

MANRY

L.T. - Buick, Fisher. Mon. Aug. 16 - 25.

46 1/2
This latest on the epic trans-Atlantic voyage - of Robert Manry, The self-made sailor from Cleveland - and his thirteen foot sailboat - the Tinkerbelle - sighted today for the first time in a week. <sup>Now</sup> Less than a hundred miles from ~~their~~ <sup>its</sup> goal - of Falmouth, England.

A British trawler - first on the scene. Later
-- a British minesweeper - then a flotilla of welcoming boats from Falmouth. One of them - bearing Manry's wife Virginia - whom he had not seen since the start of his voyage, Two and a half months - and more than three thousand miles ago.

A tremendous ~~via~~ civic celebration <sup>S</sup> & awaiting ~~at~~ Manry at Falmouth, When he finally completes his test - of endurance and seamanship. If all goes well - maybe tomorrow.

RACE

Rioting and looting in Los Angeles <sup>was</sup> replaced today by a form of guerilla warfare. Hit and run snipers and fire-bombers - striking at suburban white neighborhoods, Previously untouched - in the city's six days of racial strife.

California Governor Brown summing up the situation -- in these words; - "The worst is over" said he -
"but we must and will continue to deal forcefully with the terrorists - until Los Angeles ~~is~~ is safe again."

UNITED NATIONS

A major concession today - at the United Nations.

The United States finally backing down - on its demand that Russia pay its U N dues - or lose its vote.

Arthur Goldberg declaring in his first U N speech - that the U S is now willing to bow - to the obvious will of the majority of U N members, Rather than risk wrecking - the whole world organization.

The U S statement - ending a year of crisis.

In which the United Nations was unable even to meet - let alone pay its bills, For fear of causing a major confrontation -- between East and West.

VIET NAM

On the other side of the globe - Communist terrorists today bombed South Viet Nam's national police headquarters in Saigon. ~~By~~ Killing four police men and injuring twenty-one other ~~persons~~<sup>S</sup> - six ~~as~~ of them Americans.

Two pretty Vietnamese women - serving to ~~distract~~ distract guards, so that two carloads of terrorists - could ~~dk~~ drive through an open gate into the ~~pus~~ police compound. The Communists leaping out and escaping on foot - as their cars exploded on impact with the main ~~pkxpk~~ police building.

The daring daylight raid described as the most brazen Communist attack - since the bombing of a floating restaurant last June, ~~When~~ forty-two were killed and eighty wounded <sup>right</sup> - in the ~~very next~~ heart of Saigon.

CAPE

The weather at Cape Kennedy and around the world -- was declared near-perfect today, for Thursday's scheduled launch -- of the Gemini-Five space probe.

There are two possible threats -- both being watched: One -- typhoon Mary -- meandering across the Pacific. The other -- an easterly wave in the Atlantic -- possibly the fore-runner of a hurricane. Space officials say -- however, that "at present" -- neither of these "is expected to affect the launch decision."

As for Astronauts Cooper and Conrad -- they are also fit and ready for their eight-day ordeal in space. Then, after that -- to the moon and beyond.

PHOTOS

In Moscow - the Soviet Union today published an unprecedented series of photographs - of the back side of the moon, covering an area of about five million square kilometers - never before seen by man - or camera.

The photos detailing in sharp contrast - what the Russians called a vast lunar "continent" - surrounded by waterless "seas". As seen last month by a Russian Zond-Three spacecraft - enroute to an orbit around the sun.

BOLSHOI

The British government today banned a performance of the Soviet Bolshoi ballet - scheduled for London next month. <sup>This</sup> Under terms of the British and Russian agreement - on the exchange of cultural relations.

50
The performance in question - scheduled as a benefit for Lord Bertrand Russell's peace foundation. Which has long been associated with left-wing causes - in Britain.

This entirely "inappropriate" - say the British, in as much as exchange ~~artists~~ artists - are forbidden from appearing in support of any movement of ~~an~~ a political character, ~~or~~ Or from involving themselves in the internal affairs - of the host ~~country~~ country.

CHILE

A Chilean Air Force helicopter - ~~today~~ picked up twenty-seven survivors of the Chilean Coast Guard Cutter Janequeo, ~~Battered~~ to bits yesterday in raging seas - about five hundred miles south of Santiago.

But fifty-two additional crewmen <sup>are</sup> ~~are~~ still missing, and <sup>are</sup> ~~are~~ presumed dead, ~~In~~ what now ranks as the worst peacetime disaster - in Chilean naval history.

Meanwhile, the rest of Chile <sup>is</sup> ~~is~~ in a virtual state of emergency, ~~As~~ the result of a week of violent storms ~~that~~ that have killed more than a hundred and thirty persons, ~~And~~ have left more than fifty thousand - homeless.

KASHMIR

At New Delhi - Indian troops <sup>were</sup> said today to have reoccupied two outposts - in the neutral zone of Kashmir - ~~that were given~~ <sup>giving</sup> up early this summer - at the request of the United Nations.

Reoccupation necessary - said India's Defense Minister - to prevent a take-over by Pakistani "infiltrators" intent on seizing control - of the disputed area.

The outposts ~~will~~ - he added - to protect the Indian supply line from Kashmir - to the neighboring state of Ladakh. Where Indian troops stand eye-ball to eye-ball with the Red Chinese.

PROTECTION

The Senate Judiciary today voted to extend for two more years - Secret Service protection for the widow and children of the late President Kennedy. Also to grant lifetime Secret Service protection - to former Presidents Truman and Eisenhower.

TELL

A young Pennsylvania man - was in critical condition today at Altoona. His companion - held on an open charge, <sup>all</sup> As the result of a foolish attempt to play William Tell - with twenty-two caliber rifles.

According to police - David Walter and Fred Reilly - drinking and shooting buddies, <sup>were</sup> but having a little target practice - when they decided to take turns shooting beer cans off ~~to~~ each other's ~~in~~ head.

First Walter fired - then Reilly. The sequence repeated once - twice - three times. Until Reilly's aim <sup>— Warren —</sup> finally faltered - and Walter fell to the ground - a bullet in his head.

A clear-cut ~~no~~ case - of one beer too many.

ASPEN

From Aspen, Colorado - the story today of a weekend mountain climb -- that turned suddenly into stark tragedy.

Four men - all government scientists from Los Alamos, New Mexico - roped together on the slopes of Maroon Bell Peak - when one of them slipped on a snow field. All four tumbling head over heels - a thousand feet down the steep mountain grade.

Two of them - killed instantly. A third - fatally injured. The lone survivor - the only man in the party wearing a herd hat. And thanks to that hat - he escaped virtually unscathed.
