Earlier in Teheran ^{there had been} a series of bomb
blasts; ^{apparently} set off - by Iranian anti-royalist terrorists. ~~But~~ The President, nevertheless, travelled ~~by~~ by car to ~~nearby Rey, there~~ laying a wreath at the tomb of Reza Shah Pahlevi -- the father of the present Shah. ~~of Iran~~ Aides explaining: "The President wanted to go - the Shah wanted him to go."

~~From Washington~~
~~And here at home,~~ an announcement today ~~that~~ the President will address the congress and the nation immediately ^{upon} ~~at~~ his return tomorrow night.

This - at the request of congressional leaders of both parties. The President ^{will} attempt to put his trip in "perspective" ^{and} we are told ~~and~~ ^{he} also ^{will indicate} ~~to show~~ the necessary steps "to carry out the course" which has now been set."

TEL AVIV

In the wake of that terrorist attack
at ~~the~~ Tel Aviv Lode airport -- a nationwide address today by Israeli ^{premier} ~~address today by~~ Golda Meir, who held the government of ~~the~~ Lebanon directly responsible.
Madame Meir saying: "It is no secret that Beirut openly harbors the headquarters of the terror organizations. It is there that the planning takes place - that instructions are dispatched - and broadcasts about successful operations ~~emanate~~ emanate."
And then ^{she gave} ~~she gave~~ a veiled warning: "We have already found a remedy to the things and actions of the guerrillas."
said Madame Meir. Adding that "this time as well, Israel will find a remedy to make sure that what has happened will never occur again." Madame Meir declaring in short - Lebanon, beware.

BONN

From a meeting of NATO Foreign Ministers in Bonn - an official call today for "multi-lateral conversations," between East and West; to be held at Helsinki -at a date mutually agreeable; to determine the feasibility of an all-European security conference; a conference - such as Russia has long sought.

But the NATO ministers also call for "multi-lateral explorations," on a mutual and balanced reduction of forces in Central Europe, as soon as possible, said the Nato ministers, "either before or in parallel" with the talks on a security conference. They insist it be double or nothing.

BENSON

After all those years of self-imposed exile - the Duke of Windsor finally returned home today. Queen Elizabeth sending her own plane to Paris to bring back the Duke to Benson Air Base - near Windsor Castle.

A light rain suddenly ending - the sun breaking through - as the Duke's coffin was formally accepted. The Royal delegation present - headed by the Duke's nephew, the Duke of Kent and then - the first six bars of "God Save the King" - whereupon the Duke's body was on its way to St George's Chapel.

The only flowers, a simple red and white cross atop the coffin. A last remembrance from his Duchess.

HOOVER

From J. Edgar Hoover - a last message written before his death. In the latest edition of the F B I law enforcement bulletin.

J. Edgar saying we are now entering "the most critical" crime period of the year; population on the move - cities bulging with tourists'; while all around us - said he - "the foreboding indications of summer crime and violence."

This also "a time of opportunity" said he - "when law enforcement can reinforce its image - as a competent - dedicated, dynamic and responsive profession."

A fitting epitaph from the late J. Edgar Hoover●

VATICAN

At the Vatican - a twenty year old Italian fireman awarded one of the highest honors. Marco Ottagio receiving knighthood - in the Order of St. Gregory-the-Great; also, the personal thanks - of Pope Paul for leaping to the defense of Michelangelo's La Pieta - when it was hammered by that crazed painter. Ottagio wrestling the man to the ground preventing irreparable damage. Now he's a Vatican Sir Marco.

SENATE

At a hearing of the Senate Consumer
Sub-Committee - a surprise witness today: Eleven year old Dawn Anne Kurth - of Melbourne, Florida, telling about a personal study - of some of the products peddled to children on TV; coming to the conclusion ^{that} it's mostly "worthless junk". Also, citing commercial after commercial - clearly misleading if not downright ~~dis~~ dishonest.

7/2
Dawn Anne going on to say: "I know the people who make these commercials are not bad - I know the commercials pay for TV - and I like to watch it." But "I just think" - said she - "it would be as ~~as~~ easy to produce a good commercial as a bad one." And she added: "If there is nothing good that can be said about a product that is the truth - perhaps the product should not be sold to kids in the first place."

That - from eleven year old Dawn Anne Kurth.

Warren, didn't someone say: "And, a child shall lead them?"

CODY

At Cody, Wyoming - a birthday party, marking the one hundredth anniversary - of the founding of Yellowstone National Park.

A little old lady stole the show. Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross aged ninety-four, there from Washington, D.C., first ever lady-governor - returning to her home state for the first time in thirty-five years. In reply to all the plaudits she said: "It's music in my ear." And so long until Monday.
