L.J. - Olds. Thurs. May 10 - 62.

In Havana, ~~was~~ evidence of ^a coming showdown - between Castro and the Communists. Source of the story - Castro himself, the bearded dictator is obviously wondering - just how much of a dictator he really is. How far his authority has been eroded - by the Reds around him.

Today, Castro launched a verbal attack on - "Turncoats in the Polit Bureau". Meaning - those who aren't satisfied with a castro-style revolution. He accuses the hard core party liners - of expropriating land belonging to his followers. He wants that land - restored to private ownership. ^{Which} ~~a point that~~ some observers feel is going to produce - ^a ~~the final~~ struggle for power in Havana. ^a ~~The~~ showdown - between Castro and Cuba's Communist party.

^{today he said} ~~Declaring that~~ President Kennedy has adopted ^a ~~the~~ correct attitude - toward Russia, ^{an} ~~The~~ attitude of firmness - resolution, without belligerence. And he applauds the Kennedy determination - to save South Viet Nam.

But Mr. Eisenhower doesn't like a number of things - about this administration. For one thing - he thinks there's too much spending in Washington. Secondly - the handling of steel dispute. His opinion is that the White House went too far - in coercing industry. Also, our former Chief Executive would prefer to keep medical care - separate from social security.

^{When} ~~Inevitably, Mr. Eisenhower was~~ asked - whether he'd like to be President again. ^{he said no.} ~~His answer - negative.~~

VIET NAM

Some of America's top military brains - are assembled in Saigon tonight. Led by - Secretary of Defense McNamara. Representing the Army - General Lyman Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of staff. And General Paul Harkins - head of our assistance command in South Viet Nam. Representing the Navy - Admiral Harvey Felt, commander of ^{U.S.}~~our~~ forces in the Pacific.

The reason why the Americans are in Saigon at the same time - self-evident. The Administration is giving South Viet Nam - top priority. The president, vowing to save that nation of Southeast Asia - from being over-run by Red guerrillas. The mission of Secretary McNamara and his military subordinates - to find out what more we can do.

He found out one thing - in a hurry. McNamara, ~~astonished to~~ ^{was} discover that some villages cannot report an attack - in less than four hours. "Too long" - said the American Secretary of Defense. He huddled with Generals

Lemnitzer and Harkins - and decided to provide radios for all villages in the exposed area.

The American brass was on hand to hear about - the shooting down of an American helicopter. ~~The egg-~~ ~~beater,~~ landing in the jungle - after being hit by Red rifle fire. Pilot and crew, rescued - by a Viet Nameese patrol.

Two other helicopters ^{also} ~~were~~ hit - on missions over the battle area. Neither downed - but they returned to base, full of bullet holes. And carrying - a couple of wounded American officers.

DEFECTOR

If you're ever tempted to believe Red propaganda about the delights of the Soviet Union - ~~you'd better~~ ^{just} consult David Johnson of Philadelphia, Or - Mrs. Johnson, Or - the two Johnson boys.

The Johnsons are the family of Americans - who defected to Russia. Duration of their defection - one week. They had heard ^{such} glowing ~~in~~ descriptions - of the workers paradise behind the Iron Curtain ^{that} they decided ^{surely it} ~~this~~ was too good to miss. ^{Dave} Johnson quit his job - and sold the family possessions. They tossed a few things into their hand bags - and were off for Leningrad.

They had hardly reached that Soviet city - when they received their first shock. Several Russians, approaching the Americans - asking to buy their clothing. The Russians, admitting sadly that suits, dresses, shoes and coats - ~~are~~ ^{were} in short supply in Leningrad.

The Johnsons got their second shock - on the train to Moscow. Looking out the train window, they ~~say~~

KNIGHTS

A brief bulletin from Rome - reflects almost nine hundred years of history. It says that the Knights of Malta have elected Angelo de Colona - Grand Master of the Order.

The Knights of Malta go back to the first crusade in the Eleventh Century - when they were called the Knights of St. John. Forced out of the Holy Land with the crusaders

- they went ^{the island of} to Rhodes. Then the Turks took Rhodes in Fifteen Twenty Three - and the Knights retreated to Malta,

^W There they stayed until Seventeen Ninety-Eight, when Napoleon conquered the island. Once again they had to move - ~~in~~ this time to Rome, where the Pope took them under his protection.

And They've been in the Eternal City ever since.
