

PEKING

Mon. Nov. 12-73.

*For Henry Kissinger in Peking - an unusually lengthy meeting today with chairman Mao. The details of their conversation not disclosed. A State Department spokesman saying ~~however~~<sup>did</sup>, they covered "a wide range of subjects, in a friendly atmosphere." And,
"at the end of the evening - " we are told - "Chairman Mao asked Dr. Kissinger to convey his regards to President Nixon."*

KISSINGER FOLLOW PEKING

DR Kissinger also met today - with a group of U S news men; <sup>where</sup> for a change of pace <sup>he</sup> discuss<sup>ed</sup> ~~ing~~ mainly the Middle East. Dr. Kissinger saying: "If the peace negotiations succeed - there will be a very serious problem especially for Israel - of how it's security can be assured." "At this time" - he continued - "the question of guarantees will arise; and we have to then ask the question - what sort of guarantees?" Dr. Kissinger going on to note that "the great powers - are already involved to some extent in the Middle East. And he added: "What we have to do - is ~~to~~ try to prevent every crisis from turning into a clash of super powers."

CAIRO SUEZ

Meanwhile, an ~~apparent~~ apparent snag today in efforts aimed at enforcing the present cease fire near the city of Suez. U N peace keeping forces - setting up a check point along the vital Cairo Suez road; the first step in opening a supply corridor - to ~~Egypt~~ Egypt's trapped third army; except that the check point was then physically dismantled by Israeli troops - in order to reopen the ~~the~~ highway to Israeli ~~traffic~~ traffic. An Israeli spokesman later claiming that the U N road block - would have isolated Israeli troops ~~stationed~~ stationed farther to the West. But the real bone of contention - we hear - the fact that Egypt has refused as yet, to hand over more than three hundred Israeli P O W's.

LONDON

More ~~on the same~~ from London, where Israeli Prime Minister Golda Meir - was pledging an all-out peace effort. "We will do everything possible" - said she - "to prevent the ~~new~~ cease fire from breaking down, and hope the Egyptians will do the same."

Madame Meir also saying "the ~~most~~ essential thing is face-to-face peace talks as soon as possible." Some compromises must be made - there is no question about that" - said she. Adding ~~that~~ that "nothing will be ruled out - at such talks."

WATERGATE

Here at home - in the continuing Watergate case - another attempt today to still the controversy over those two non-existent tapes. President Nixon agreeing to furnish Judge John Sirica - with ~~an~~ additional tapes and ~~announcements~~ memoranda dealing with the conversations at issue. There is no question in my mind - said he - "but that the open court hearings now being conducted - will demonstrate these two conversations were never recorded." "It is ~~sure~~ my hope - the President continued - "that these steps will clear up this ~~one~~ aspect of the Watergate matter once and for all."

The President going on to say that it was important <sup>for him to</sup> ~~that he~~ issue public statements - such as he did today "so that ~~the~~ ~~misconceptions~~ misconceptions do not ~~exist~~ persist, -- simply because certain basic facts are not presented to the American public."

ADD WATERGATE

And now the latest: The President agreeing to turn over all subpoenaed Watergate tapes - by November Twentieth this to follow an examination by technical experts for "any evidence of tampering or alterations."

WHITE HOUSE FOLLOW WATERGATE

The President also met today - with a group of top Republicans in and out of government. This serving as a prelude to a series of meetings later in the week - with every Republican member of Congress. What went on - later discussed by White House Press ~~Secretary~~ Secretary Ron Ziegler. The President - said he - pledging to meet all the allegations against him - "case by case and head to head;" allegations involving I T T - the milk producers, ~~and~~ the purchase of his homes in ~~Blount~~ Florida and California - and his personal income taxes. Ziegler adding the President will address such matters - very forthrightly." "The President is determined" said he - not to allow the charges drawn by various investigative organizations and ~~from~~ frequently leaked to the Press to overwhelm us."

MOSCOW

In the Soviet press - at the height of the latest mid-East crisis - a suggestion that President Nixon might be impeached. <sup>Then in</sup> ~~in~~ today's ~~no~~ edition of the Communist <sup>party</sup> newspaper Pravda an indication that all is forgiven.

This in the form of a dispatch from the U S - quoting at length from recent ~~was~~ remarks by U S Commerce Secretary Frederick Dent. Pravda noting that Dent had said there were only a few congressmen urging impeachment ~~because~~ because there is no foundation for such action. ~~But~~ Pravda going on to note that "those who insist on the President's resignation - are called by Dent a vengeful and irresponsible group."

CAPE CANAVERAL

At Cape Canaveral - a new set of apparent cracks was found today - in the so-called "structural members of the Sky Lab Three booster rocket. The new cracks coming to light - just as Space workers were completing the replacement of cracked fins. So, now "an indefinite delay."

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

6
London, again - the pre-wedding festivities have begun in earnest - Princess Anne and Captain Mark Phillips joining the Royal Family and a hundred guests at dinner tonight in the Throne Room of Buckingham Palace. And then a royal ball - for more than fifteen hundred. The bride and ~~groom~~ <sup>to-be</sup> groom ~~to-be~~ also granting today - their first joint interview. Captain Mark saying he was a confirmed ~~bachelor~~ bachelor until last March - when he was finally struck by the ~~thunder~~ thunderbolt and what's it like now -- to be marrying a Princess?

6 1/2
"I never thought of her as a Princess" said he. She was just the girl I ~~wanted~~ wanted to ~~be~~ marry." Next question: Why did Anne choose a ceremony in which she will promise to "obey" her husband? The Princess saying: "Perhaps I'm an old fashioned girl" but further noting that in Mark's ~~next~~ part of the ~~ceremony~~ ceremony - he will pledge to ~~worship~~ "worship" his new bride. Anne observing: "The only other time they use the words

'worship' is in reference to the Almighty, <sup>so," said she Bill, "the</sup> ~~so, the~~ women are really doing quite ~~and~~ well. " You might say quite-really!

HAARLEM

It's from Harlem, that is

~~This next - from~~ Harlem in the Netherlands - the story of an ingenious Dutch motorist - attempting to beat a Sunday driving ban." How? ~~so~~: <sup>Oh -</sup> ~~so~~ by adding wheels to his canoe - and then a sail. Scooting along the highway till he happened to run into a police car;

whereupon - it was back <sup>to</sup> ~~on~~ the beach, <sup>for "Van".</sup> The ~~wayward~~
