

L.T.-OLDS. THURSDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1960.
(KLAS, Las Vegas, Nevada)

GOOD EVENING EVERYBODY:

The Kennedy choice for Secretary of Labor - Arthur Goldberg - special counsel of the AFL-CIO; and long associated with - the United Steel workers.

Announcing the appointment, the President-elect said he wanted a man familiar with labor-Management relations.

The newly appointed Secretary says one of his first jobs will be - to do something about current unemployment.

EISENHOWER

President Eisenhower is in good physical shape - despite his chronic bronchitis. At Walter Reed Hospital, they've just given Mr. Eisenhower his annual checkup and the verdict on his health - "excellent." The bronchitis, just a cough he develops when the weather changes. Nothing serious.

Nixon - one-hundred-and-twelve-thousand-four-hundred-and-ninety-four. A razor thin margin - in a total vote of close to sixty-nine million.

ELECTION

Tonight we have what ought to be - the final story about the election. At long last the official figures are in - from all fifty states. They show two things. That senator Kennedy won beyond dispute. But - by the proverbial eyelash.

Kennedy's margin over Nixon - one-hundred-and-twelve thousand-four-hundred-and-ninety-four. A razor thin margin - in a total vote of close to sixty-nine million.

ETHIOPIA

Tonight Ethiopia is near civil war. Supporters of Emperor Haile Selassie - clashing with the rebels led by the Emperor's son, crown Prince Asfa Wossen. The Emperor himself is in Eritrea, on his way home to Addis Ababa from Brazil. Haile Salassie, ready for a showdown - with the crown prince.

ALGERIA

In Algeria, the Moslems are continuing their demonstrations, waving rebel flags, calling for complete independence. Again today, it took thousands of French paratroopers to disperse the mob in Algiers.

An ugly development - is the rise in terrorist assassinations. Both Moslems and Europeans - found murdered in back alleys. Victims of fanatical reprisal slayings.

CONGO

In Leopoldville, more denunciation of the U.N. forces assigned to the Congo. Colonel Mubuto charges that the Afro-Asians - are planning to attack his Congolese army. Lead a movement - to restore Lumumba to power. The U. N. command in Leopoldville simply repeats that it has no intention of interfering in the internal affairs of the Congo. puppet.

Meanwhile more terrorism is reported in Stanleyville, with more Europeans and Americans - King rounded up, and Lumumba's men threatening to execute them - unless Lumumba is released. made public in Katmandu. But Koirala is known to have been following - something fairly near the Peking line.

TIBET

From Peking the so-called Panchen Lama reports everything fine in Tibet. No torture, no mass murder, no genocide. The people of Tibet, says the Panchen Lama, are happy that their benevolent comrades from Red China brought them the boon of Communism.

Which doesn't mean a thing. Because he isn't the real Panchen Lama. He's Mao's puppet.

Meanwhile, south of Tibet, on the slopes of the Himalayas - the kingdom of Nepal is in a turmoil. King Mahendra Mahendra today arrested Premier Bisheshwar Prasad Koirala. The reason - not made public in Katmandu. But Koirala is known to have been following - something fairly near the Peking line.

NATO

America's partners in Nato - have agreed to pay a larger share of the common cost. That's the most important decision taken at this session in Paris. The largest increase by West Germany. Bonn, agreeing to step up it's Nato contribution - from thirteen percent to nineteen percent. Our allies, helping us - in our "save-the-dollar" campaign.

They say that Baudouin and Deane - reversed the traditional pattern of bride and groom. The groom was Deane. Baudouin whispering encouragement to her all during the ceremony. When Deane offered her right hand for the ring - Baudouin reached over and lifted her left hand.

They walked slowly out of the cathedral - to the glorious strains of Bach's "magnificat" and were greeted by thunderous cheers - from their subjects as they passed in the square.

WEDDING

Today's wedding in Brussels took place - amid the age old pageantry of European royalty. Setting - the historic cathedral of St. Michael. Presiding, a prince of the catholic church - Cardinal Van Roey. Watching from the pews - royalty, dukes and earls, Prime Ministers and commoners. All paying homage to the king of the Belgians, and his brand new queen.

They say that Baudouin and Donna - reversed the traditional pattern of bride and groom. The nervous one - Donna. Baudouin whispering encouragement to her all during the ceremony. When Donna offered her right hand for the ring - Baudouin reached over and lifted her left hand.

They walked slowly out of the cathedral - to the glorious strains of Bach's "magnificat;" and were greeted by thunderous cheers - from thier subjects massed in the square.

FRANK FOX

Did you happen to see the original - the first Cinerama - the one with the low level flight across America - and actually down in some of the canyons here in the West? You may recall how that spine-tingling flight was made by Paul Mantz, our number one expert at dare devil flying.

Today in a British plane, a Vickers "Viscount," a turbo-jet, I flew over much of that same area. At the controls were two American pilots - Frank Fox and Tom Marsh. They figured if Paul Mantz could do it - so could they. So after flying at a normal altitude across Colorado, over the lofty Sangre de Christo and then the San Juan Mountains, they dropped us fast as we approached the four corners, the only place where four states come together. By the time we reached Navajo Mountain and Monument Valley we were right down on the deck.

Then - a few minutes later, from just above the top of the pine forest of Arizona - swoosh and there we were in mid-air in the middle of the Grand Canyon. Where over the loud speaker came Captain Fox's quiet voice with just three words. He said: -

This is Cinerama!

We also made a detour in Arizona to see the spectacular new bridge across the Colorado River, where they are building the new Glen Canyon Dam. And, we looked down on a new city, Glen Canyon, that wasn't there the last time I passed that way.

Lake Meade, largest man made lake in the world is filling up fast. Silt is being dumped in by the Colorado River at the rate of 500,000 tons a day. So, they are building Glen Canyon Dam, and another even above that, to save Lake Meade and Hoover Dam.

From H-Dam let's switch to Dick Noel.

SCHEME

In Liverpool, England, Mrs. Irene Sinnor is in jail tonight, and happy to be there. Says she - "I couldn't stand the tension any longer."

Mrs. Sinnor's downfall began five years ago when she started to buy on the installment plan. She fell behind in her payments, went into debt, and became very worried; until one day - when she had a bright idea.

She began to order things in big quantities - all "on time." Then - she'd resell it all - and payoff some of her debt. Her project snowballing - until her home began to look like a department store.

Forty-eight washing machines, forty vacuum cleaners, twelve refrigerators, twelve T.V. sets, eleven radios, plus assorted odds and ends - like sewing machines, bicycles, phonographs, and so on.

Picture the happy Liverpool home. Big merchandise arriving every week. Mrs. Sinnor, quickly removing labels and price tags. Then advertising that she had real bargains for sale. Customers coming on the run.

For five years she stayed ahead of her creditors. But it got worse all the time, until the Liverpool housewife says she was relieved when a knock on the door today proved to be - not another customer, but the Bobbies.

Where was Mr. Sinnor all the time? Oh, he was right at home, surrounded by washing machines, vacuum cleaners, refrigerators, bicycles and so on, and says he had no idea what his wife was up to!
