

JERUSALEM

The Greek Catholic archbishop of Jerusalem -

~~He~~ Hilarion Capucci, ~~by name~~ ^{today} was sentenced by an Israeli court to twelve years, ~~in jail. This~~ for smuggling ~~the~~ arms and explosives ~~later~~ ^{for} used ~~in terrorist attacks~~ by Arab guerrillas.

CAPITOL HILL

~~On Capitol Hill~~ The Senate today ~~begin~~ began its final debate on the nomination of Nelson Rockefeller, ~~as vice President. The Senate~~ ^{with the} vote set for ~~three~~ tomorrow afternoon, ~~but~~ Democratic whip Robert Byrd predicting ^S ~~at the outset~~ ^{he} will be confirmed, ^{"over-} ~~Adding~~ ~~that in the Senate, at least - he should "win over~~ whelmingly." This from the man who served as ~~Rockefeller's~~ chief interrogator - during ^{the} Senate hearings, ~~confirmation hearings.~~

WATERGATE

In the Watergate ~~coverup trial~~ John Ehrlichman

~~today became the latest of the defendants - to take the~~ today took the stand in his own behalf. The former White House aide

~~to him~~ telling how he called Ron Ziegler at Key Biscayne to break the news about the Watergate break-in. He said saying

Ehrlichman ~~blatantly saying~~ Ziegler then asked him,

~~apparently out of the blue - where was Howard Hunt~~

~~these days? And the answer as it later turned~~

~~out - up to his ears in the neck in the whole terrible~~

~~mess.~~

~~Ehrlichman also said that then President~~

Pres.

Nixon was thoroughly convinced - the C I A was ~~somehow~~ involved. But that Ehrlichman adding, however, Mr. Nixon felt he had "no alternative" - but to tell the F B I to go "full steam ahead."

CHICAGO

Mayor Daley of Chicago - age seventy-two and the victim of a recent stroke - ~~and some of his top~~ now announces that ~~aides apparently headed for jail. But he made official~~
~~today what most of us had expected anyway. Mayor~~ ~~Daley ~~announces~~ announcing~~ he will be a candidate - for an ~~unprecedented~~ unprecedented sixth term, ~~in the~~ ~~Chicago City Hall.~~

NADER FOLLOW WASHINGTON

In the same vein - a warning today from a Ralph Nader group about the potential health hazard from candles with lead wicks. The Nader raiders noting they first called attention to such candles - a ~~first~~ year ago, ^{and} ~~adding~~ that government failure to take any action ^{on this} ~~as yet~~ constitutes a "serious dereliction of responsibility."

RANGOON

The body of former U S ~~Secretary~~ Secretary

General U thant, - now in a make-shift ambulance on the campus of Rangoon University, ^{will be placed in a} ~~The~~ Mausoleum built by the same students/and monks - who made off with his coffin last ~~week~~ week, ^{They want him in} ~~rather than allow it~~

~~to be buried. A spokesman explaining that U Thant~~

~~was felt to be worthy of a~~ ^{a permanent} shrine ~~as is~~ befitting

~~a world statesman~~ a world statesman, there on the Irawaddy ~~near~~ near the golden Shwe Dagon.

STOCKHOLM

For one of this year's co-winners of the Nobel Prize for medicine a news conference today in

Stockholm. ^{Vale's} Dr. George Palade ~~of Yale University~~

^Spredicting ~~ing~~ the conquest of cancer in the not too distant future, ^{maybe in} ~~"my uneducated guess" he says that~~

~~it will take~~ ten years, ~~minimum with twenty years.~~

~~being a more realistic figure."~~

ATHENS

~~At Athens, the first session of the new Greek~~ ~~parliament. Its members swearing allegiance to the~~ ~~"constitution and the laws of the state," instead of~~ ~~the King. This is compliance with Sunday's referendum~~
Now that ^{have}
~~- in which~~ the Greeks ^{have} voted overwhelmingly in favor of a Republican form of Government, ^{exiled} ~~The Greek~~ ~~government also took note of a statement by exiled~~
King Constantine ^{says he's ready} ~~that he hopes~~ to return soon, either as King or private citizen. ^{However the} ~~A spokesman saying~~ ^{new} ~~the~~ government ^{wants him to hold off for some time,} ~~"does not know what the King is~~ ~~thinking - but thinks it won't be wise for Constantine~~
~~to return for some time."~~

TOKYO

American educated Takeo Miki, ^{after he} was sworn in today as the new Prime Minister of Japan, ~~He then~~ named his new cabinet, ^{with only one} - ~~the only~~ surprise - ~~we are~~ ~~told~~ - the appointment of Michio Nagai - a prominent journalist as education minister.

Have you read
~~When I heard~~ Cleveland Amory's new book ~~give a talk the~~

~~other day on his favorite subject "Let's end Man's eternal~~
~~war on wild life," I told him he was such an ardent~~ ~~evangelist he ought to team up with Billy Graham. In his~~

~~eloquent new book entitled MAN KIND?~~ In it he tells how he reminds us how a Canadian newspaper offered a reward to anyone ~~who~~ could prove that a wolf had, unprovoked, attacked ^{any one,} ~~him.~~

~~He says the~~ reward ~~has~~ never ~~been~~ collected. And, he

~~Of course he also tells the story of what is~~ ~~happening to that greatest of all animals, the whale. He~~ makes fun of hunters who blaze away with modern high-powered rifles at such helpless and attractive creatures as giraffs, ^{deer,} zebras, and scores of others. He tells how animals ^{when they fight seem to} ~~when they do their own fighting~~ "settle their contests ~~seemingly~~ on points according to an agreed upon ritual." ~~He tells how skunks, for example, squirt only at~~

~~other skunks.~~

GOLD

From the President's consumer affairs advisor
- a warning today to Americans who may be planning to buy some gold, as soon as it's legal. Virginia Knauer noting that sharpies the world over - will attempt to take advantage of the new U.S. gold rush. Adding - if you're not "familiar with the risks" - your "gold mine in the sky" could be more like a "mine field."

MOSCOW

Plans for a daring cross-country skiing adventure at the bottom of the world - reported today from Moscow.

A group of Russian women - planning to ski across ~~the~~

Antarctica next year; from the Soviet station V O S T O K

-- to the American South Pole ~~station~~ Amundsen-Scott^{Station.}

This^{is} ~~distance~~ ^{some} ~~of about~~ eight hundred miles ~~which~~ they hope to make in fifty days. What some want do to - well I wonder why they're going to do it.