

L.T. BUICK, FISHER. TUESDAY JULY 20, 1965

GOOD EVENING EVERYBODY:

Our new man at the United Nations -- Arthur J. Goldberg. The son of a poor Jewish immigrant -- who rose to fame as an outstanding labor lawyer. Eventually to don the black robes -- of an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

Goldberg named today by President Johnson -- to succeed the late Adlai Stevenson in the Councils of World Diplomacy. His task -- said the President -- the attainment of international justice -- under the rule of law.

Goldberg's response -- a resolve to pursue "man's ancient supplication." To wit: "grant us peace, they most precious gift;" and added Goldberg -- "What has been prayer throughout the ages -- is necessity today."

This, Goldberg's first major venture -- into the delicate field of international politics. This is indeed a major surprise. And of course the President must now name a successor to Goldberg. LBJ's first appointment - to the Supreme Court.

... said to have just arrived in the
... of Red China. Formally welcomed -
... by Red China's Premier Zhou En-lai and other leading officials.

The Minister is elected Vice-President of Maoist China in mid-1958, leaving President the following year - when Zhou En-lai gave up the office temporarily.
But later, called to the United States - for reasons never made quite clear.

At any rate - he was once a key figure in Kweichow Province. The Communists said to hope - that he still has some influence there, - and that would be of great value to them. Kweichow - was the province that
... of Viet Nam.

CHINA

Radio Peking today reported the defection - of a former top official of Nationalist China. Seventy-four year old Li Tsung-Jen - said to have just arrived in the mainland capitol of Red China. Formally welcomed - so the story goes - by Red China's Premier Chou En-Lai and other leading communist dignitaries.

The defector, Li, elected Vice-President of Nationalist China in nineteen forty-eight, <sup>and was</sup> Acting President the following year - when Chiang Kai-Shek gave up the office temporarily. But <sup>he was</sup> later exiled to the United States - for reasons never made quite clear.

At any rate - he was once a war lord in Kwangsi Province. The Communist <sup>are</sup> said to hope - that he still may have some influence there, - ~~and thus prove of great future value.~~ Kwangsi - ~~as you may know~~ - the Chinese province that borders on Viet Nam.

VIET NAM

Defense Secretary Robert McNamara -- today ended his five-day inspection tour of Viet Nam with a warning that "in many aspects -- there has been a deterioration" in the last fifteen months; in the American-backed war -- against the communist Viet Cong.

McNamara noting that since he last visited Viet Nam -- the size of the communist forces has increased; their attacks have expended; and they have intensified their "campaign of terror" -- against the civilian population. But whether he will recommend the assignment of additional U.S. troops to Viet Nam -- he wouldn't say.

Meanwhile in the fighting itself -- communist guerillas today stormed a special forces camp at Bu Dop; about eighty-five miles -- North of Saigon with heavy losses reported among the government troops and their American advisors.

ROBBERY

A daring daylight robbery -- today on Wall Street.

With two bandits -- grabbing a money sack from a bank messenger and escaping into the noon-day crowds -- with nearly three million dollars worth of negotiable blue chip stock certificates; that will be extremely difficult to cash -- maybe impossible.

PAY

The house today voted unanimously - four hundred and ten to nothing - to give U.S. service men a billion dollar pay increase. The pay boost - nearly doubled that requested by the President. Averaging out to about eleven percent a piece for officers and enlisted men alike. The bill now goes to the Senate.

FLOOD

Flood-waters were ripping a path -- through Eastern Kansas and Western Missouri again today. Damage into the millions! Thousands driven from their homes.

Two space satellites - to guard against the possibility of sneak nuclear tests in orbit. Orbiting along with a third satellite - already ~~has~~ <sup>is</sup> ~~been~~ <sup>in</sup> ~~use~~ <sup>use</sup> monitoring ~~several~~ <sup>several</sup>

The ~~thousands~~ <sup>thousands</sup> ~~of~~ <sup>of</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~satellites~~ <sup>satellites</sup> ~~are~~ <sup>are</sup> ~~being~~ <sup>being</sup> ~~launched~~ <sup>launched</sup>

anniversary of the nation's first ~~space~~ <sup>space</sup> launch, ~~at~~ <sup>at</sup> ~~Cape~~ <sup>Cape</sup>

SCOUTS

U.S. missile men today send a pair of satellite scouts - speeding a quarter-of-the-way to the moon. The twin space sentinel - to guard against the possibility of sneak nuclear tests in space. Orbited along with a third satellite - already <sup>up there</sup> ~~hard at work~~ monitoring natural radiation above the earth.

The ~~three-in-one~~ space shoot - marking <sup>3</sup> the fifteenth anniversary of the nation's first rocket launch, <sup>which was</sup> ~~at~~ Cape Canaveral - now Cape Kennedy - on July 24, 1950.

BACKACHE

Once again I am in the big tree country of Northern California where I have been coming regularly every July for the past thirty years. To Northwood Lodge -- on The Russian River.

This time the journey was delayed several days because of what seems to be one of the problems that bothers modern man, especially in the U.S.A. -- more so here than any where else on earth; -- an aching back. So, when I discovered a book on this subject had been written by a man who for several years treated President Kennedy for his back trouble; the same man who was largely responsible for President Eisenhower appointing a committee to encourage Americans to bet more exercise, naturally, I was interested. Now having read the book, I am tempted to tell all of you about it.

The author, Dr. Hans Draus, gives the reasons for backache, and insists that it is the most serious threat to the health of the American people.

The title of his book is simply "Backache" by Simon and Schuster. Actually, the author is a veteran mountain climber, who helped me get back in shape after an accident I had in Tibet 16 years ago. So I have great faith in him.

Why are Americans so afflicted? The author says that in our lifetime the environment of man has changed more than in the previous one hundred thousand years. Fifty years ago, less than that, for many, nearly all of us had physical work to do. We rode horseback, plowed fields, chopped wood, numerous household jobs; everybody walked--~~or~~<sup>Y</sup> rode horses.

Today you drive a car with power steering. You can almost do it with your little finger. Instead of climbing stairs, we ride elevators. To get heat, we turn a dial on a thermostat; maybe it's automatic. Clothes and other things are washed mechanically and dried mech~~in~~<sup>Y</sup>ally. The same with dish washers. Even egg beaters are mechanical and your carving knife is operated by electricity. You may even have an electrical toothbrush.

So in our push button age we have back trouble!

So I hope you will all read what my friend has to say about backache. Let's all be physically fit!

If you will take over Warren I'll do my exercises!

MONEY

In Miami - a pretty nineteen old housewife went to jail today - at least temporarily. In the bizarre theft of more than a half million dollars in cash - from her father's office bathroom in South Carolina.

Mrs. Mary Jane Hollingsworth Farrell - who at sixteen was the youngest graduate in the history of the University of Miami <sup>—now</sup> held pending an extradition hearing, ~~which~~ her attorney said - "we will fight as hard as we can." The alleged theft - no more than a "family squabble" - said he. <sup>Said</sup> ~~This from~~ Mrs. Farrell ~~herself.~~ ~~Said she:~~ "I feel sorry for Daddy - he loves only money."
