POLITICS

In the wake of the Democratic primary in New York and Wisconsin - Fred Harris was ~~apparently~~ ^{ready} today to call it quits - George Wallace was cutting back to save money - and Morris Udall was more or less in a state of shock . So much for the losers .

For the winners, meanwhile, it was on to Pennsylvania where the next important primary will be held in Three weeks. Scoop Jackson saying; " I've won two big industrial states, New York and Massachusetts - I am now certainly on the road to the nomination." Jimmy Carter telling supporters; "I told you I'd never tell you a lie - I am number one."

On the ~~Democratic~~ ^{Republican} side, President Ford ~~is~~ calling his win in Wisconsin a vindication of his "full support for Secretary Kissinger." We are at peace - said he - "we are meeting every challenge = and the people in Wisconsin were supportive of our foreign policy."

VETO FOLLOW POLITICS

~~On another front~~ ^{is} The President threatened ^{ing} today to veto ~~if necessary~~ - any attempt to provide Israel with an extra five hundred million ⁱⁿ U.S.
military aid. The President saying: "This administration ^{is} firmly committed to the security of the State of Israel" - but must fulfill its obligation "on an austere ^{by} basis."

BEIRUT

~~From the Middle East comes word today~~ ^(Syrian) ~~that Syrian War ships~~ ^{today} ~~have quietly planned~~ ^{arranged to} blockade on the Lebanese coastline. This in an effort to ~~prevent~~ ^{prevent} delivery of new arms and supplies - to either side;
~~in the Lebanese fighting; by~~ ^{and by} so doing, ~~to~~ stem the tide of battle, - ~~and~~
It seems to be working. A Beirut source saying: "with both sides ^{are} short on supplies, ~~and the Leftists particularly finding it difficult to import~~ ~~weapons~~ ^{there seems to be reluctance to launch a new offensive."}

PEKING

Any question over ^{is} ~~who~~ running mainland China - was firmly answered today in Peking. Chairman Mao cracking the whip - ~~the~~ naming acting ^S ~~P~~remier Hua Kuo-~~F~~Feng - permanent successor to the late Premier Chou En-Lai. At the same time, purging from power - Chou's personal choice to succeed him. Vice Chairman Peng HSiao-Ping stripped of "all posts both inside and outside "The Chinese Communist party.

Mao's action following giant ^{test} ~~protesting~~ demonstrations earlier in the week, - ~~in the center of Peking~~. A government announcement saying the eighty-two year old chairman was forced to step in ~~in order~~ to ^{Mao calls} correct what ~~had become~~ an "antagonistic contradiction."

ARMAGH - DROMORE

An IRA terrorist attack and an IRA bombing - today claimed the lives of four Protestants in Northern Ireland. First victim - a woman member of the Ulster Defence Regiment ^{who was} on patrol with fellow-volunteers near Armagh - when they ^{were} ambushed by IRA gunmen. ^{also} ~~The remaining three~~ a merchant, his wife and ~~their~~ ^{was} daughter, victims of an incendiary bomb ^{also} planted in the merchant's shop at Dromore

WHITE HOUSE

~~The White House again~~ - President Ford today presented ~~the~~ This Year's

Boy

Pasadena

of the Year" award - to an eighteen-year old high school senior from ~~Pasadena~~

~~California~~ Robert Lee Fisher - ~~the~~ President of his class, - a varsity athlete in three sports - active in church and community groups - and planning to become a physical therapist after college.

WEST SHOKAN

One of the most famous voices in the history of broadcasting -

New York.

was stilled forever today at West Shokan, Mary Margaret McBride, a veteran of more than forty years in radio and TV, passing away at her farm after a lengthy illness - she was seventy-six. Mary Margaret who had a phenomenal career.

HOUSTON

As reclusive in death as he was in life - Howard Hughes was quietly

to his rest

laid today beside his parents in Houston. ~~The ceremony - lasting only~~

The ceremony was eight minutes attended by only sixteen persons, including a few relatives, -

one an
~~the closest of whom was an aged aunt. At the final words, perhaps quietly~~

~~sitting. The minister saying: "In my Father's house there are many~~

~~mansions; remember thy servant Howard, oh, Lord give him eternal rest~~

~~and peace in the Heavenly Kingdom.~~ Restless Man of mystery restless

Howard Hughes goes to his eternal rest,

PARIS

At the annual

~~At~~ winter fashion showing in London - the so-called "layered look"

vengeance, was back today, with a ~~percentage~~. The models wearing clothes ~~that were~~ piled on layer after layer - and then embellished with scarves , shawls even hip bands . An observer saying ~~to to~~ dress like that - you'll almost need a road map.

LONDON

~~In off every cloud, there is a silver lining - so the saying goes.~~ ^{and}

~~In Britain - it's tourism.~~ The fall of the ~~British~~ pound making dollars worth more ~~at least~~, ^{has resulted in an} in Britain; ~~and so~~ a dramatic increase in American ~~visitors~~ visitors, to the point where ~~British~~ tourist officials are - predicting a near-record year, spokesman noting; "we can honestly say - it is cheap to come to ^{visit the British Isles,} ~~Britain~~ ~~Britain~~."
