Retaliation in the Middle East. Reports ~~today~~ telling of an Israeli air raid on Jordan - one of the most intensive. ~~since the end of open hostilities.~~ With Israeli jets strafing and bombing Jordan Valley targets - for ⁵~~more than six~~ hours; ~~This~~ in the same area - where the ²~~the~~ American tourist was killed yesterday by enemy ^{fire}~~artillery~~ ~~fire~~

6/2
 Earlier, in Jerusalem - Israeli authorities expressed a growing concern - over possible effects on the country's booming tourist industry. Indeed, tourism minister Moshe Kote - urging travelers to stay away from cease fire areas. Adding there are many other places - well worth seeing. Insisting, nevertheless; "We do not intend to put these border areas - off limits to tourists."

CAPE KENNEDY

At Cape Kennedy - a dress rehearsal today for man's first walk on the moon. Astronaut Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin - simulating step by step their planned lunar landing next month. ^{This} Beginning with an inspection of their lunar lander - immediately after set-down. According to the space-men - this revealing "one cigarette butt; stuck to the craft's footpad.

Quick as a flash - ground control radioing back: "Does it have a Russian brand name on it?" To which Aldrin replied: ^{Yes -} "Would you believe ^{it -} Lower Slobbovia".! Later, the two men collecting simulated rock samples - when they were told to return to their ship. Their oxygen supply - supposedly running low. Armstrong telling Aldrin: "Quick! - the diamond! - pick up the diamond!" "No time" - said his partner. Adding: We'll have to "settle for the rubies." And so it goes - at Cape Kennedy; a lot of kidding and joshing as they get ready.

South of the border - Governor Rockefeller's mission to Latin America begins to bear fruit. This - according to a dispatch today from Rio de Janeiro; where the Governor is said to have won assurances - from Brazil's current military leaders; assurances that they will soon permit - as long promised - a speedy return to constitutional democracy. And after all Brazil, in size is larger than all the other So. Amer. countries put together. ~~meanwhile,~~ ^{if} The Governor interrupted his official schedule today - to confer with seven Brazilian students. Would-be demonstrators - whom he invited to talk instead. The seven urging "a new approach" - in dealing with the problems of Latin America. Rockefeller, to as he put it help in turn, pledging every effort - ~~to~~ "restore democracy" in that part of the world. The Governor later flying on to Sao Paulo - final stop on his three-day Brazilian tour.

In Red China - a public repentance - as reported today in the Peking People's Daily. With the self-confessed sinner - Western educated Hua Lo-Keng, one of China's top mathematicians and computer experts - also, a former instructor at the University of Illinois. At ~~the~~ age ~~of~~ fifty-nine - ^{calling} ~~admitting~~ that his life's work ~~was~~ a complete failure; ^{so far} ~~and this~~ ~~said he~~ - because it ^{had} failed to conform with the thoughts of Chairman Mao Tse-Tung.

His chief fault - Hua went on - in opposing the "socialization" of Chinese Universities. "I realize now" - said he - "that they should be run by the working class - in accordance with the thoughts of Mao; and not by intellectuals - who seek only personal aggrandizement." ^{All this -} ~~and that~~ ^{-- will be} if past history holds true ^{the last we'll ever} hear of Hua Lo-Keng.

LINDSAY

Bloodied but unbowed in his race for re-election

- Mayor Lindsay of New York ~~fight~~^{battles} back. In the wake of his defeat in yesterday's Republican Primary - ~~now~~^{now} announcing ~~plans today~~^{as plans} to form a new "Urban Party."

One that would thus give him a spot on the November ballot - along with his two original running mates; both of whom - incidentally - won yesterday.

This new Urban Party - to serve as a rallying point for forward thinking Republicans and Democrats alike[“] - said Lindsay. Adding: "The forces of reaction and fear - have captured both parties;" but "when the city comes to its senses - it will support decency."

Plans for a bold new traffic experience - announced today from Stockholm, ~~Sweden~~, where the city of the Swedish capital father^s have proclaimed this coming August 24 - an official "car free day." ~~with~~ All residents asked to leave their cars at home - from ten in the morning till six at night.

Compliance - strictly voluntary we are told.

~~However~~ ^{With} the city promising plenty of public transportation
- for all who wish to take part. Including a direct line to the heart of the city - for street dancing, open air concerts, games, rides and so on.

If it all works out - Stockholm ^{hopes} ~~plans~~ to make it a regular thing, On the theory that ^a "car free day" - can and ~~also~~ should be a carefree day.

SWEDENSBORO FOLLOW STOCKHOLM

From Stockholm, Sweden - ~~a quick trip to~~ ^{lets switch to} Swedensboro, New Jersey, ~~here on our own shores.~~ The U.S. Swedensboro - a ~~tiny~~ farming community; coming up with a new set of laws ^{to} ~~anything but carefree~~ - to cover future behavior ~~in~~ "all public parks, lakes and places" ~~here~~ in Swedensboro.

The new code providing specifically; no rolling boulders into streams, rivers or lakes # from the side of the road; no throwing of mud or stones - and no washing or polishing cars on public property; also,

~~no kissing - no hugging - no snuggling - in short, nothing~~

~~in the way of~~ ^{no} "public display of affection." ^{ardent} ~~making the~~ ^{That is,}
from now on no snuggling, no hugging, and ~~entire town of Swedensboro in effect - one complete "no~~
now kissing in public. ~~in~~ Swedensboro Not at all ~~no.~~ like Sweden

The question - one that has occupied scholars, philosophers and theologians for ages - to wit: "What exactly is heaven?" Now this - from Evangelist Billy Graham in New York - who says: "Heaven is a literal place - where there is no poverty - no racial discrimination - no war - and policemen don't have anything to do."

Next question "Where is it?" To which Billy Graham replies: "There are ^{at least} one hundred thousand light ^{of space} years in the universe - so God can find somewhere to put it," ^{So} says the eloquent and handsome evangelist, ^{- Warren} "I hope he's right and that all of you go to - Heaven, someday - that "when the roll is called up yonder" you'll all be there."
