

L.T. - DELCO. THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1956

MIDDLE EAST

GOOD EVENING EVERYBODY:

Good news! Egypt and Israel have agreed to a complete cease-fire along their borders. So announced by the United Nations office in Jerusalem. This, the climax of eleven days of urgent talks - between U.N. Secretary General, Dag Hammarskjolk, and Egyptian and Israeli leaders.

In fact we are told that the cease-fire went into effect at six P.M. on Wednesday - yesterday. Both nations promising not to let military forces cross the border. Also promising not to do any shooting across it either.

The new agreement apparently covers civilian infiltrators - like the Egyptian-trained Fedayeen commandos. The Fedayeen, now to be called back from Israel. Also the Israelis agreeing to stop retaliatory

RUSSIANS

What they are calling
In London, there was a "little summit conference"

today. The Prime Minister, conferring with his two Russian visitors. Eden, Khrushchev and Bulganin - ranging over the field of Anglo-Soviet relations. No communique was issued - the talks, secret. But inside sources give us a few hints about what happened at Number Ten Downing Street.

For one thing, Bulganin did most of the talking - Khrushchev sitting back and listening. The new ~~That's been the~~ pattern, The way they are doing it ~~ever since they arrived~~ in Britain - unlike their other excursions outside the Soviet Union - when Khrushchev <sup>held</sup> ~~tried~~ ~~to monopolize everything~~ the spotlight.

Bulganin told Eden that the Russians want to relax world tensions. And ~~the~~ Soviet Premier hinted that Russia and Britain should work together for a European settlement - since they are the two major European powers. <sup>H</sup> However, we hear that Bulganin did not try to split Britain and America. - ~~of course~~ ~~he knew in advance that Sir Anthony was prepared to reject any~~ ~~such move.~~

The Prime Minister agreed that relations between Russia and Britain should be improved. But he told Bulganin plainly - that London will wait for deeds, instead of accepting promises.

The ~~whole~~ meeting ~~is~~ termed "friendly" - with both sides exploring the main lines of Anglo-Soviet relations.

Earlier in the day, Bulganin and Khrushchev left the swank Claridge Hotel and drove to the Cenotaph <sup>— monument</sup> to the British war dead <sup>in Whitehall.</sup> Outside the <sup>in</sup> hotel, a woman shouted at them, and shook her fist.

At Buckingham Palace, they saw the colorful Changing of the Guard. But they did not meet the Queen - who was away. Her Majesty will receive the two leaders of world Communism at Windsor Castle on Sunday.

Only once today did Bulganin and Khrushchev receive an enthusiastic reception. That was when they visited the Soviet Embassy. The Russians ~~who serve them~~ there, applauded <sup>them</sup> vigorously.

Tonight there was

~~This evening~~, a formal dinner at Number Ten Downing Street - ~~Sir Anthony~~ Eden, ~~playing~~ host at a gathering attended by two former Prime Ministers, Sir Winston Churchill and Clement Attlee.

ALGERIA

From Algiers, a report of a battle that raged for two days - between French troops and the rebel "Army of Allah". The place, about eighty miles from Oran, in western Algeria. A detachment of French soldiers were scouting the area- when suddenly they were ambushed by a hundred and fifty terrorists. The French managed to group themselves for a defense - and the shooting went on during the night and part of today. The result, eleven <sup>of the</sup> French ~~soldiers~~ killed - before the rebels retreated, carrying their dead and wounded with them.

Also, In the city of Constantine, ~~there was~~ a gun battle between terrorists and police today. Two pedestrians killed, and four wounded - when the rebels fired into a crowd as they fled.

The total for the two day period - forty-eight dead, many injured.

SOIL BANK

The House Appropriations Committee votes to give President Eisenhower more than a billion dollars to start his soil bank plan. This being ~~But it's only~~ a partial victory for the Administration. - since ~~because~~ the Committee states that no payments should be made to farmers - until they actually have taken part in the soil bank program. On Monday, President ~~Mr.~~ Eisenhower asked for authority to make ~~an~~ advance payments - this year.

~~The farmers merely asked to join the program next year.~~

The Democrats attacked that ~~point~~ as election year politics. Saying the President ~~They claimed that Mr. Eisenhower~~ is attempting to win votes in the farm belt - by making money available to the farmers now.

The Committee also rejected an appeal from Agriculture

Secretary Benson - for special legislation to get the soil bank plan moving. The Committee replies that there's enough legislation on the books now - and that ~~says~~ all the Secretary actually that needs is the money ~~which~~ was voted today.

~~It adds up to a desire to help the farmers? - ~~unnecessarily~~~~

Since ~~But it's~~ complicated by ~~some~~ election year politics. The President, getting part of what he wants - but not all.

SURPLUS

Senator Richard Simpson, of Pennsylvania, ~~is~~ asking<sup>S</sup> for an income tax cut this year. The Pennsylvania Republican predicting that there will be a bigger surplus than the two billion forecast <sup>this week</sup> by Congressional experts. The ~~Congressman~~ <sup>Senator</sup> thinks that it will run closer to four billion <sup>— plenty to</sup> ~~and he thinks~~ <sup>warrant</sup> ~~that would allow~~ a lowering of the income tax.

But other Republicans disagree, ~~with him~~. Congressman Kean of New Jersey, speaking for his colleagues - ~~and pointing~~ <sup>S</sup> out that to cut taxes would bring <sup>a real</sup> a danger of inflation. Besides, he wants to wait and see just how much of a surplus there is - before deciding what to do with it.

KEFAUVER

Senator Kefauver spent the day drumming up votes in California. At San Diego, he went through his familiar routine - quick stops, and lots of handshaking.

The Tennessee Democrat held a press conference - in which he said he expected to go into the convention stronger than he was in Nineteen Fifty two - when he polled two hundred and sixty two votes on the first ballot. Asked about his set back in New Jersey, he replied that he isn't at all pessimistic. And he added that ~~his~~ his California campaign is getting stronger all the time.

The dispute at Princeton took a new turn today.

The reference being to the <sup>Whig-Clio Club</sup> Debating ~~Society's~~ invitation to Alger Hiss. Many New Jersey leaders have demanded that the invitation be recalled. But today the <sup>Whig-Clio undergrads</sup> ~~society~~ announced only one change - they're still asking Hiss to speak, but his address will not be open to the public. The meeting, to be restricted to persons who hold membership cards. ~~But that~~

~~could mean a big audience anyway because the Society lists its membership at~~ <sup>meaning an of some</sup> five hundred <sup>Princetonians,</sup>

Apparently, Alger Hiss <sup>to</sup> will speak <sup>per</sup> as scheduled - with ~~no greater opposition than whatever disturbances the student body may cause~~ <sup>no one to him - unless</sup> disturbances that take the form of eggs <sup>or</sup> and tomatoes are thrown by some who don't like the idea of Alger Hiss within the sacred halls of those austere Greek temples - Whig and Clio.

ICARDI

A mystery of World War Two ~~is put on the shelf,~~ <sup>remains unsolved;</sup>

following the decree of a federal judge. <sup>It's that</sup> ~~The~~ case concerns

<sup>of</sup> Major William Hollohan - who was murdered in Nineteen Forty-Four,

while leading a cloak and dagger mission behind the enemy

<sup>in Italy.</sup> lines. The Major disappeared; and in Nineteen Fifty his body was found at the bottom of a lake.

The Lieutenant <sup>had</sup> with him, <sup>one</sup> Aldo Icardi, <sup>who later</sup> was accused of the crime - along with a former Sergeant. An Italian court found both men guilty - but our courts refused to extradite them.

An American trial of Icardi began three days ago.

The charge - perjury - Icardi accused of lying before a House

Armed Services Sub-Committee.

But his counsel charged that Icardi was questioned - only to trap him into a perjury case. Today, Judge Richmond

Keach agreed ~~with Icardi~~ that Icardi was improperly questioned -

<sup>hence</sup> ~~and so~~ the perjury charge is removed.

<sup>this is the end</sup> So, it looks like ~~the last~~ of the mysterious case of

→ the Major and his Lieutenant - who parachuted behind German lines in Nineteen Forty-Four - and only the Lieutenant came back alive.

MARRIAGE

All is quiet in Graustark tonight. The big marriage - the Church ceremony over, and the Prince and Princess of Monaco are on their honeymoon. Today's ritual was presided over by the Bishop of Monaco - amid all the pomp and pageantry of the Catholic rites. The bride and bridegroom still nervous - so much so that when it came to the ring, Prince Rainier was unable to slip it on the bride's finger, and she had to help him. Finally in place, the couple received the Papal benediction.

As they emerged from the Cathedral they were greeted by a fanfare of trumpets and drums. Cannons booming. Jets overhead, dipping their wings. The Riviera sun doing its's best - and the sky blue.

At the palace - the newlyweds received their guests, and soon after the Prince and Princess shipped down to the harbor and boarded the royal yacht. Tonight, on their honeymoon, headed for the Isles of Greece where Sappho loved and sung.

TITLES FOLLOW MARRIAGE

Along with a husband, Princess Grace, now has one hundred and forty titles, two yachts, ten automobiles, an apartment in Paris, a chateau in the south of France, and - the royal box at the Monte Carlo Opera.

One part of Monaco out of bonds henceforth. Her Highness, not allowed to gamble at Monte Carlo.

MONACO - ROBBERY

That series of robberies in Monaco reached its peak today - when burglars got away with paintings worth a hundred thousand, or so. This time the victim, the physician to Prince Rainier's father. Two paintings by Rubens - and three other masterpiece. The doctor was attending the Monaco garden party. His house, unguarded. Tonight, the international police are on the alert.

GOOSE BAY

A plane-load of fashion experts left Montreal today -
~~and the story is, they're~~ bound for Goose Bay, ~~in~~ Labrador -
way, way up
~~eight hundred miles to the~~ north in the bleak wilderness of the Canadian Arctic - deep in the Labrador.

The leader of the party is Doreen Day, who will deliver talks on the latest fashions when she gets to Goose Bay.
With her on the plane - an assistant, a cosmetics expert,
and two models. Tabby
~~They'll bring~~ the latest Montreal fashions to three hundred women at Goose Bay - ~~the~~ wives of members of the Royal Canadian Air Force.

The idea for the mission was thought up by the wives at Goose Bay. They say they ~~are afraid of getting out of touch~~ want to keep in the ~~swim - with the latest~~
~~with the newest things,~~ in dresses, hats and swim suits. ~~So~~
~~they asked for fashion experts to be flown in - and that's why~~

So Doreen Day is on her ~~and her party are on the way,~~ ~~A fashion show at~~
to Goose Bay - hip hip hooray.
~~in the far Canadian north~~

LANGUAGE

On the news wire, today came a surprising story about the English language, and the way it has been changing.

The American Peoples Encyclopedia, publishing its Year Book for Nineteen Fifty-Six, lists many new words - that have come into our American speech, recently. The learned lexicographers making a study of changes in language.

One group of new words - the "ramas". Following the success of that revolutionary new motion picture medium, Cinerama, which now features - the Seven Wonders of the World, the Encyclopedia gives a long list of new words inspired by Cinerama, Here are a few:

Launderama --- a wet wash emporium.

Furnitureama - chairs, beds, and so on.

Leisurama - a place for lounging and loafing.

Hooperama - a basketball tournament.

Figurama - a girdle shop.

Glamorama - the most melodious of all, a style show

Gasorama - a filling Station.

Henry, let's go to the Gasorama, then to the Figurama - then on to the Leisurama.

NEW JERSEY

The Governor of New Jersey ~~says he is~~ pleased with the outcome of <sup>the</sup> Tuesday primary. Governor Meyner, referring to the victory of his slate of delegates - uncommitted to either candidate. Governor Meyner says that, <sup>although</sup> Senator Kefauver suffered a set-back - <sup>it was</sup> ~~but~~ not necessarily a permanent one. The Governor quickly added that the vote was not a mandate for Adlai Stevenson <sup>even if he did get</sup> ~~the~~ a lot of write-ins. The Governor points out that the delegates are still uncommitted - in the full meaning of the <sup>at</sup> word. They'll have freedom of action when they go to the Convention.

What about Governor Meyner himself? He <sup>says</sup> ~~reports~~ that he is not a candidate - ~~but he'll lead the New Jersey~~ <sup>and will merely head the</sup> delegation, <sup>which is</sup> ~~and is happy~~ to have a free hand. - ~~he's glad that~~ ~~his slate will be uncommitted.~~