

WHITE HOUSE

Mon. June 12-72,

The White House - President Nixon

presided today at the swearing in - of three new cabinet level officials; Treasury Secretary George Shultz; - Director Casper Weinberger of the office of Management and Budget; - and Attorney General Richard Kleindienst, for whom the President saved his kindest words. His new Attorney General said the President "one of my very close friends over many many years;" and the "long ordeal" of Kleindienst's confirmation - he went on - only serving to increase his confidence in Kleindienst's ability. "A great ship is not tested by smooth sailing - but by rough seas" said the President; Adding: "There is no question - this is a man at his best when the going gets rough."

RAPID CITY

In the flood toll at Rapid City, South Dakota a slight reduction today; from an estimated two hundred dead - down to a hundred and seventy-five; at last report. Officials blaming the mis-count -- on a ~~duplex~~ duplication of body checks. Still it remains - one of the worst ~~dis~~ disasters in South Dakota history; with the search for ~~admit~~ additional bodies now spreading some sixty miles into the surrounding ~~to~~ Black Hills.

White House Aide Robert Finch - arriving today as a personal emissary from the President. After touring the area by airplane - saying the damage ~~to~~ ~~how~~ he saw boggles the mind." Adding that relief and rescue efforts must concentrate right now - on "short term house keeping and shelter needs."

NEW YORK FOLLOW RAPID CITY

South Dakotan George McGovern who flew to Rapid City yesterday, <sup>was</sup> <sub>λ</sub> back on the campaign trail today. In New York - touring a Harlem narcotics addition center; later charging that President's Nixon's policies - especially on the war - "are robbing us of funds we need to fight drug addiction." McGovern also saying he does not believe Senator Kennedy will become a candidate - "under any circumstances."

HANOI FOLLOW NEW YORK

Incidentally, McGovern receiving today -
an endorsement he probably could have done without.
It comes from ~~the~~ Nhan Dan - the official Communist party newspaper of North Vietnam; which calls the ~~Democratic~~ Democratic front runner - a man ~~with~~ with lots of ~~ability~~ ability." Adding that McGovern's campaign is "exposing the nature and the dangerous effects" of U S involvement in ~~North~~ Vietnam.

VIETNAM

On the war front - a South Vietnamese armored column managed to break through today to An Loc; thereby ending an enemy siege on that provincial capital - just ~~but~~ sixty miles north of Saigon. An Loc becoming the fourth city so liberated - as North Vietnam's ~~country~~ vaunted "Blitzkrieg" continues to come apart at the seams.

Indeed, officials report that most of the ~~the~~ attackers at An Loc - have now withdrawn into neighboring Cambodia; but not ~~as~~ near so many as there were before. These said to include - North Vietnam's Seventh and Ninth Divisions; either "decimated" or so badly cut up - we are told <sup>that</sup> - they have now lost their combat effectiveness.

PEKING

*From Peking - an official protest today against the U S air and naval blockade of North Vietnam.
Peking calling this - a "grave provocation;" adding that U S "acts of aggression" - are now ~~threatening~~ "threatening the security" of the Chinese people. But what, if anything they intend to do about it - that they didn't say.*

PARIS

Meanwhile, Chief U S Peace negotiator, William Porter <sup>has</sup> returned <sup>ed today</sup> to Paris, After an absence of four weeks. <sup>There</sup> announcing plans to resume his quest for a negotiated end to the war. Porter saying: "We are going to keep trying. Adding: "That is the essential message, I bring back."

Here at home - General John Lavelle

*was testifying today - before a House armed services sub-committee. The former commander of the Seventh U S Air Force ~~is~~ admitting that last ~~six~~ winter he ordered the bombing of ~~various~~ military targets in North Vietnam; further admitting his actions - probably went beyond the rules laid down by the Pentagon. The General ~~is~~ adding: "I can sit here now" -- and see it; "but that at ~~the~~ same time, as the commander on the spot
concerned with the safety of his crews and trying to stop the build-up that was going on - I felt that ~~always~~ these were justifiable actions."*

SUPREME COURT

Elsewhere in Washington - a flurry of decision<sup>S</sup> from the U S Supreme Court - which ruled:

~~One~~ -- that private clubs may refuse to serve negro guests - even if they hold a state liquor license; ~~Two~~, that an indigent is ~~entitled~~ entitled to a free trial lawyer - wherever the possibility of a jail sentence is involved; three - that a policeman may "stop and frisk" a suspect -- on the basis of personal observation or a ~~tip~~ tip; <sup>four</sup> and, ^ that a major street on a military base open to public use - is also open to distribution of leaflets.

WORCESTER

Worcester, Mass. Police today recovered those four paintings stolen last month from the Worcester Museum. How they did it - not immediately disclosed. But all the paintings <sup>are</sup> ~~is~~ said to be ~~is~~ in reasonably good shape. Total ~~value~~ value still about two million. And so a happy ending - to one of the world's biggest art ~~thefts~~ thefts. Happy that is, for all but three men and a woman - ~~now~~ now facing charges.

HEART

New York again - a heart rending decision

The American heart association announcing plans to move its national headquarters to Dallas, come September.

A spokesmen explaining that this is expected to yield - substantial financial savings, about a hundred thousand a year. Also noting that Dallas - is "highly accessible" from any point in the nation. And thus the "big D " ~~becoming~~ becoming the new heart-land of America.

This next - from Washington by way of Oklahoma. Pretty seventeen year old Julie Price of Oklahoma City, the first girl Senate Page; also becoming this weekend - the youngest member of Oklahoma's delegation to the Democratic national convention; and now - the first girl ever to graduate from Capitol
Page High School.

6
Jubilant Julie from the Sooner State -
- Warren - Don - proving again - the sooner the better would you say?

ATLANTA

At Georgia's Fulton County jail, Atlanta - a rumor that one of the inmates had somehow gotten a gun. As a result - Sheriff's deputies undertaking an intensive cell check. For all their efforts finding no gun but the contraband they did turn up - including knives, razor blades, clubs, also, two thousand ~~pins~~ pin-ups from Playboy magazine. And each - we are told - a real peach.
