

TULE LAKE

P.J. - Standard. Monday, Nov. 8, 1945.

Today While California ~~San~~ State Senators were investigating the Japanese uprisings at Tule Lake the Tokyo radio was busy making political capital ~~of~~ out of the affair. The Tokyo spokesman put out some wild and fantastic versions of it. In one broadcast aimed at the U. S. Tokyo said the Jap rioters had been living up to the true spirit of the Japanese. <sup>FF</sup> In another story that they broadcast to Asia they said the U. S. Army authorities had used machine guns and tanks to squelch the rioters. And still another beamed on South America said the affair had caused great indignation among the Japanese people and <sup>that</sup> it was another instance of American brutality. The California Senate Investigating Committee learned <sup>that</sup> ~~they~~ actually the Japs at Tule Lake ~~had tried to burn the Administration Building, had~~ <sup>had</sup> demanded that certain officials of the War Relocation Authority be discharged, had paid a mass tribute to Premier Tojo, had beaten white employees, <sup>had</sup> ~~and~~ deliberatel thrown food away, <sup>and had tried to burn the</sup>

PACIFIC

Tonight's news from the southwest Pacific foreshadows the biggest battle yet in that part of the world. The Japanese have a huge concentration of warships in the harbor of Rabaul, and the Australians and Americans seem to be all set for them. ~~are ready for them.~~

It is remarkable that the harbor of Rabaul should still be able to hold such a heavy concentration of Jap ~~warships~~ naval power for Allied planes have blasted ~~it~~ Rabaul no fewer than ten times in ~~the past~~ the past three weeks, ~~and~~ and The harbor is littered with sunken vessels, ~~and~~ and The wharves are shattered, ~~with~~ all  ~~bombs.~~ Nevertheless, the Japs ~~have evidently still~~ appear to have been able to move large forces in and out. ~~of it.~~ R Flying Fortresses and Medium Bombers have raided every airfield in the network around Rabaul, but the Japs contrive still to keep some planes in the air over the New Guinea battlefield. ~~They have~~ but - have ~~the~~ ~~United States~~ ~~and~~ ~~Australian lines~~ ~~in~~ ~~New Guinea,~~ though they did not

According to late reports, American and Australian planes have destroyed thirty-five more enemy aircraft at Rabaul. By a force of Liberator bombers escorted by Lightning fighters. Twenty-three enemy planes shot down, and the rest blasted on the ground

Aside from that there were raids on the air of all parts of the Southwest Pacific. General MacArthur announces that altogether sixty-three more enemy planes have been knocked out.

ADD PACIFIC

A story out of Washington tonight brings word that since Pearl Harbor the armed forces of the United States have destroyed ~~no fewer than~~ <sup>some</sup> eight hundred and thirty-five Jap ships of all types, ~~that~~ <sup>my</sup> includes two hundred and twenty-five men-of-war and six hundred and ten ~~non-combatant~~ <sup>non-combatant</sup> vessels. Among the ~~m~~ <sup>m</sup> ~~ships~~ are three battleships, six aircraft carriers, fifty-one cruisers, one hundred and ten destroyers and fifteen submarines.

As again st that the United States has lost one hundred-and-one ~~men-of-war~~ <sup>vessels</sup> one battleship, four <sup>carriers,</sup> ~~ships~~ nine cruisers, thirty five destroyers, and fifteen submarines.

HITLER

The air waves over Europe resounded this afternoon with a high pitched, screaming voice that has not been heard for some time of late. It was der

at it again - haranguing an Fuehrer, ~~Hitler, calling for all he was worth, while an~~ obedient audience of veteran Nazi Party members who who ~~occasionally broke in with their~~ ~~punctuated his speech with shouts of "Heil!"~~ usual "heils";

For This was the Twentieth Anniversary of ~~a famous~~ that Munich
~~date, the~~ Beer Cellar Putsch, ~~of Munich of~~ Nineteen

This time
Twenty-Three. The Party reunion was held ~~in the~~ in the restaurant of one of the big breweries on the outskirts of Munich.

The Hitler style is unchanged, also his hold on the old Party members. The speech contained no surprises. It was mostly a shouting of defiance to the British and to us. That However long the war may last, Germany will never capitulate. Then he promised that whatever else happens, there will be an hour of retribution for the bombing of German cities. And he banged on the desk in front of him as he said this.

Then he went on to say that Americans were talking about reconstructing ~~the~~ after the war. It will not happen, ~~at all~~ Fuehrer, ~~Hitler~~. The only reconstruction, will be that of Germany, which will be planned and executed systematically.

He poked a lot of fun at the rumors about his nervous collapse, ~~and~~ <sup>and of his alleged</sup> quarrels within the Nazi Party, stories that the Nazi Party has deposed the army and that the army has deposed the Party. His audience laughed with him as he ridiculed these tales. Then ~~he~~ said that everything is possible, but one thing is entirely impossible, that he should lose his nerve.

Nothing can ever happen, said Adolf Hitler, to make him fear. The collapse of the Fascist Government in Italy and the conquest of Sicily he laid ~~down~~ to sabotage and treachery. In spite of that, he said the hopes of the Allies have not been realized. ~~The Germans, he declared,~~

The Germans

have restored their position and in some respects have improved it. And he declared, it is one thing to land against the Italians in Sicily and a very different thing to land against Germans in France or in Norway.

He wound up by ~~saying~~ <sup>adding</sup> that great victories have never been won without the greatest reverses. The German people, ~~he~~ <sup>he,</sup> said, may be quiet and confident because at the end stands victory for them, and he called upon his people to gird their loins for a bitter fight, a fight to the finish, to the limit of endurance and ~~with~~ the utmost fanaticism.

ADD HITLER

The Nazi radio gave him a great build-up, while the audience was waiting for him to appear. Announcers speculated <sup>as to</sup> whether the Fuehrer would appear or not. They said he might not be able to leave his headquarters, intimating ~~xxx~~ that he was at the Front. ~~But even in Germany people know now that his real headquarters are in xxx bomb proof rooms at his xxx mountain resort one hour's ride from Munich.~~

Goering and Goebbels were there, also <sup>Heinrich</sup> Himmler, the Minister of the Interior, <sup>and ~~the~~ ~~head~~ of the ~~SS~~</sup> ~~SS~~ <sup>TP</sup> ~~There were plenty of bells and their~~ <sup>by the way,</sup> ~~faithful responded~~ <sup>the Fuehrer</sup> one or two awkward pauses when ~~he~~ announced that Germany never would give up, and <sup>then</sup> waited for applause ~~that~~ <sup>it</sup> did ~~it~~ not come.

INVASION

In Italy, General Montgomery has turned the flank of the Nazis on the Adriatic coast and <sup>has</sup> advanced <sup>another</sup> five miles. A spokesman at Allied headquarters announced that the British Eighth Army is engaged in a general offensive. But, the most important part of it is ~~the~~ advance on the east coast which <sup>now</sup> ~~has~~ threatened <sup>S</sup> the whole German line, for miles ~~in~~ inland. The British ~~now~~ have a firm grip on the principal railroad, and they are within five miles of the next German line of defense on the River Sangro.

Meanwhile, something important is happening on the West coast of Italy, the American side of the line.

There are reports based on considerable evidence, that the Nazis are already blowing up the large seaport of Gaeta, at the head of the Gulf of the same name.

The American outposts have heard heavy explosions coming

He { from the direction of Gaeta, which is only nine miles away from the Fifth Army. So the obvious inference is that the Nazis are getting ready to blow it up before evacuating.

~~The Germans made several desperate counter-attacks on the American line at Venafro, but General Clark's men <sup>held firm.</sup> ~~did not yield an inch.~~ Both the Americans and the British captured many towns on the way.~~

ADD INVASION

I have just been talking to a young Chinese journalist and military observer, Norman Soong of Chungking, who has been with various armies ever since this war began. Young <sup>S</sup>Soong recently spent considerable time with our troops in North Africa, Sicily, and Southern Italy, <sup>all the</sup> way to Naples and ~~eastward~~ beyond. He was only a few yards away from the postoffice in Naples when the German time bomb went off, the one that destroyed the postoffice with such terrific loss of life.

He thinks that nothing will save Rome, that the Nazis are already mining it extensively, and that much of the Eternal City is sure ~~to~~ to be destroyed, no matter whether our forces <sup>b</sup>ypass Rome or not. He ~~has~~ had <sup>S</sup>high praise for our soldiers and the job they are doing. ~~But~~ Regarding our Administrative people who are helping run the Italian government, he ~~wasn't~~ isn't so sure about their achievements. But, ~~his~~ his prophecy, that Rome will be in ruins to a greater extent even than Naples, is startling, coming as it does from a brilliant observer just back from the front.

VATICAN

27

A story from Lisbon, ~~solves~~ <sup>that</sup> the mystery of the airplane that bombed the Vatican on Friday night, <sup>has been solved!</sup>

~~It was~~ arranged <sup>by</sup> ~~the~~ the Puppet Fascist government which the Nazis have set up under the ex-Duce Mussolini. <sup>That's</sup> The explanation <sup>that</sup> comes through Lisbon from France. The motive, ~~of this attack was~~ to create the idea that the Vatican was not safe, thereby justifying the Nazis in removing the art treasures belonging to the Papal See on pretense of protecting them. That's the story from Lisbon, which is the world's number one rumor center.

ADD RUSSIA - Lead

The Red Armies <sup>have</sup> recaptured numerous large places North of Kiev. <sup>Also</sup> they ~~now~~ have <sup>retaken</sup> ~~captured~~ an eighty mile stretch of railroad in the Ukraine, the last stretch that the Germans held, <sup>that runs</sup> ~~running~~ north and south.

As for the German forces in the bend of the Dnieper River, <sup>high</sup> Red Army officers <sup>have</sup> ~~declare that~~ <sup>is also says these</sup> ~~they are~~ <sup>are now</sup> in a death ~~xxxx~~ trap, just like ~~the~~ <sup>one</sup> in which the Nazi Sixth Army was wiped out last winter at Stalingrad.

~~Further North the Soviets at one point are only forty miles from the borders of Russia~~

~~These are the highlights.~~

RUSSIA

But in the Ukraine the vanguard of the Red army led by Colonel General Vatutin is now only a hundred and thirty-five miles from the Rumanian border. So it is not surprising that stories are coming out of neutral countries telling of unrest and excitement in Rumania. All over Rumania the Swiss and Turkish consulates are besieged by crowds demanding passport visas.

MOSCOW

Moscow dispatches give exciting accounts of demoralization in the German armies retreating from Kiev.

The Communist paper PRAVDA declares that the retreating Nazis are abandoning automobiles, trucks, cannon, tanks, everything that encumbers them. PRAVDA says further that many of the Germans are running away barefooted, carrying their boots under their arms.

Well, heavy hob-nailed boots might impede one's progress if he's going fast!

Captain Sertorius, German military commentator admitted today that the Red army had achieved a major breakthrough in the north around Nevel. It was there that the Russians yesterday captured a town only thirty-five miles from the Polish frontier.

RALLY

Soviet Russia will pay us back for all the help we have sent through Lend-Lease, will pay in full. <sup>So says</sup> Premier Stalin. <sup>By fact he said</sup> ~~said so himself, said~~ it to Donald Nelson, <sup>Chairman</sup> ~~Chairman~~ of the War Production Board during his ~~recent~~ visit to Moscow. Stalin told Nelson positively that any obligation undertaken by the Soviet government will be repaid in full, and not by token payments. ~~Nelson~~ <sup>Donald</sup> ~~told this~~ <sup>gave out backword</sup> tonight at a mass meeting, at Madison Square Garden, in New York, a rally held for the purpose of building up friendship between the United States and the Soviet Union.

One of the other speakers was Secretary of ~~the~~ Interior ~~Harold~~ Ickes, <sup>who</sup> devoted most of his time to denouncing people who <sup>are unwilling</sup> ~~cannot conceal~~ <sup>to hold out the hand of fellowship to our ally</sup> ~~their dislike for Communist Russia.~~ He described <sup>such persons</sup> ~~them~~ as "powerful and active forces deliberating fostering ill-will toward "Russia". Ickes <sup>went on to say</sup> ~~declared~~ that there are people who hate Stalin ~~and~~ and President Roosevelt so bitterly that they would rather see Hitler win the war than share the credit with Russia.

Russia.

RALLY - 2

MARIGNY

The trial of Count Alfred deMarigny had drama in it today, loud shouting drama at that. Marigny's best friend was on the stand, a French Marquis with a long name, who provided what appeared to be a strong alibi for Marigny. The Marquis testified that on the night of the murder he had retired early and that at about one thirty in the morning Marigny visited him and they had a conversation. After that, the Marquis went to sleep again until his guest, Miss Roberts, woke him up and asked him to take her home. He took her home shortly before three o'clock and returned in fifteen or twenty minutes. As he returned, Marigny called to him, out of the window, saying the Marquis's cat was in Marigny's room disturbing Marigny's sleep. The Marquis got his cat and put it out for the night.

Up to that point in the testimony there was no drama. But then the Marquis was turned over to the Crown for cross examination

Prosecutor, A. F. Adderley, a negro lawyer, ~~for~~ ~~confrontation~~. The prosecutor had hardly asked a dozen questions before the handsome Marquis was waving his arms and shouting, ~~for~~ The prosecutor produced a paper which turned out to be a statement ~~that~~ <sup>which</sup> the Marquis had signed at the police station on the morning after the murder. The prosecutor asked the Marquis whether he told the police inspector that he had not seen Marigny from midnight of the night of the murder until ten o'clock of the following morning. To that the Marquis did not reply yes or no, but said that he was upset. The prosecutor then asked him whether that was his signature on the statement? Again the Marquis explained that he was terribly upset because his best friend had been arrested, and he started shouting and waving his arms.

Then the prosecutor fired question after question at him, until the Marquis was almost incoherent.

He said he remembered nothing about signing that statement in the police station, <sup>and</sup> that his mind was vague, <sup>He also</sup> ~~and he~~ <sup>added</sup> ~~explained~~ that he is French and very emotional. <sup>He</sup> ~~then he~~ said further that it took him a week to pull himself together, and ~~that~~ he could remember nothing that happened within that time.

The Marquis with ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ the long French name is described by newspapermen as a handsome fellow, very much <sup>of a</sup> ~~the~~ lady's man, like his pal, the defendant Marigny. He was a boyhood friend of Marigny's and came to Nassau at Marigny's invitation. First he lived with Marigny and his second wife, the former Ruth Fahnstock, then he lived with Marigny and his third wife, the former Nancy Oakes, daughter of the murdered millionaire. Since Marigny's arrest, the Marquis has been out of luck, living in ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ one room over an establishment known as "Dirty Dick's Saloon."

FIRE

The forest fires in southern California are reported out of control tonight on several fronts. They are the worse than <sup>any</sup> ~~have happened~~ in five years.

~~It is~~ not one fire, but six, different fires of major ~~caliber~~. <sup>one</sup> ~~One of them~~ is raging in the Malibu region of the Santa Monica Mountains. In three days ~~this~~ one has advanced nineteen miles, <sup>and has</sup> burned out thirty-five thousand acres of trees, ~~and~~ <sup>ing</sup> destroyed more than a hundred ~~and thirteen~~ homes. ~~That is just one fire alone.~~ Altogether, two thousand, two hundred homes have been destroyed, and more than fifty thousand acres of timber and brushland, <sup>— by the 6 fires,</sup> An army of five thousand men is helping to fight the flames, <sup>including</sup> ~~United States~~ soldiers and marines, as well as civilians.

Ferocious fires are raging not only near Hollywood and Santa Monica, but also further south in the neighborhood of San Diego, where three ~~major fires~~ <sup>California fires</sup>

are out of control. ~~The wind is blowing over San Diego~~ ~~clouds of smoke so thick that they obscure the sun.~~
over the city of San Diego.

SP Several film stars have lost their homes and others are threatened. One part of Bing Crosby's ranch has been burned out. H Hot winds from the desert are fanning the flames.
