NIXON

Of wiretapping while in the White House, former President Nixon says he was merely following a policy - established by the four presidents who preceded him. "There have been - and will be in the future" - said he - circumstances in which Presidents may lawfully authorize such action in the interest of the security of this country."

Mr. Nixon also saying he ordered massive CIA covert operations in Chile - in Nineteen-Seventy; in an effort to prevent the establishment of a Cuban-style Communist Beachhead for guerilla operations throughout South America and had nothing to do with the death of Salvatore Allende three years later.

ROCKFORD

President Ford today ~~embarked on his longest campaign~~ tour so far -- ~~three day foray~~ starting out at Rockford, Illinois; where he paid a special tribute -- "to the statesmanship of Secretary of State Kissinger." "We are at peace" -- said he -- "And that is a testament in itself."

And now this m -

BOSTON

Secretary of State, Kissinger ^{was} -- the recipient today of the Christian Hearter Award ^{at} presented annually by the Boston, World Affairs Council. ~~He~~ ^{Said} remarks that followed, Dr. Kissinger, saying: "Our greatest need in foreign policy is national cohesion -- ~~a return to awareness that we are all engaged in a common national~~ ~~endeavor.~~" "The world watches with amazement" ^{at} ~~he added --~~
"How America seems bent on eroding its influence and destroying its achievements -- through an orgy of recrimination."

WALL STREET

~~On Wall Street~~ -- The closing Dow-Jones Industrials
today topped the "Magic" thousand mark-- for the first time in three years. ~~The Dow~~ ending up at a thousand and three
-- a gain of more than eight points on the day. ~~This perhaps~~ Due in part ~~to a~~ ^{attributed to an increase} government report ~~showing a~~ marked increase in retail sales in January.

LONDON

Britain's Labor Government today survived a vote of confidence -- when ~~a group of left-wingers returned~~ ^{Prime Min. Wilson urged the left wing} ~~albeit~~ ~~reluctantly, to the party fold. The left wing support following~~

~~a plea from Prime Minister Wilson -- who urged the rebels~~

^{group} ~~not to "throw away all we have achieved."~~

RAMALLAH--ALBIREH--BIRZETT

Anti-Israeli protests were spreading today ~~throughout the~~ ~~occupied~~ ^{on the} West Bank of the Jordan. ~~Crowds of~~ youths throwing stones at Israeli security forces -- schools and shops closing, ~~their doors~~ -- and the mayors and city councils of the Ramallah, Albireh, and Birzett all quitting their posts; ~~in a joint letter of~~ ~~resignation~~ -- saying Israeli troops "have, ~~since the beginning of~~ ~~this year,~~ initiated a new phase of repression and terror."

BEIRUT

Unable to stem a growing revolt ^{by} ~~Muslim Army~~ ^{troops}

-- Lebanon's Premier Rashid Karami today resigned from office; ~~in so doing~~, plunging his nation into still deeper crisis.--

~~but saying~~ ^{he said} he was left with no choice. The present state of Lebanon -- ~~said he~~ -- like that of a sinking ship.

SUB FOR ADD LEBANON

~~And the latest:~~ The Army seizing^{ed} power tonite

in a lightning coup. ~~The revolt~~^{ed} led by General Aziz Ahdab

-- who then went on radio and TV to demand the resignation^{ed}

of Lebanon's President Sull^eman Franjeh, calling for the Suleiman

election of new president -- within seven days.

SOUTHERN ANGOLA

Pro-western forces in southern Angola ^{today} were claiming ² today to have killed more than a hundred Cuban soldiers in the past week. ~~These said to have~~ included ⁱⁿ seventeen who were tried before a "Peoples Tribunal" -- on charges of rape and murder. "All ^{of the} seventeen were executed," --
We are told -- by a "firing squad composed entirely of women."

WASHINGTON

~~From~~ The family of missing James Hoffa, ~~it was disclosed today~~
~~the target~~ ^{there is} of a claim for more than half a million in back taxes,

This in connection with retirement benefits received from the

Here at K F H Wichita everybody was happen today -- it was raining -- and desperately needed as you know.

HOLLAND

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper of Holland, Michigan --

~~are~~ celebrating this weekend their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary;

with family and friends -- clustered about. ^{This would not be news} Not really news --

^{was it not} ~~except~~ that Mrs. Cooper has spent the last thirty ^{of her life} years in an

^{a paralyzed} iron lung -- ^a victim of polio, ~~paralyzed from the neck down.~~

"At first" -- she recalls -- "I lived from day to day -- just to see my boys grow. Now I am a grandmother. I think of it all as a gift of God." Of her husband, ^{who} ~~she~~ has taken care of her all of these years, ^{she} adds: "He's one in a million."

And now this m --

TEETH

From a pair of San Francisco Orthodontists -- a rating today -- that is of the leading presidential candidates, according to their teeth.

At the head of the list -- Jimmy Carter, a man said to know "the power of his teeth" -- although, ~~we are~~ told, "in the long pull his mouth may get tired of having to smile so much."

On the Republican side -- Ronald Reagan is said to have

"leading man molars;" with Gerald Ford is also described as "a fortunate man, mouthwise." So what? you say? Ah, but the

The Orthodontist's say ~~say~~ as: "A person who takes care of his teeth -- is more likely to be able to take care of the nation."

And now for C D S
