BRUSSELS

AT THAT NATO SUMMIT IN BRUSSELS--an attempt ^{was made} today to shore up the Western Alliance. President Nixon assuring his fellow NATO leaders--^{that} he will make no deals in Moscow that could possibly undercut NATO defenses. "We ~~would~~ would never sacrifice the interests of our allies."-- said he--"to reach agreement with the Soviet Union."

The President further telling his NATO colleagues: "We go into negotiation at the Soviet Summit--motivated by our vital interests and by yours."

The President's remarks ^{were} later applauded by NATO Secretary-General Joseph Luns, ^{who} said "there was general unanimous approval and happiness--about this consultation just before the Moscow visit."

Incidentally, the President also ^{took} pains today-- to demonstrate that his recent attack of phlebitis is little hindrance; walking half a mile to the Belgian Royal Palace-- to have lunch with King Baudouin.

DETROIT

A potentially major breakthrough in cancer research-- is reported ~~today~~ from Detroit. The Michigan Cancer Foundation claiming to have isolated, for the first time--
"a true human ~~is~~ breast cancer virus." Officials adding that if such is indeed the case--it could lead to the speedy discovery of a cure for this dread disease;
or failing that--perhaps a means of prevention.

CIA

CAIRO, JERUSALEM

From Egypt¹ Anwar Sadat--a warning today that Egypt is ready to send its warplanes--immediately into Lebanon; there to help fend off--repeated ~~xxxx~~ Israeli air strikes. Sadat adding that the Arabs, "with Egypt in the forefront--are eager to avoid a fifth war." Stressing, however, that Lebanon--"will not be left alone."

However, Israel warns that it ~~Reverse side - a warning that Israel~~ will do whatever it must--to protect its existence; up to and including--a resumption of hostilities. Israeli's chief of staff General Gur saying: "it is important to our neighbors to have them know--this option remains open."

EHRlichman

FORMER WHITE HOUSE AIDE JOHN EHRlichman--went on trial today

in Washington. He and three others--facing charges in connection with the Ellsberg break-in. ~~But the first~~ ~~task -- that of~~ ^{TO} selecting "a fair and impartial jury," ~~we~~ ~~hear may take days.~~

~~observers saying in Washington that could take~~

~~some time.~~

LONDONDERRY

At Londonderry in Northern Ireland--a blast today ^{at} by the IRA; the harshest attack ever made--by a Catholic prelate.

Bishop Edward Daly saying: "The IRA--are agents of the Devils."

Adding that "they and their various satellite organizations should not be assisted politically, financially or otherwise-- until they proclaim a total and permanent ~~and~~ cease fire".

MINIDO/A

LAST week in the scorching desert of Central Idaho, near Minido/A a survival training course where one of the pupils failed. Eleven year old Jeff Hodgson of Pocatello Idaho--wandering off from the main party; eventually dying of heat exhaustion and exposure--~~before~~ he was found.

Jeff's death leading now to a searching re-evaluation
--of the whole concept of survival training. ~~Idaho,~~ wilderness expert John Wolse charging that staff members of many such schools -- are really "therapists" and not professional outdoorsman."

SAANEN

The ten year marriage of Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton --was officially ended in fifteen minutes today at Saanen Switzerland. Miss Taylor getting custody of the couple's adopted child--plus a yacht, several homes, and a jewel collection valued at more than seven million. Burton getting the rest, & whatever that might be--along with visitation rights said to be very liberal.

MOSCOW

First--it was Pepsi. Now--Coke. Today in Moscow, the Coca-Cola Company signing an agreement--to produce bottled drinks for the Soviet Union. ~~But~~ But not coke-- not "the real thing." ~~It's~~ Instead, drinks derived from tea--and protein enriched milk.

PARIS

In Paris--the case of the Cardinal and the stripper.

Cardinal Jean Danielu, aged sixty-nine², of Paris,

a close friend of Pope Paul's--passing away last month;

the victim of a heart attack--at the time, said to have occurred, in "the home of friends". But since learned to have taken place -- in the apartment of beautiful strip teaser Mimi Santoni, aged ~~24~~ twenty-four.

French newspapers now calling it--"~~the~~ l'affairre Danielu;" the center of a growing controversy--on the celibacy of priests.

BONN

Tito of Yugoslavia--a guest today in Bonn; where he chatted with a number of Yugoslavs--presently working in West Germany.

Tito recalling that he once thought of emigrating to the United States--~~was~~ some sixty years ago--to escape ~~being~~ being ~~drafted~~ drafted into the Austro-Hungarian Army. Tito adding, with a smile; "if I had--I probably would be a millionaire now.

END PIECE

~~Out Here on the West Coast~~ The San Francisco Examiner
~~has been~~ reminding^S us how twenty-four years ago on this date the delegates of fifty nations, met ~~here~~ and signed the United Nations Charter. I was ~~here~~^{on hand} at the time and was interested to ~~know~~^{discover} that of all the diplomats ~~who~~ represented^y the fifty nations far more of them were graduates of the famous American University at ~~Beirut~~^{Beirut}, Syria than of any other educational institution. Many more were graduates of AUB than of Oxford, Harvard, or the University of Paris. † The Hearst Examiner also reminds us of a comment made by the man usually regarded as the most distinguished person to emerge during the World War II era. Said Winston Churchill: "The United Nations was set up no[†] to get us into heaven, but only to save us from Hell.

Speaking of Hell, ~~perhaps~~^{I guess} a hotel fire gives its victims a taste of that. ~~More about~~^{Something on} this tomorrow evening, if I have time, and no^w So Long until tomorrow. This is LT for CBS News.
