

Tuesday, July 2, 1974

MOSCOW

At the Moscow summit - on the eve of the President's return to the U S - an exchange of toasts tonight at a state dinner.

President Nixon first - with remarks similar to those he made earlier on Russian TV. The President saying: "Our goal cannot be accomplished in one meeting - or two or even three; but by continuing our meetings we will make permanent progress - toward our goal of a permanent peace."

If the President was somewhat cautious though - Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev was exactly the opposite. In his answering toast saying the results of the latest Moscow summit - "can already be described as constructive and weighty." By ~~the~~ way of proof - disclosing that he and the President- will soon sign a series of arms limitations agreements. "This complex of agreements - could perhaps have been still broader" - said he; "but what was agreed to this time" he added - "tangibly strengthens the cause of peace throughout the world."

MOSCOW - 2

And now this message.

PHLEBITIS

Moscow again - an announcement today that President Nixon's left leg - is ~~still~~ slightly swollen. Spokesman ~~Row~~ Ziegler insisting, however, that the ~~President's~~ phlebitis has now "resolved itself."

~~Ziegler~~ also saying the President was somewhat piqued - at news reports that he was "dragging" his leg at the end of a long day yesterday in Minsk. The President telling Ziegler to "ask the press how they ~~would not~~ feel ^{after} ~~if they were~~ riding in a car for six hours." ~~Adding if anything at all~~ ^{Says} he was merely ~~enraged~~ a little stiff.

To the Russians pulled the plug on pool-satellite facilities!

BONN

The newly inaugurated President of West Germany - Walter Schwel - a guest speaker today at a teacher's convention in Bonn. The former Foreign Minister recalling that a record he made ~~up~~ last year for charity was number one on the music charts for weeks. Also saying that he and Henry Kissinger - had once planned to do a duet.

Schwel ~~saying, however,~~ ^{saying} the project was ~~finally~~ cancelled _↓ due to his new job, which is largely ceremonial. Explaining that he and Dr. Kissinger - now have "different tonal pitches." "I ~~would~~ probably would have to hum only" said he. "And I don't care for humming."

CARACAS

At Caracas - another session in the continuing U N conference - on the laws of the sea. Red China charging today that the U S and the Soviet Union - are attempting to monopolize the seas. Claiming however, that Russia - is by far the worst ^{at} ~~for~~ ~~allegedly~~ plundering "other countries - off shore fishery and sea bed resources." Peking adding that Russia "is ~~so~~ shameless & and ~~to~~ boast^s about fulfilling the wild Czarist ambitions of a century ago - to dominate the sea."

BUENOS AIRES

The body of Argentina's Juan Peron lay in state today - in the Argentinian National Assembly. Tens of thousands of mourners - filing by the open casket - many kissing the fallen leader ~~of~~^R patting him on the head as they passed by - while Peron's widow - Maria Estela, ^{the ex-cabaret girl,} who is now the President of Argentina - maintain~~ing~~^{ed} a silent vigil at the side of the coffin.

STATE

The U S today accused Turkey of a breach of faith in revoking a previous ban on the cultivation of opium poppies. State Department spokesman John King - noting the U S had paid more than thirty-seven million to obtain such a ban. Adding that the matter is still a subject of "intensive discussion- between our two countries."

SMITH

California financier C Arnholt Smith, age seventy five - was ~~not~~ indicted today by a Washington grand jury; accused of conspiring to mis-use more than a ~~hundred~~ hundred and seventy million - from a defunct bank he formerly controlled.

How this mess -

BICYCLES

Here in the U S - we are now averaging more than a million bicycle accidents - each and every year. As a result, the U S consumer product safety commission today order^{ed}~~ing~~ mandatory federal safety standards for all bikes, effective January one.

These to include new strength and performance requirements - for bike frames - steering systems, wheels and brakes. Also, covers for protruding bolts, chain guards, where necessary - and adequate instructions for assembly and ~~maintenance~~ maintenance.

SLUT. this is LT for CBS news