ELECTIONS american M. M. aug, 28 - 67. President Johnson's team of election observers Fare on their way to terres for south viet Nam tonight -- joined by former Saigon Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge whom the President has chosen to head the mission. The President also added two more members to the team - bringing the total to twenty= three including Lodge. In addition, the group includes Gembas, three "election specialists." Lodge says the principal purpose of the mission will be to "lend the American presence"- during the South Vietnamese national elections on September Third. R President L B J decided to name the panel of observers in view of some congressional doubts about the fairness of the Vietnamese kox election campaign.

UN VIETNAM

In the Senate, a fresh call for United Nations intervention in the Vielnamese war. Senate Foreign policy experts have urged the President to carry the Vielnam issue to the UN Security Council. But there are no signs that UN Ambassador Arthur Goldberg will ask the the Security Council to intervene.

VIETNAM

Heavy new fighting was reported in South Viet Nam loday - along with a brutal campaign of Communist terrorism against the civilian population in an effort to sabotage the upcoming elections. More than fixes five hundred persons - most of them Vietnamese civilians killed or wounded in a weekend of attacks. Eleven American servicemen - killed in heavy artillery and rocket fire directly against American bases and one US destroyer / patrolling off the Vietnamese coast The naval vessel first; suffered only minor damage.

CHINA

The Shanghai Radio says two leading opponents of Chinese Communist party chief Mao Tse Tung were sentenced to death today at a mass public trial. The broadcast says the trial in Shanghai was attended by more than km ten thousand persons and was televised. The two leaders - identified as Cheng Chung-Ming and Li Yung-Chin - was executed immediately after the trial, so said the broadcast. Six other persons are also on trial for leading violent opposition to Mao.

BOMB

A Communist booby trap exploded today in the Crown Colony of Hong Kong -- knocking a British Army bomb expert over a cliff to his death some two hundred feet below. The booby trap was concealed in a Communist propaganda sign which the British soldier tried to remove from a rock high in the Colony's Kowloon section.

KOREA

A new outbreak of shooting along the demilitarized zone in Korea. Five South Korean soldiers killed - eleven wounded - in a Communist North Korean mortar attack on an army post. There were no known Communist casualties in the ten-minute gun battle that followed.

CLASH

About two hundred U S Marines and some three hundred Puerto Rican civilians clashed in a street brawl early tolay in the Puerto Rican town of Vieques. Both sides used bottles and fists during the disturbance, cause of which was not immediately determined. Only minor injuries reported.

GUARD

It was disclosed in Washington today that the Air National Guard has ordered forty of its big transport planes to remain on a standby alert for anti-riot duty should the occasion arise. The guard has ordered restricted duty for the planes - capable of carryingone hundred men each - to assure quick movement from summer training camps in the event of civil disorders.

MIDEAST

Algeria's President Boumedienne says he will not attend the Arab summit conference that opens tomorrow in Khartoum. And this underlines still more the sharp divisions in the Arab world over strategy against Israel. Syrian President Noureddin Al Atassi also expected to boycott the summit meeting. Both leaders said to be disappointed over the failure of Arab Foreign Ministers to agree on drastic measures against Israel.

CANAL

It now seems likely that the Suez Canal will remain closed indefinitely. The waterway was closed last June during the Arab-Israeli war, and even if Egypt decided to reopen it tomorrow, it would take we several months to make it navigable. Sunken wass vessels would have to be removed and the ship canal dredged. Russia is reported to be suffering heavy financial losses - spending much more money in routing its ships around South Africa's Cape of Good Hope. And many of these ships are laden with a rms for North Vietnam.

AUTO

With only nine days remaining before a September sixth strike deadline; the United Auto Workers claim the auto industry is lagging far behind inits bargaining schedules. Union officials say the outlook is "ominous" for a major strike against General Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

INTERSTATE

Congress has been told that it's now unlikely bitst the nationwide Interstate Highway system will be completed by the present target date of Nineteen-Seventy-Two. The reason - the abix sa inability of federal, state and local officials to agree on some highway routes in metropolitan areas. Even so, all but about a thousand miles of the forty-one-thousand mile interstate system has been completed, or is near comfletion.

NAZIS

A courtroom in Arlington, Virginia, thrown into an uproar today when a member of the American Nazi Party tried to attack the accused killer of Nazi commander George Lincoln Rockwell. Women in the courtroom screamed as twenty one year old Eric Wenberg lunged toward John Patler, who's are charged with shooting Rockwell to death last Friday. As he shouted - "Patler, you filthy swine" Wenberg was carried feet first from the courtroom by six officers who finally restored order. The Judge sentenced Wenberg to ten days in jail and a fifty dollar fine for contempt of court - then recessed the hearing until Thursday or until Patler call be given a psychiatric examination. Meanwhile, veterans groups and some Congressmen are protesting plans to bury Rockwell - a former Naval military aviator - in a national cemetery at Culpeper, Virginia. They say it would be an insult to American servicemen who fought the Nazis in World War Two.

BRITAIN

British Prime Minister Harold Wilson has drastically reshuffled his government in an or effort to fight his nation's prising unemployment. To make room for younger blood, Wilson dropped a number of eld-timero cabinet -from the three-good and British Cabiner - including Commonwealth Secretary Herbert Bowden and Douglas Jay, President of the Board of Trade. At the same time, Wilson named himself Britain's economic boss in the battle against unemployment and other economic troubles besetting the nation.

TREATY

From Geneva comes word that the Soviet Union is demanding that absolute secrecy surround any further negotiations of a teacatest to treaty to ban the spread of nuclear weapons. Informed sources say that Soviet negotiator Alexei Roshchin doesn't even want his meetings with American negotiator William C. Foster to be announced to the public. Some officials say that Moscow apparently wants to keep close, but an very secret contact with the United States in matters concerning the treaty. Possibly because the Chinese communists charge that the Kremlin is cooperating with Washington too much these days.

FIRES

Firefighters are reported gaining ground tonight against forest fires in the Pacific northwest - although one hundred forty thousand access acres of lush forest land are a mass of charred ruins. Idaho was hardest hit with more than forty-eight kkock thousand acres going up in flames and several fires still burning. Some for more than two weeks now. Scores of fires remain unchecked across the border in British Columbia = and a large blaze in Washington state is giving firefighters a "bad time."

COINS

Mrs. Joyce Ingram could have gone on a Roman holiday today - if those coins she found were just a little more up to date. Mrs. Ingram went on a weckend outing in the ruins of an old Roman villa near Rochbourne, Where England, and she found apathemy jug, brimming full of seven thousand old Roman coins. Experts say it's a most unusual "find". Some of the coins date as far back as 250 A.D.

TURKEY

What can you still buy for a dime these days? Why you can pay for a trip - all the way from Europe to Asia. Turkish ferries - complete trips across the Bosporus every few minutes. Service for commuters at Istanbul only city in the world that straddles two continents. The National Geographic reminds us that Turkey, now as ever - the land of a thousand delights, Warren.

carried away an atratehore.

were three policemen is a hrast passagerapher -- and three Chinese Applemate who still claiched copies of the took -- "the thoughts of Chairman Sha" -- at they were

Colory as Kong Kong, Folice what and killed a was daring

a pil and pattle will communicationspired realers.

(the more violance today to the motors Brown

aight sticks - wainy the lide of paybage cars to ward off hatter and other styling mineries. The mounded cannaities