

WALL STREET

Thurs, Feb, 13-75

For President Ford - a trip to Wall Street; no doubt a contributing factor in record sales today - on the New York Stock Exchange; also, an additional advance of nearly twelve points - in the Dow Jones Industrials. ~~But~~ The President's main topic - in a later address to a group of security ^{analysts} ~~analysts~~ was again energy. In meeting the energy challenge, said he - "I seek cooperation, not confrontation, with the Congress. But in order to work together" he continued "the Congress must do more than criticize;
and until it does it will be part of the energy ~~problem~~ problem - and not part of the solution."

PRICES

~~Prices follow Wall Street,~~ The President also sounded virtually the same theme - earlier in the day.

~~This is~~ Accepting what amounts ~~to~~ to a congressional veto - of his own plan to raise food stamp prices, he

~~The President~~ ^{ed} noting that Congress - has expressed its "clear will," but adding: "If Congress simply rejects proposals - " such as these, "without coming forward with good alternatives - an unthinkable deficit will result; and there will be no mistaking ~~—~~ ~~said he~~ where the responsibility lies."

DINNER FOLLOW PRICES

Tonight in New York - the President addressing a salute to ^{his} Vice President ~~Nelson Rockefeller~~^S; calling for "a coalition of confidence" with the Democratic congress - in the conduct of foreign affairs; adding it would be a national tragedy if political partisanship - were to nullify the ~~many~~ many gains in this area in the past few years.
