CAPITOL HILL

From Egypt's Anwar Sadat - in a speech to a joint session of Congress - a warning today that any new flood of American weapons into the middle East - "would almost certainly lead" to another war. "We are not asking your Country - to abandon anyone or turn friends into enemies" - said Sadat; but "we do expect the U.S. - to refrain from spurring the arms race in the area."

The Egyptian President also again urging the inclusion of Palestinians in attempts at achieving a true peace in the Middle East. "The Palestinian question is the heart and core of the entire dispute" - said he. Adding: "Once it is solved, all other outstanding issues can be solved - thus realizing the hopes of many of us who are striving to make peace a living reality."

And the latest: The U.S. agreeing to sell to Egypt,

CAPITOL HILL - 2

if Congress approves - two nuclear power reactors.

Secretary of State, Kissinger, citing this as proof of what he called - "the spirit of the new relationship between our two nations."

And now...

WHITE HOUSE

The White House - an expression of joy today - over the outcome of the nationwide elections. President Ford saying most of the contests "primarily involved local issues - and the results of Republican verses Democratic contests were mixed." But "it is a fair conclusion from this sampling" - he added - "that the Republican party is alive and well all across the country."

WASHINGTON

From Mayor Beame - at the National Press Club in Washington - a blast today at President Ford for refusing to bail out New York City. The Mayor calling the President's stand - "a kind of bumper sticker policy" also, "cop-out - not a cure." The Mayor adding it is "unimaginable that any other head of State in the world - would abandon the Premier City of his Nation or punish its people as an object lesson."

MADRID

Generalissimo Franco's Doctors say his weight has dropped to eighty-eight pounds - his kidneys have begun to fail - and an expected lung crises could be the last straw. They've been counting him out for more than two weeks now - and still he fights on.

TARFAYA

The Moroccan "Peacemarch" into the Spanish Sahara - will begin tomorrow on schedule, despite the threat of war. This according to King Hassan in a nationwide broadcast from Tarfaya. Said the King: "We wanted, dear people" - "to be at the head of this march; but the duty of a leader - is to remain at the command post."

JOHANNESBURG

Johannesburg South Africa - the diamond capital of the world; from whence we hear that honeymooner Richard Burton - is again up to his old tricks; buying for his bride, Elizabeth Taylor - a new wedding ring set with seventy-two flawless blue-white diamonds; also, a twenty-five carat rare pink diamond ring - whose value, we are told, is "close on to a million."

For the woman who has everything - still more.

DALLAS

Secret Service Chief, J. Walter Coughlin - one of the men who once guarded L. B. J. in the White House; in a speech, at Dallas recalled how whenever the then President got on an elevator - something seemed to go wrong.

"Once" - said Coughlin - "with the President he rode up and down in the White House elevator twenty-one times because the door wouldn't open; and he fired me forty-two times along the way." Coughlin finally said: "I'll tell you what, Mr. President - you get me off this thing and I'll quit."

HOLLYWOOD

Historian Will Durant - age ninety today! An occasion marked by the publication of the eleventh and final volume of his monumental work.

He says: "We are living in a time - when a woman thinks she has been emancipated;" but where in reality, she has only "made it easier for men to use her labor - and abuse her charms." As for sex, its now "impossible - to expect "premarital continence." But there is a simple solution - to rampant promiscuity - Namely - early marriage.

And now for CBS news...
