In the Sea of Japan -- the tension mounts. With North

Korea warning today -- that U.S. reconnaissance activity could provoke

"another total war in Korea." The Soviet Union also expressing a growing concern -- over the U.S. naval build-up in that area.

Meanwhile, the pace quickens ashore, too. With North Korea charging that U.S. troops -- today fired "thousands of bullets and shells" across that Korean truce line. The Americans also are said to be moving up heavy guns and equipment -- in alleged violation of the existing Korean armistice agreement. Radio calling these clearly -- "war provocation moves."

From the White House though -- pot a word.

President Nixon standing by his earlier statement -- that U.S.

reconnaisance missions "will continue, -- they will be protected."

Apparently in keeping with his previous pledge -- that he will issue a warning once -- and one time only.

The U.S. State Department merely adding today -that Russia's complaint would be better addressed to North Korea; on the grounds it is that country -- not ours -- chiefly "responsible for tension."

demanding freedom of operation for anti-Israeli Arab Al Fatah commandos.

SUEZ FOLLOW BEIRUT

At the same time -- another tank and artillery duel today -the full length of the Suez Canal. Cairo further asserting it will never cease and desist -- as long as Israel continues to build up its fortifications.

Be that as it may -- Britain joining the U.S. and the U.N.

today appealing for restraint on both sides # while the search for peace goes on. Warning that unless the shooting stops -- all may be lost.

Turning to the domestic front -- the war against crime in the U.S. begins to pick up steam. President Nixon asking Congress today -- for an extra twenty-five million under the Safe Streets Act. This in addition to the three hundred million -- originally ray requested by then President Johnson. The new money -- to be used to double anti-Mafia operations.

In the same vein -- the President also announced plans to expand federal wire tapping activities -- to set up twenty regional anti-racketeering field offices -- to establish a unique federal state racket squad in New York City.

LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles -- the verdict is in -- as you doubtless know by now. The same jury that found Sirhan Sirhan guilty of first degree murder last week -- today setting his penalty at death in the gas chamber. Demanding the ultimate "an eye for an eye" -- in the slaying last June of the late Senator Robert Kennedy.

Formal sentencing a now set for May Fourteenth, At which time Judge Herbert Walker could -- if he so desires -- reduce the penalty to life imprisonment. However, he has done so only once before -- in fifteen years on the bench. Suggesting an appeal May be Sirhan's last hope; and that -- a long shot, at best.

on the French money markets in Paris, Marseilles, Bordeaux -a flood of French francs. today. Thousands upon thousands of Frenchmen -- converting their cash into U.S. dollars, West German marks, gold, anything but francs. With the Bank of France forced to dip deep into reserves -- to keep the bottom from falling out.

The reason -- as you know -- a growing fear that DeGaulle may be finished; that he will lose Sunday ** in the national referendum on which he has staked his political future. Indeed,

"in principle". According to the French -- DeGaulle's way of saying that come another Wednesday -- there may be no Cabinet.

At Bonn, West Germany -- a century of German legal precedent has Leeu finally reversed. The West German Cabinet -- voting to abolish a twenty year statute of limitations on murder. This -- in keeping with a U.N. resolution. Which means that Nazi mass murderers, can no longer a count on escaping punishment -- by simply hiding out and biding their time.

BELFAST

We have how threat of civil war in northern that Ireland perhaps narrowly averted today. With Premier Terrence O'Neill -- whipping into line his own Protestant-dominated Unionist party. Issuanding passage of a "one man, one vote" election reform -- aimed at giving Roman Catholics a bigger voice in government. The endy-question now will it be enough? Tension in the north of Dreland tomash.

balloons -- before they burst into firey eruptions.

This -- according to Richard Fiske of the U.S. Geological Survey; who says the top of Mount Kilauea in Hawaii swelled three feet

-- up and out -- during the two years immediately preceding the A recent spectacular eruption. Adding that it's time we started to monitor the Cascadeshere in our own country -- for similar signs of impending disaster,

Securitat Robert Fiske asserting: "No one knows when one of the Cascade peaks will blow its top -- but it could happen any time."

How is that far a chearful note on Which to end this broadcast Wavren?

OKLAHOMA CITY

From Oklahoma City comes news today that film star Joel

McCrea -- has just been named a member of the Hall of Fame of Great Western Actors. The man who made "Wichita Town" -- "Ride the High

Country" and so many other memorable movies -- only the second living person ever so honored.

Who was the first? John Wayne? Hop-Along-Cassidy?

Roy Rogers? Gene Autry? No, sirree, Bob! The first living Hall of Famer -- lovely Amanda Blake -- perhaps better known as "Miss Kitty" of T.V.'s "Gunsmoke." Like Johl McCrea -- a throwback to the days when men were men -- and women were glad of it.
