

Friday, November 7, 1975
Chicago, Illinois

BOSTON

For President Ford - a visit today to Massachusetts; including a speech at Boston where he said the recent cabinet shakeup - in no way lessens his determination to keep America the strongest nation on earth.
The President saying: "Our allies and our adversaries - must not be misled; there will be no change in America's strength and vigilance - as we seek a safer and saner world!"

The President also criticizing Congressional attempts -to cut more than seven billion from the defense budget. "You can be certain" - said he - on this, "I have just begun to fight."

BUENOS AIRES

A move to impeach Isabel Peron as President of Argentina - was launched today in the Argentine Chamber of Deputies. A motion filed by three opposition Congressmen - accusing the Lady President of "poor performance in the exercise of her functions."

DACCA

A former army commander-in-chief today became the new ruler of Bangla Desh - in that nation's third governmental shakeup in less than three months. General Ziaur Rahman succeeding deposed President Ahmed - who tried to fire the General only a few days ago.

SPANISH SAHARA

Tens of thousands of Moroccans were camping today in a tent city - about fifteen miles inside Spanish Sahara; their numbers swelled by additional peace marchers - arriving today in a steady stream. But no attempt as yet - to approach the nearby Spanish defense lines.

SAN FRANCISCO

In the Patricia Hearst case - at San Francisco - a ruling today that the newspaper heiress - is mentally able to stand trial. Judge Carter saying psychiatric reports have shown - "the defendant is competent assist in her own defense;" therefore, denying a request for an additional delay of thirty days.

SAN JOSE

The former patriarch of an ancient Christian sect centered in Persia - was the victim today of a "holy revenge" killing at San Jose, California. Mar Eshai Shimun, age sixty-six, the leader of the so-called Nestorians - till he broke his vows of celibacy, married and had a child; fleeing to Canada and then the U.S. - in an effort to escape retribution; but finally tracked down and shot three times in the chest.

A man identified as the killer - later arrested in a nearby pizza parlor. Police saying he had arrived in the U.S. - only a few hours earlier from Canada.

CANCER

*From the National Center for Health Statistics - a report today showing a five percent increase in cancer deaths so far this year. Why - nobody seems to know.
Center Chief Robert Armstrong saying: "It could be the result of simple fluctuation - but we really won't know until we see the final data." Doctor Robert Mullier adding: "The first thing to find out is if it is due to one particular kind of cancer - that would be important," such as lung cancer from cigarettes.*

STANFORD

This next - from Stanford University; a report on a study of seven-hundred women - over the past fifty years is said to show that those who followed careers were more satisfied with their lives - than those who become solely homemakers.

However, the women found to be most satisfied - were those who followed careers and also married and raised families. The study concluding that career or no - "it is still a part of womens' lives to wish for children."

SAN FRANCISCO

Another remarkable chapter in the life of America's number one physical fitness enthusiast - is reported today from San Francisco. Famed Jack La Lanne - celebrating his sixty-second birthday - by swimming two miles across San Francisco Bay - while shackled hand and foot; and he did it swimming under water all the way - getting his air from pressure tanks on the surface.

At the end of his swim - still in the pink of condition - Jack La Lanne saying: "Anything is possible - with proper food and exercise."