

L.T.-OLDS. TUESDAY, OCT. 16, 1962

GOOD EVENING EVERYBODY:

The capital of India - tense, tonight. New Delhi, taking on the atmosphere of - a city at war. Military men, coming and going - at the Defense Ministry. The Minister of Defense, demanding full reports - on the combat readiness of the Indian army. Anxious crowds, waiting outside - for news. If - if they had given Tibet just a little help twelve years ago this present crisis might have been avoided. If - if.

Ironically, the man in the middle of all this is Krishna Menon - who used to tell us about his good friends in Red China. Krishna Menon, who scoffed at the idea - that Mao Tse-tung might commit aggression against India.

But, Mao is committing aggression - and the Battle of the Che-Jao Bridge is still raging. Indian reconnaissance planes, returning with information about - Red Chinese reinforcements, massing across the Tibetan border near Che-Dong.

Even Krishna Menon can't deny - that war between India and Red China is too close for comfort.

a conference with President Kennedy - which is being for Thursday. This, as President Kennedy was at the side of discussions - with the United States Foreign Minister.

In Moscow, Khrushchev will be seen to meet with our new Ambassador, Roy Harris. Harris has just been called a special meeting of - the Communist Party of the United States.

No one doubts that the subject of the meeting is the inference that the United States has taken over the matter of the Tibetan border. It is if and when Khrushchev speaks - the United States

VISITORS

The third African visitor to the White House within a week - Crown Prince Hasan Al Rida Al Senusi of Libya. The heir to the Libyan throne, following - Sekou Touri of Nigeria, and Ahmed Ben Bella of Algeria. The Crown Prince, welcomed at the airport by Vice President Johnson - to the thunder of a Twenty-one gun salute. Escorted to the White House for lunch - followed by a conference with President Kennedy.

Meanwhile, Ben Bella is in Havana - getting a rousing reception ~~big hello~~ from the Castro regime. The bearded Dictator, ordering everyone out on the streets - to cheer the Algerian leader, who received Castro's moral support during the Algerian rebellion.

BASEBALL

Is there anyone who hasn't heard about what happened on the outskirts of San Francisco today?

Have you recovered - from that suspense thriller at Candlestick Park? Baseball fans will be talking about that one - for a long time.

The most exciting game of any year - is the deciding game of the World Series. The tightest possible score is always - a one to nothing shutout. We had both - today.

Ralph Terry, the hero - giving the Giants only four hits. Two of them - in that nerve-tingling ninth. The Giants, getting the tying and winning runs - on base. Willie McCovy, hitting the ball soldily - but, right at Bobby Richardson, for the final out.

A familiar spectacle - tonight. World champions, once again - the New York Yankees.

ASSASSIN

I have a letter from Saint Paul, Minnesota - concerning a trial in Karlsruhe, West Germany. The two cities, connected across the Atlantic - by way of the Ukraine.

Subject - Soviet assassin Bogdan Stashinsky, who murdered two anti-Communists with a cyanide gun. The Karlsruhe prosecutor is asking the harshest penalty possible. - life imprisonment.

Where does the Minnesota metropolis - come in?
~~was~~ M.H. Haydak of Saint Paul reminds ^{us} ~~us~~ - that the victims were not Russians. They were - Ukrainians.
To him - and to many -
~~and~~ there's a big difference. The Ukraine, struggling for centuries - to be free of Russian imperialism. Still struggling - today.

The two victims of Soviet assassin Bogdan Stashinsky - Ukrainian freedom fighters.

INDICTMENT FOLLOW ASSASSIN

The assassin had an accomplice - according to the Ukrainian exiles in West Germany. His name - Nikita Khrushchev. The boss of the Kremlin, sending Stashinsky - to commit the murders. Hence - just as guilty.

The Ukrainians are represented by two American attorneys - who say they'll take the case to an international tribunal. Indict Khrushchev - for murder. They don't say how they expect to get this particular defendant - into court, to face the indictment.

MONACO

Monaco, on the French Riviera, angling for international support - against France. Approaching foreign governments - in search of allies.

Internally - all calm. The people of Monaco, vowing to man the barricades - in defense of Prince, Princess and Principality. The unions, especially defiant of DeGaulle - because of the jobs involved. Jobs that will disappear - if DeGaulle seals the border between France and Monaco. That terrifying apparition - the tax collector - from Paris.

CONGRESSMEN

The two members of the House, ~~who were~~ indicted today - are charged with conspiracy, and conflict of interest. Congressmen Johnson of Maryland, and Boykin of Alabama - linked to a real estate deal, involving more than three million dollars. Plus - an alleged twenty-five thousand, in payments.

The Baltimore Grand Jury charges that, in return - these two members of the House tried to influence the Justice Department. Tried to stop an action against William Edlin - of a Maryland Savings and Loan Association. Also mentioned - Miami attorney, William Robinson.

WEATHER

The Eastern half of the United States - ~~is~~ in a weather squeeze; tonight. Caught between tropical storm "Ella" in the Atlantic - and a massive cold front moving toward the Atlantic from the Rockies, ~~Mountains~~. "Ella," churning up the ocean - with winds ~~at~~ sixty-five miles an hour ^{and} Threatening to develop into - a full-fledged hurricane. The cold front, ~~dropping the~~ thermometer below freezing " from the Dakotas to Illinois, ^{may advance} ~~Threatening to push on~~ into New England.

HEELS

The spike heels on women's shoes - are not going to be any spikier this year. From the National Shoe Fair in Chicago, we hear that the spike heel, already is as thin - as it can be.

Fashion, bowing - to science; the laws of - mass and motion. Dick, what would be the mathematical-physics equation for a spike heel on milady's shoe?

Or maybe, we'll be doing well - if we get one half of the Nineteen Sixty Sixty Olympic Games. Either the Summer Olympics - in Detroit. Or the winter Olympics - at Lake Placid.

OLYMPICS

How about the Nineteen Sixty Eight Summer Olympics for Detroit? And The Winter Olympics back at -- Lake Placid again.

They say it could happen - after today's verdict in Chicago. The United States Olympic Committee - approving bids from those two; bids, to be offered to the International Olympic Committee meeting - next year in Nairobi, Kenya.

Or maybe, we'll be doing well - if we get one half of the Nineteen Sixty Eight Olympics Games. Either the Summer Olympics - in Detroit. Or the Winter Olympics - at Lake Placid.
