

Monday, October 6, 1975
Jerry Landay

KENNEDY

*In Los Angeles - a panel of forensic experts - has completed tests - under court order - of the gun Sirhan Sirhan used to kill Robert Kennedy more than seven years ago.
And the experts announce - there was NO second gun - meaning Sirhan had no accomplices. Thus - the experts hope they have laid to rest definitively and for all time - the theory there was more than one assassin lying in wait that night - in the kitchen of Los Angeles's Ambassador Hotel.*

HOSTAGE

In Greenwich Village - New York - one gunman is holding seven hostages inside a bank. The gunman - claiming to be affiliated with the so-called Symbionese Liberation Army - and is demanding the release of Patricia Hearst - and all other SLA members now in prison. He is also asking for an airplane he can fly to sanctuary - and ten million dollars. Hundreds of police are at the scene. They describe the gunman as "rambling." Police are not bargaining but are digging in for a long wait.

FORD

At the White House - a decision to be announced tonight by the President - on whether to ask Congress to extend those antirecessionary Nineteen-Seventy-Five tax cuts - for individuals and businesses - into Nineteen-Seventy-Six. That word - to come from the Oval office at Eight Tonight - Eastern time. It's believed that - for political as well as economic reasons - Mr. Ford will propose extending those cuts - provided Congress pledges to hold the line on spending

UPDATE- Tax

President Ford - proposes to extend - and broaden this year's anti-recessionary tax cuts - into Nineteen Seventy-Six - a Presidential year. Mr. Ford - recommending to Congress an estimated total of twenty-eight BILLION dollars in tax reductions - for both individuals and businesses. That's eleven BILLION more in tax relief than this year. The White House estimates the average family could save two hundred dollars more in Federal taxes next year than in Nineteen-Seventy-Five. There's one catch. Mr. Ford - demanding Congress slash Federal spending by a similar amount - that is, twenty-eight Billion dollars - to avoid inflation. Otherwise says Mr. Ford, he'll veto any and all efforts to reduce taxes.

ANTITRUST

The largest commercial bank in the U. S. and the largest insurance company - were both the targets of an anti-trust suit filed today in Washington. The Bank of America and the Prudential Insurance Company, along with two other banks and three other insurance companies - accused of having interlocking directorates; the first time that such a charge - has ever been filed against anyone.

SUPREME COURT

The Supreme Court formally opened its new full term today - with all of its nine members once again in place. Justice William Douglas, who suffered a stroke earlier ~~last~~ in the year was "brought to the bench in a wheel chair; but he seemed alert - and apparently will be able to take part in upcoming deliberations.

CAIRO

In Cairo - Egypt was marking today the second anniversary - of the start of its Yom Kippur war with Israel. The celebration including a military parade featuring for the first time - U.S., French and British, as well as Russian-made, arms and equipment. Egyptian War Minister General Gamassy said: "We have engaged in diversifying armament sources - so we can always have a position of strength."

ADD CAIRO

In a later TV interview, the General added

*Israel's new early warning system - in no way forecloses
the possibility of another surprise attack.*

DEBATE

At the U.N. - a long-simmering feud between the U.S. and developing African nations - finally flared into the open today. Dahomey's Ambassador to the U.N., one Tianious Adjibade - lashing out at U.S. Ambassador Daniel Moynihan; for a speech last week in San Francisco - in which Moynihan called President Amin of Uganda a "racist murderer." Amin had called for Israel's extinction.

Adjibade noted that Amin is currently President of the Organization of African Unity - and thus Moynihan's remark an unfriendly act, toward the entire OAU. The Dahomey Ambassador adding that the African bloc at the U.N. - "will not be intimidated."

DALLAS

The city of Dallas has become first in the nation to launch a full-scale paid advertising campaign - in an effort to combat rising crime. Dallas advertising man Burt Rominger said "There is no way a force of Two Thousand can police a city of one million -like it wants to; so we're turning to citizens - to do their part." And he adds: "If advertising sells soap and cars - why not crime prevention."

For Lowell Thomas - I'm Jerry Landay for CBS

News.

Mon. Oct. 6-75

Columbia, S.C.

FORD

At the White House - a decision ~~at last~~ on whether to extend the biggest income tax cut in history. The President to disclose his verdict - in a nationwide broadcast scheduled for eight tonight eastern time.

UNITED NATIONS

Emperor Hirohito of Japan ~~a visitor today to the United Nations~~ was at the U.N. today with his ~~where, with his wife, Empress Nagako, he was given a quick tour of the~~ Kia

~~premises~~ This including a spectacular view of New York - from the thirtieth floor office of ~~U.N.~~ Secretary General Kurt Waldheim. Said The Emperor's ~~reaction~~ we are told - a rousing "aw/ ah, so."

And now this M,

DEBATE FOLLOW UNITED NATIONS

The U. N. again - a long simmering feud between the U. S. and developing African nations - finally flared into the open today. Dahomey's ambassador to the U. N., Tiansious Adjibade - lashing out at U. S. Ambassador ~~Barrat~~ ^{for the} Moynihan; ^{Moynihan} his speech last week in San Francisco in which he allegedly called President Amin of Uganda a "racist murderer."

Adjibade noting that Amin is currently President of the Organization of African Unity - ^{He said what I had said was} ~~and that Moynihan's remark as unfriendly act, said he,~~ toward the entire OAU. The Dahomeyan Ambassador adding that the African black^s at the U. N. - "will not be intimidated."

CAIRO

In the Middle East - Cairo - Egypt was marking today the second anniversary - of the start of its Yom Kippur War with Israel. The celebration including a military parade featuring for the first time - U. S. , French and British, as well as Russian made, arms and equipment. Egyptian war minister General Gamassay saying: "We have engaged in diversifying armament sources - so we can always have a position of strength."

~~in a later TV interview,~~ ^{also said} The General ~~also saying~~ Israel's new early warning system - in no way forecloses the possibility of another surprise attack.

SUPREMEM COURT

The Supreme Court formally opened its new Fall term - with all of its nine members ^{on hand.} ~~once again in place.~~ Justice ~~William~~ Douglas, who ^{had} ~~suffered~~ a stroke earlier in the year ^{was} brought to the bench in a wheelchair; ^{We hear} ~~but~~ he seemed alert ~~we are told~~ and apparently ~~will be~~ able to take part in ~~opening~~ deliberations.

ANTITRUST

The largest commercial bank in the U. S. and the largest insurance company - were both the targets of an antitrust suit filed today in Washington. The Bank of America and the Prudential Insurance Company, along with two other banks and three other insurance companies are accused of having interlocking directorates; ^{This} the first time that such a charge _{f} has ever been filed - against anyone.

DALLAS

The city of Dallas - first in the nation to launch a full scale paid
NEW YORK
advertising campaign - in an effort to combat rising crime. Dallas adman Bart Rominger saying: "There is no way a force of two thousand can police a city of one million - ~~like it wants to~~; so we are turning to ^{our} citizens - to do their part." And he adds: "If advertising sells soap and cars - why not crime prevention."

NEW YORK

~~It's often been said that misfortune strikes in threes - and its~~
As you know few days ~~happened again;~~ in the past week, death claiming three of the brightest figures - in the world of baseball.

The first - Casey Stengall, the "old professor." [the incomparable] Second, Larry Macthail, who built penant winners and owned for the Cincinnati Reds, the Brooklyn Dodgers and the New York Yankees. And now the third - Mrs. Joan Payson, and owner founder of the New York Mets, who passed away over the weekend.
All were friends of mine - a remarkable trio,
~~We'll miss them all.~~

PASTORE

From Senator Pastore of Rhode Island, age sixty-eight - an says he'll ~~announcement today that he plans to~~ retire from politics at the end of his present term. Pastore telling family and friends and especially his grand children: "I'm coming home." Adding: "The time has come - when John Pastore is entitled to a little fun."

And before we have a little fun - at whatever - Now this M -

Tuesday, October 7, 1973
Chicago, Spelt-Corridor

CAPITOL HILL

On Capitol Hill - the House and Senate

HARVEY

This next - from a colleague, of mine, newscaster Paul Harvey - in a discussion of "the American experience." Paul Harvey saying: "Some day I hope to enjoy enough of what the world calls success - so that somebody will ask me, 'what's the secret of it?' I shall say" - he continued -

"Simply this: I get up - when I fall down."

3/4

And now here - I fall down - for CBS News this is