KISSINGER

In the wake of President Nixon's surprise disclosures of last night - Henry Kissinger to the fore today. The President's top foreign policy advisor - filling in the details of our secret quest for peace in Vietnam.

Kissinger telling of a parley with enemy negotiators - last August in Paris. Saying the U.S. had offered a specific withdrawal date - August Sixteenth, Nineteen Seventy-Two; if Hanoi would only agree to the release of American P O W's - also, a cease fire.

But the answer to that was a flat no, says Kissinger. Reporting that Hanoi also insisted on a cut-off - of all military and economic aid to South Vietnam, which would have left the South Vietnamese - virtually defenseless.

Summing up, said Dr. Kissinger: "They are, in effect, asking us to ally ourselves - with their overthrow of the people; they want us to achieve for them - what they have not been able to accomplish themselves. Then he added that they say we should set a date regardless of whatever happens, regardless of the prisoner of war issue.

Says Dr. Kissinger: "We are still ready to resume talks, in either public or private channels." Then adding, "sometime - this war has to end."

PARIS FOLLOW KISSINGER

- Meanwhile, in Paris, -- north Vietnam was again rejecting the President's peace terms. Also, blasting the President - for finally letting the cat out of the bag. Hanoi charging that the President
"spoke of sham peace - but made real war."

SCOTT GOLDWATER FOLLOW PARIS

Oh, but Here at home ~~nevertheless~~, the President was drawing strong bi-partisan support; and even stronger - partisan support.

Senate Minority leader Hugh Scott - saying the President's speech was a clear-cut J answer to reasonable people with reasonable doubts. Adding "of course, it would never be an answer - to people who demand total surrender."

~~Senator~~ Goldwater of Arizona saying that ~~stronger~~

~~with~~ Any Democrat who fails to support the President's initiative, Quote ~~and he~~ - "is either committed to the total surrender of all of America's strategic interests in Indo China; or is more interested in gaining political advantage - than in ending the tragic hostilities."

HUMPHREY FOLLOW SCOTT_GOLDWATER

Senator Humphrey of Minnesota who ran against the President in Sixty-Eight, <sup>is</sup> another of ~~rallying to the cause,~~
~~those now backing him.~~ Hubert Humphrey saying -

- if the President can end the war - he deserves full political credit. "I'm not looking for a fight" <sup>continued Sen.</sup> ~~and~~ Humphrey, - "I'm looking for peace." After a moment's reflection -- <sup>he</sup> ~~the Senator~~ <sup>ed:</sup> adding: "We have plenty of other things to argue about."

FAMILIES FOLLOW HUMPHREY

The President's peace plan was also drawing qualified support - from the National League of Families of American prisoners. Mrs. Joan Vinson of Alexandria Virginia -- a spokesman for ~~the~~<sup>2</sup> group -- saying the President had taken a positive approach to a complex problem. Mrs. Vinson also ~~saying~~<sup>adding that</sup> So many people - so many candidates - have oversimplified the issue."

NEW YORK

A midtown skyscraper in New York - the scene of incendiary bomb attacks today against the nation's two ~~known~~ leading importers of Soviet talent. Resulting smoke and fire killing Miss Iris

~~Koves~~ - <sup>renowned veteran</sup> a receptionist for ~~famed~~ impresario Sol

Hurok. In later calls to news media -- an anonymous man saying: "Cultural bridges of friendship<sup>d</sup> - will not be built over the bodies of Soviet Jews - never again." That <sup>being the</sup> ~~fact as you perhaps know - the~~ ~~show~~ slogan of the militant Jewish Defense League.

PRAQUE

At Prague in Czechoslovakia -- a two day summit meeting of the Warsaw pact powers, ~~ended~~ today with the signing of a document - supposedly paving the way for an all-European security conference. And then - a state ~~for~~ banquet. Russia's Leonid Brezhnev saying in a toast - the meeting had "strengthened security in Europe and the world."

CAIRO

Throughout the Moslem world - the faithful today were celebrating Qurban Bairam - the Festival of Sacrifice; one of the principal Moslem holidays. In Cairo this brought a brief respite there from the student violence of recent days.

Egyptian President Anwar Sadat made his way to Hussein Mosque without a bodyguard. Later visiting Nasser's tomb - where he read from the Koran; then to his home outside Cairo to be with his family.

For the first time~~/~~in weeks - all quiet on the Mid-East front.

WASHINGTON

For many young Americans, the cost of an education -- going up again. This -- courtesy of the President's cost of living council, which tonight exempted from controls -- tuition fees, also room and board, at all private non-profit schools, colleges and universities.

DANVILLE

Danville, California - the "world's oldest living cowboy celebrates another birthday. This one rather special. Cowboy Jack Hart - a contemporary of Billy The Kid who ~~later~~ rode with Teddy Roosevelt. - <sup>Jack Hart is</sup> ~~aged~~ one hundred, today. His friends and neighbors presenting him a plaque inscribed: "To Jack Hart - three quarters Cherokee, one quarter barbed wire - eighty years a rodeo rider, ninety years a cowboy and one hundred years of hell raising."

Oh, yes, <sup>and</sup> ~~I nearly forgot~~ - cowboy Jack was ~~also~~ asked the usual question - to what does he attribute his long life? - <sup>His reply: Warren,</sup> ~~whereupon he replied,~~ "Good whiskey, and good women."

ALEXANDRIA

The ability of humans to summon-up ~~great~~ ~~unusual~~ strength under conditions of extreme stress, is a well-documented phenomenon. ~~And now - another~~ ~~case in point.~~

At Alexandria, Kentucky - Mrs. <sup>Margaret See</sup> ~~Margaret~~
when suddenly <sup>their car</sup> ~~an accident. The car~~ hitting a pole whipping over on its side; with young Mark falling through an open window <sup>and</sup> ~~falling~~ pinned underneath.

At this point - Mrs. See summoning all her strength and courage - <sup>Though</sup> she stands only ~~five~~ five-five and weighs a mere hundred ~~and~~ twenty she lifted that two thousand pound car far enough for her son to crawl out. According to police who arrived shortly - an amazing feat.

Mrs. See and son -- then ~~was~~ rushed to a hospital. Young Mark - treated for arm and shoulder injuries. ~~Luckily - not bad. As for~~ His mother? -

she was treated for shock. ~~When you think of it -~~

No ~~small~~ wonder.
