

Last Survey Tour

We were getting ready for the General Chapter of 1976, and it was wise to have a complete survey of all our various missions. This would allow the Assistancy to be able to present a complete picture of each area at the forthcoming Chapter. But I now make what will probably be my last report of the missions that I loved so very much.