From Jimmy Carter - at ~~Philadelphia~~ <sup>Philadelphia</sup> a public apology ~~today~~ <sup>9</sup> for earlier saying the government ~~could~~ <sup>(should)</sup> not try to break down, quote, " the ethnic purity of white neighborhoods " by assisting blacks or other minorities to move there." Carter saying it was not the thought that was wrong - merely the phrase ~~was~~ ethnic purity." He then added, as president, he would "make sure that anyone who wanted to move into a neighborhood" - on his own - "would have the right to do it."

Carter remarks failing, however, to satisfy either Scoop Jackson or Morris Udall both of whom were also ~~campaigning in~~ ~~today~~ in Philadelphia. Jackson saying Carter "will be explain<sup>ing</sup>" his "ethnic purity" statement - "for the rest of the campaign."
Udall saying ~~Carter's choice of language was "very disturbing"~~ Adding "on an amazing number of major issues - Jimmy meets himself going through a revolving door."

NASHVILLE FOLLOW POLITICS

President Ford was also criticizing Carter - in an interview ~~published today~~ published today in the Nashville Banner. The President saying Carter "is just not specific enough, not definite enough - for the public to know where he stands." Adding, <sup>if</sup> in any event, ~~he~~ he'd still prefer to run against Hubert Humphrey - to give "the American people an opportunity for a choice."

The President further saying he's considering "ten or fifteen" possible running mates - among them, former Texas ~~governor~~ governor John Connally - the latter - said he - "a tremendous advocate of this administration" - ~~and~~ <sup>and well known as</sup> one of the nation's greatest "orators."

And now this -

SENATE FOLLOW HOUSE

~~On the Senate side~~ → Howard "Bo" Calloway was all but <sup>today</sup>
cleared ~~today~~ of alleged conflict of interest in connection with his Colorado ski resort. A Senate investigator saying ~~Callaway, while~~ ~~secretary of army, had aroused "intensified interest" in his ski~~ ~~project. This through contacts with other government officials. But~~ ~~adding that Callaway's actions could be inferred as having some~~ ~~effect on later government ratings. But~~ <sup>However</sup> "the investigation to date" said he - "has <sup>(uncovered)</sup> ~~uncovered~~ no positive evidence that this was the case."

HOUSE

U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker, ~~in an appearance today~~

before a House panel - ~~today~~ <sup>was</sup> strongly urged <sup>the</sup> return of the Panama Canal Zone to Panama. ~~Bunker~~ <sup>But this a</sup> view <sup>is</sup> vigorously opposed. Congressman

Sullivan of Missouri, for one, saying if the Canal Zone were returned - it would soon fall under the control of Cuba, and ~~thus~~ <sup>indirectly into the hands of</sup> the Soviet Union.

The U.S. Embassy in Moscow <sup>today</sup> sent to the Kremlin ~~today~~ - its fifth protest in two weeks; again, over ~~the~~ alleged harassment - of Embassy personnel. The latest ~~victim~~ - a woman diplomat who was surrounded and harassed by four men - <sup>right near</sup> ~~only a block from~~ the Embassy compound.

LONDON

Britain's Prime Minister Callaghan today <sup>in July</sup> named his new cabinet - retaining<sup>s</sup> all but four of the ministers who ~~earlier~~ served under Harold Wilson. The only surprise ~~we hear~~ the appointment of right-winger Anthony Crosland as foreign secretary; ~~the post which Callaghan himself previously held.~~ Crosland, a former environment secretary, <sup>with</sup> ~~having~~ no experience in foreign affairs - unless you count the fact he's married to an American. His wife - the former Susan Barnes Catling of Baltimore.

ROME

Egypt's President Sadat met with Pope Paul today at the Vatican.

~~In Rome~~ The two agreeing that any Mid-east settlement - must include "a solution to the problem of the Palestinian people." Sadat then flying to Belgrade, Yugoslavia - the fourth stop on his current five-nation European tour.

STATE

From the State Department <sup>caned</sup> an announcement ~~today~~ that Secretary

Kissinger has cancelled plans to visit Nigeria - during a trip to Africa next month. This at the request of the Nigerian government - which said "the timing was inconvenient." The U.S. and Nigeria <sup>have been</sup> ~~you may recall~~ supporting opposite sides in the recent Angola civil war.

PEKING

In Peking <sup>there was</sup> an attempt today to stage <sup>a</sup> massive demonstration - in support of China's new premier, Hua Kuo-Feng. ~~Observers saying~~

~~Workers~~ were trucked and bused into ~~the center of~~ Peking - apparently on government orders; but once there, instead of shouting and cheering - ~~they~~

~~said to have~~ "appeared baffled" - bewildered. ~~An observer adding that~~

~~except for organized rallies few residents were seen on the street.~~

MADRID

The government of Spain today publicly declared war on basque terrorists - who earlier in the day shot ~~to death~~ <sup>and killed</sup> a kidnapped Spanish industrialist. Interior Minister Maneul Fraha telling a nationwide radio and TV audience - the basque terrorists have become "a fanatic <sup>inhuman</sup> minority <sup>and that</sup> ~~of inhumans.~~ ~~Adding~~ "since they want war - they will have it with all the consequences."

ASPEN

At Aspen, Colorado - the charge against actress Claudine Longet in the shooting death of skier "Spider" Sabich - was upped ~~to~~ today from negligent homicide to felony manslaughter. The new charge - carrying with it a possible sentence of one to ten years. Miss Longet the ex-wife of singer Andy Williams - whose long-time attorney is now ~~here~~

~~as well~~ acting for her,
