

Wed. Nov. 14-73

Amid the pomp and circumstance of Westminster
^{there was} Abbey ^{— as you know — a wedding} a wedding today, filled with warmth and emotion.
 Royal, ^{ah} yes - but human, too; thrilling millions in Britain-and millions more right around the globe.

The bride - Princess Anne - more beautiful than ever before. As she entered on the arm of her father - Prince Phillip, quickly catching the eye of her husband to be. Captain Mark Phillips resplendent in his colorful uniform. So proud and happy - he was fairly beaming, ^{as was} ~~and~~ she. - ~~the same~~.

A moment later - the rarest sight of all - as the couple exchanged their vows - Queen Elizabeth breaking into tears of joy. The first time - she has ever wept in public. Surprising even the Queen Mother Elizabeth while Phillip ~~was~~ gulped and bit his lip. The wedding completed, Anne and Mark departed the church smiling and gaily chatting all the way, ~~but~~ Another royal first - they say.

Their return to Buckingham Palace - marked by ~~mighty~~ cheers from tens of thousands.

Next - the wedding breakfast. Eggs, lobster, shrimp and tomato bound in ~~mayonnaise~~ mayonnaise, porridge with a garnish of button onions, mushrooms and bacon rolls - and peppermint ice cream with grated chocolate filling.

Whereupon the royal family responding to the cheers of thousands, ~~appeared~~^{ed} enmasse on the Palace balcony - happiness gleaming in every eye. As the cheering continued Anne and Mark taking an encore.

The couple later departing on their honeymoon amid a shower of rose petals; which Anne gleefully scooped up and hurled back. For a few hours, at least - the cares of the world all but forgotten. Ah, love -

~~isn't it grand?~~ As all the world knows - or should know - it is grand.

WATERGATE

Here at home - at the White House - President Nixon was continuing ^{his} a series of meetings with Republican legislators; in a face to face session with seventy-five congressmen - tackling his Watergate problems - "head on." The President quoted as saying he would not quit - first, because he's not guilty - and second, it ~~would~~ would be bad for future administrations.

"No man is ~~indispensable~~ indispensable" - the President reportedly ^{said - and then added: -} ~~continued~~ "but if any man gives in to charges that are false - it will effect the entire system."

The President ^{is} also quoted as saying he would be willing to meet with the bi-partisan leadership of the Senate Watergate committee. Committee ~~Chairman~~ Chairman Sam Erwin insisting, however, - he would "not go to the White House without the entire committee."

In a ^{related} development - Judge Sirica ruling the President is now ~~is~~ free to make public any tapes or any other Watergate related material he wishes.

The White House later saying: We ~~know~~ have received the information - we're looking into it."

In Wash. Fed. Judge Gerhart
Gesell rule the firing of Archibald Cox was illegal. However the Judge did refuse to issue an injunction reinstating Cox.

SCOTT FOLLOW WHITE HOUSE

More on the same - from Senate minority leader Hugh Scott in a Senate speech. Scott saying that soon to be furnished White House tapes - will "make false the statements of John Dean; and show that the President had no prior knowledge of any Watergate cover-up.

In a taped conversation of March twenty-first - Scott ~~went~~ went on - Dean saying to the President something like: "This is the first time - I've told you these things." The President's response to Dean's revelations - we are told - a shocked, "Oh, my God!"

CENTURY CITY FOLLOW Senate

While this from Barry Goldwater - in an earlier address at Century City, ~~Californi~~ California. The Arizona senator saying: "There is no way the President can be impeached - and there is no sensible reason for him to resign - he's not guilty of anything."

Senator Goldwater adding that the best advice he can give the President's critics is simply - "cool it.!"

TOKYO

For ^{Sec. of State} ~~Henry~~ Kissinger today - it was on to Tokyo;

where his arrival signaled the release of a joint communique - spelling out the results of his four day visit to Peking.

The U S and Red China pledging to "continue their efforts - to promote the normalization of relations, to do so by expanding the ^{duties} ~~scope~~ of their ~~liaison~~ liaison officers ^{by} encouraging additional cultural and scientific exchanges and ~~steppk~~ stepping up trade.

The U S also agreeing - there is "but one China and Taiwan is part of China." This coming simultaneous with a U S announcement - that another three thousand U S troops will be withdrawn from Taiwan by the end of the year.

CAIRO SUEZ ROAD

In the Middle East - at Kilometer one-oh ~~two~~ one on the Cairo Suez Road - another dramatic breakthrough today. Egyptian and Israeli army officers - formally agreeing to carry out the terms of a U S drafted cease fire plan. The surrender of Israeli check points ~~to~~ to be followed by an exchange of prisoners of war.

In the words of ~~Gen~~ General Ensio Siilvasuo of Finland, the commander of U N peace keeping forces: - "a great achievement". The General adding that it "was made possible ~~by~~ only by the very sincere efforts of the Israeli^s and the Egyptians."

SENATE

On the energy front - the Senate passed and sent along to ~~the~~ the White House today - a bill requiring the mandatory allocation of crude oil and petroleum products; an attempt to make sure that those who need fuel the most - will be able to get it.

The bill's chief ~~sponsor~~ sponsor - Senator Scoop Jackson of ~~Washington~~ Washington who called its enactment -- of "the highest urgency." Jackson saying: "There seems no way to avoid a degree of personal hardship - which, a few months ago, seemed almost unthinkable."

BONN NEW YORK

The energy crisis was also the subject of a barrage of speeches today - from high administration officials.

In Washington - Roy Ash, Director of the office of management and budget, ^{calling} ~~saying~~ the energy crisis "very real - clearly a national emergency; but insisting - it is manageable.

In New York - Secretary of Commerce Frederick Dent; saying "as a ~~modern~~ nation we are wasting energy on a prodigious scale;" urging the "consuming public -- to turn down the thermostat - cut out needless lighting and lift its foot ⁺ off the accelerator a little."

In Bonn - Chairman Herbert Stein of the President's Council of Economic Advisors ^{was} telling a group of West German business leaders that the world oil shortage -- will force an increase in U S energy prices; on the brighter side, noting, however, it will also strengthen the ~~doll~~ dollar in world money markets.

BUYING

there was Through all of France λ a wave of panic buying today, λ on the eve of a threatened twenty-four hour shutdown - by an estimated one million small shop keepers.

The French merchants - protesting government ordered price controls. Paris spokesman Guy Henninot saying:

"We want the capital and all the large cities - to be turned into ghost towns."

PARIS

The death of one of the ~~greatest~~ ^{leading} French fashion designers - is reported today from Paris. Elsa Schiaparelli -- ^{who was} at the peak of her profession - during the thirties and forties. Also, the inventor of shocking perfume -- ~~which is~~ still one of the best sellers in France, ^{and elsewhere.} Now - the victim of a stroke.

Elsa Schiaparelli - officially listed as seventy-seven, but ^{maybe more. Bill -} ~~nobody is really sure~~ Her daughter saying: Schiaparelli's age! Schiaparelli Just forget ~~her age - she~~ never wanted anyone to know!

LOVELAND

From Loveland, Colorado - the story of seventy-year old Jesse Lovin; a driver for more than half a century and never a ticket till now.

Poor Jesse - attempting to save fuel. Spinning along at forty-~~six~~ six miles an hour in a sixty mile and hour zone when he was pulled over by state police.

The official charge - impeding traffic. And s. l -
