Mar. June 215 71.

DOCUMENTS

A Federal Judge in Washington - for the second time - has refused to order the Washington Post to stop publishing newspapers to articles based on the Pentagon's controversial secret study of the Vietnam where por war. The Justice Department - which brought suit to publication - immediately announced plans for an appeal. In rendering his decision, Federal Judge Gerhard Gesell said he feels that publication of the documents "do"not show an immediate threat to national security." The main see argument of the government attorneys seeking to halt the newspaper ccounts. In New York, a ruling on a similar suit brought against the New York Times, was postponed Tomorrow When until eight members of a federal appeals court will hear arguments in the case, temorram

Twenty-four members of the Senate have signed a cloture petition aimed at see cutting off debate on the draft bill now seven weeks old. If the debate goes on, the Selective Service Act will die automatically in nine days. The cloture betthion if approved by two thirds of the Senators present and voting would end the debate and bring the draft measure to a vote: R Also, today, the Senate voted to put a ceiling of two and a half million on the total U S military personnel on active duty. - That teres to be exceeded only by an act of Congress. The measure would not apply to the activation of military reserves.

A barrage of Communist rockets struck a South Vietnamese fire base just below the demilitarized zone today and was followed by an enemy ground attack in the second straight day of heavy fighting near the South China seacoast. American and South Vietnamese helicopter gun ships teamed up to beat off the attackers.

the contract of the contract o

The Senate banking Committee today heard testimony from three economists -- and Ralph Nader all of whom argued against saving the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation from bushuppets bankruptcy with government funds. Lockheed needs two hundred and fifty million dollars - to remain solvent and complete work on its Tri-Star jet liner. Nader and the economists argued that if Lockheed received special financial help from Congress other firms would soon line up, looking for relief - much to the detriment of the free enterprise system. Those who favor providing Lockheed with financial aid say it's necessary to avoid harm to the nation's economy, and assure continued technological advances in the aircraft industry.

The liberal group - Americans for Domain Democratic Action - wants Congress to turn down a welfare we bill that would guarantee a twenty four hundred dollar annual income for family of four persons. The ADA says that amount is "inadequate". A final vote on the eleven billion dollar welfare social security bill is expected tomorrow.

H Miami Beach, Frank Fitzsimmons was named to head the Teamsters Union and its two militor members - succeeding his long time friend James Hoffa now serving a prison term for jury tampering. There been speculation that Hoffa would not be cleared for a parole as long as he remained in control of the Union. President Nixon vacationing in nearby Key Biscayne, was Miami to congratulate Fitzsimmons. Said the President - "the door to my office is always open to President Fitzsimmons, and that's the way it should be. "

Anti-F B I sentiments - often expressed in Congress during recent months - hasn't affected the usual custom of providing J Edgar Hoover's agency with adequate operational funds. The House Appropriations Committee today made its annual recommendation that the FB I be given all the money it asked for - this time about three hundred thirty-four million. The request is part of a four hundred billion dollar measure providing operational funds for several different governmental departments and their agencies.

The Supreme Court says it will rule during its next term - on the question of whether the federal government has a wire right to tap the telephone of anyone deemed to be a threat to national security -- without obtaining permission from a Federal Judge. The ruling would affect a dispute over a claim by Attorney General John Mitchell who says the government's right of self protection surmounts an individual's right of privacy in security investigations.

Actress Elizabeth Taylor says she became the target of a circus knife thrower in Mexico because of a language misunderstanding, - but she agrees the experience was pretty frightening. Miss Taylor told reporters in London that she and husband Richard Burton went to a circus and were watching the knife thrower in action. Somebody said something in Spanish and Miss Taylor - believing she would be introduced to the audience - stepped into the ring - only to suddenly freeze in her tracks when the knives began raining all around her. Without knowing it - she had become part of the act. Burton jumped into the ring shouting "stop it". Said Burton later - "after all, Low did t didn't know how good he was with those knives."

Today is the first day of summers- and But winter lingers on in Ironwood, Michigan a community of nine thousand up near the southwest shores of Lake Superior where a snowfall of two hundred sixty-four inches was recorded this past winter, The city spent a hundred thousand dollars he moving snow from the downtown streets -- piling it into a huge mound several blocks away.

As of the sixty feet long, - and the talk of Ironwood, Michigan.