects, who, they say - are backers of the former Dictator, Perez Jimenez.

Today, an official at the presidential palace in Caracas declared - that the plotters received money from the Dominican Dictator, General ~~Trujillo~~ Trujillo. Agents of Trujillo - active in Venezuela, stirring up trouble.

SATELLITE

The "kitchen sink" - ^{is now} ~~is~~ in orbit. ^{That's what they call} ~~That is~~ Explorer number seven. ^{The new} ~~The~~ man-made moon ^{is} ~~is~~ equipped for ^(various) ~~seven~~ types of experiments out in space. Radiation, cosmic particles, temperatures - and so on. The ninety-one and a half pound satellite - containing a whole string of scientific instruments.

The "kitchen sink" - launched ~~by~~ at Cape Canaveral, Florida, today - by a Juno rocket. Carried aloft by Juno - and swung into an orbit that varies from three-hundred-and-forty-six to six-hundred-and-sixty-four miles from this earth.

They call it the "kitchen sink" - because it isn't one at all. Some scientist having said - "it's got everything in it but the kitchen sink." Moreover, the name is inappropriate - in still another way. Juno, the goddess - wife of Jupiter.
Juno, the Queen of Olympus. ^{Can you} ~~You can't~~ imagine ^{Juno having} ~~her~~ ~~to have~~ anything to do with the kitchen sink.?

STRIKE

The presidential Fact Finding Board says it will be - a "miracle" - If the steel strike is settled by Friday. The Fact Finders - to make a report to President Eisenhower by that time, In preparation for a possible injunction - under the Taft-Hartley Law.

The Chairman of the Fact Finding Board, George Taylor, today charged - that both Companies and Union have been remiss in the collective bargaining. Warning them - that they're endangering American democratic procedures, By failing to settle the strike, which has now lasted for three months.

QUIZ

Charles Van Doren ~~is~~ back in New York, Ready to accept - a subpoena from the Congressional Sub-Committee. So says his lawyer, who adds - that Van Doren was not evading the subpoena. About which - he didn't know a thing. He simply went up into NewEngland - for a visit.

However, Congressman Oren Harris, Chairman of the Congressional investigators, repeats his charge - that Van Doren was evading a summons to testify before the Sub-Committee. The Congressman says ~~xx~~ they sent a telegram, which he is sure - Van Doren received. Anyway, how could he be ignorant of the much publicized fact - that the Sub-Committee wanted him to appear?

~~Well, anyway~~ ^{So -} the subpoena will now be served - on the one hundred and twenty-nine thousand dollar winner of the quiz show "Twenty-One."

BRIDE

Over in England, at Newcastle-on-Tyne - Charanjit Harishwar Singh Ghura got married, today. Dutifully - an obedient son, submitting to the will of his parents.

The family from India, now sojourning in England, still adheres to the ancient customs of the Land of Hindustan. They decided it was time for their son Ghura - to take a wife. So they selected one - an Indian girl in Britain. Ghura had never seen her. That not at all necessary. He simply agreed, although he felt - heart-sick. Because, a few months ago - he happened to be in London, where, in a hotel lobby - he saw an Indian girl. Falling in love with her - at first sight. But he didn't speak to her. Certainly, he never dreamed - of marrying her. It was for his parents - to select his bride.

At the wedding today, the bride wore - the customary Hindu veil. The bridegroom - to get the first look at her face, when she raised the veil.

All, according to Indian custom - and, when the bride raised the veil, what did Ghura see? The same girl, with whom he had fallen in love in the London hotel lobby. All accidentally, he had caught sight - of the bride his parents had picked for him.

Today, Ghura said; "I fell in love with her months ago - but never dreamed, until this moment, that she was to be my wife. No man," he added, "could have such a romantic wedding present."

Dick, how about a little sentimental Hindu music? Can you sing us a song about the Goddess Parvati?

PRESLEY

At Memphis, Tennessee, Tom Parker, ^{is the} Manager for Elvis Presley, ^{who is} The rock-n-roll singer ^{who is} still in the army.
But Tom Parker made a lot of money - managing Elvis, ~~And~~ collecting - from those sales by the million, of Presley records.
The hottest - of rock-n-roll.)

^ So what now?

Well, today, Tom Parker made a donation. Sending ^a ~~the~~ check ~~for two hundred bucks~~ to help establish a symphony orchestra in Memphis. |

^ He got it from rock-n-roll, and gives it - to long haired symphony. Maybe it would be funnier - the other way round. Getting it from symphony - and giving it to rock-n-roll.

Bracknell, England - is a center for fox hunting,

~~that's a good old British sport~~ With a pack of fox hounds - one of the best. The master of the hunt - named Barker. Most appropriate. ~~xxfor the keeper of the houndsxx~~

So, now - imagine the tragedy! Tally ho and yolks, the fox hunt in full tilt. The riders, in red coats - following the hounds. But what did the fox do?

He led the chase to the tracks of an electric railroad. Where six of the hounds tangled with the power-line - and were electrocuted.

The fox - jumping the live wire, and getting away.

A sad, sad ~~Foxy? Well, you can say it with a sad version of~~ tally ho and yolks.
