

L.T.-DELCO. MONDAY, AUGUST 24, 1959.

GOOD EVENING EVERYBODY:

In the Senate, a declaration - that Members of Congress should not run away; flight - to escape Khrushchev - escape from Washington when the Soviet Premier is there.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson, of Texas, today, rejected suggestions - that Congress adjourn before Khrushchev gets here, so the law-makers won't be called upon to participate - in any reception for the world's number one Communist.

Lyndon Johnson thinks the Senate and House - should go right ahead with tasks at hand - completing their work before adjournment, Khrushchev - or no Khrushchev.

All of which is relevant to the question: - will the Soviet Premier be invited to address a joint session of Congress? That is the usual thing - when a head of state visits our shores. Some legislators insist they'll go home, if Khrushchev is invited to appear before Congress. That's up to President Eisenhower - who might or might not make the suggestion. If he does, it would then be a matter for the leaders of Congress to decide. Senator Fulbright, of Arkansas, Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, says he is in favor of the idea, provided they could be sure Khrushchev would get what the Senator calls "reasonable courtesy," in Congress.

TIBET

Chinese Communists have asked that the Government of India - discourage the travel of Indian pilgrims into Tibet, Because - of dangerous conditions. Military operations - of the Reds against the Tibetan insurgents.

So announced by Prime Minister Nehru at New Delhi today. Nehru's declaration - confirming reports that the Tibetans are still resisting. Forcing the Communists - to start a new large campaign against them.

Other reports ~~xxxxxx~~ concern the Pachen Lama, Who ~~was~~ ^{was} installed as a Red puppet - in place of the Dalai Lama, now in exile in India. We have had rumors that the Reds have placed the Panchen Lama under arrest. The report now being - that they are ^{indeed} holding him as the leader of an anti-Communist plot. The puppet Lama - turning against his masters, apparently.

YEMEN

Sinister news - from the Kingdom of Yemen, at the south west corner of the Arabian Peninsula. The Imam has come home - and is breathing threats of death and vengeance.

The Imam of Yemen was in Rome for medical treatment for arthritis. Yemen in his absence was governed by the Crown Prince, who has Western ideas of liberalism and reform; which he put into effect; causing a lot of disturbance we hear. The medieval tribes of the Yemen - having no taste for new-fangled ways.

Neither has the Imam himself, and, when he returned, he was enraged. The more so - because a number of those behind the reforms were Christians. Local Christians - of the Yemen.

Today's news dispatch quotes the Imam as declaring: "I swear by Allah - that I shall behead everyone against whom there is a serious complaint. And he added:

"Christians and their agents will be severely dealt with. Some will have their heads cut off. Others - their legs and arms."

Reports are that the vengeance of the Imam has already begun. With executions and mutilations. Some of the victims - the offending Christians.

INDONESIA.

At Jakarta - capitol of Indonesia - a new kind of profession.

And it
~~which~~ pays good money - seven dollars a day to an average

Indonesian laborer, whose usual wage would come - to about seven dollars a month. The new profession? Serving time in jail.

The employers - local Chinese. Jakarta - having the usual Chinese colony, familiar in almost any oriental city. And, from time to time, they get prison sentences for various misdemeanors.

So, do they go to jail? Not at all. The Chinese make it a practice to put in substitutes. Hiring Indonesian - to serve a week or a month in the Jakarta ~~house~~ cooler.

MISSILE

An enormous icicle - flashed into the sky at Cape Canaveral, today. An atlas missile - launched on a successful flight for some five thousand miles. But - why the icicle?

Well, the rocket was driven by liquid oxygen. Liquid - with an extremely low temperature. The missile - ~~it~~ frosted with a thick coat of ice. ^{which} ~~that~~ soon melted off, as the atlas went streaking through the atmosphere.

At the target area, the South Atlantic, ^a ~~the~~ capsule - recovered. Ejected from the ~~nose-cone~~ of the rocket - coming down by parachute.

ROCKEFELLER

The newlyweds in the Cinderella romance arrived in New York, today - and the bride promptly kissed a copy. Mr. and Mrs. Steven Rockefeller were greeted at the airport by Policeman Andrew Swenson, an uncle of Mrs. Rockefeller.

Most appropriate that he should be there, since it was Patrolman Swenson, who, three years ago - sponsored the admission of Anne Marie into the United States. When she came here from Norway to study English - and support herself by working for the Rockefeller family as a house maid. Catching the eye - of Steven, a son of Governor Nelson Rockefeller of New York.

After greeting the policeman - a New York City "mountie" by the way - the young couple drove to the historic family estate overlooking the Hudson - at Tarrytown Pocantico Hills, in Westchester County. They had a minor automobile accident on the way. Their car - in a collision with a truck. Nobody hurt - but both vehicles were so badly banged-up they had to be towed away.

The newlyweds - continuing their journey to Tarrytown.

BAR ASSOCIATION

At the Miami convention of the American Bar Association, a formal denial - that Professor O'Brien addressed the assembled lawyers. Professor O'Brien - gave a mere informal talk before a party of Bar Association members, at a hotel last night.

Well, you can't blame that venerable organization of the legal profession - for making the denial. Since Professor O'Brien turns out to be - Mickey Cohen, the Los Angeles mobster.

Taken to the Miami convention by his Los Angeles lawyer - as a prank, Mickey Cohen, alias Professor O'Brien, made a speech about income tax evasion. A good subject for him - since the Los Angeles racketeer served a term in prison for cheating on his income tax.

So what advice did he give? "Pay up," he said, "Even if you have to borrow the money from your friends."

But he didn't say - what friends.

And now Don, my friend, welcome home.

FIGHT

The Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson return heavyweight title fight will be staged at Los Angeles early next year, Edwin Ahlqvist - Johansson's advisor - announced tonight.

Ahlqvist said Houston, Texas, is listed as a reserve site; "but it is practically certain that the fight will be held at Los Angeles."

Ahlqvist made his announcement after two days of negotiations, presided over by Jack Dempsey.

Johansson won the crown from Patterson at Yankee stadium, New York, on a third-round knockout, June 26; and their return match had been tentatively scheduled by promoter Bill Rosensohn for the same stadium on September 22.

But then Rosensohn lost out in a fight with his partner Vincent Velella, New York politician, who took over control of Rosensohn enterprises and replaced Rosensohn as President.

Today's announcement ended weeks of bickering among Johansson, Ahlqvist, Velella, Rosensohn and Irving B. Kahn, the New York theater-TV tycoon who now is board-chairman of the Rosensohn corporation.

Dempsey, new promotional director of the Rosensohn Corporation, flew here Saturday night accompanied by Velella, Kahn, two attorneys and a publicity man.

The old Manassa mauler had expressed confidence early tonight that contracts would be signed for the rematch before he and his associates return to New York in the morning.
