

L.T.-DELCO. FRI., FEB. 8, 1957.

GOOD EVENING EVERYBODY:

King Saudi, and the President - had their final meeting today; conferring for two hours - then parting on the portico of the White House.

In a joint communique - covering their talks; Saud accepts the "Eisenhower doctrine" for the Middle East. The monarch of Arabia - saying that America might have to use force, to prevent Communist penetration of the Middle East. King Saud, assuring President Eisenhower - that he too wants the states of the Middle East - to remain independent.

The two leaders also agreed on that matter of the air-base at Dharhan. Under the new agreement, we continue to use the base, and in return supply arms for the internal security of Saudi Arabia.

The communique sums up by saying - King Saud wants to continue close cooperation with the United States.

After today's meeting, President Eisenhower left for a week's vacation in Georgia. The King leaves tomorrow by plane - for Madrid. Also he will visit Egypt on his way home. The first test of the Washington talks, to come when King Saud meets Nasser in Cairo and tries to convince the Egyptian dictator - that the "Eisenhower doctrine" is the right policy for the Middle East?

ISRAEL

Israel rejects President Eisenhower's request -- about Gaza and Aquaba. ~~The~~ <sup>The</sup> Eisenhower ~~in Sunday's~~ letter to Premier Ben Gurion appealed ~~in~~ for an Israeli pull back to the Nineteen Forty-Nine armistice line.

Ben Gurion's reply -- a flat rejection. The Israeli Premier ~~repeating~~ repeating that Israel will occupy the two territories -- until she gets guarantees against Egyptian aggression.

SUMMIT

President Eisenhower and Prime Minister MacMillan will meet in Bermuda, March Twenty-First. So we hear from London. Details are being worked out.

A summit conference to discuss world problems, on the highest level. Eisenhower and MacMillan, to mend the Western alliance - that has needed some mending ever since the Anglo French invasion of Suez. Eden had wanted to visit Washington, but was rebuffed - because of the Suez venture. Now his successor crosses the Atlantic to Bermuda - to restore the Anglo-American partnership, and discuss world problems - such as the Middle East; and threats of Soviet aggression in general.

The Premier of France, Guy Mollet, will not be at this Bermuda conference. But it is believed in London - that Millet will visit Washington before the Bermuda meeting.

BECK

The head of the Teamsters Union denies - he's dodging a Senate investigation of labor racketeering. Dave Beck, now in London - first stop on a European tour, ~~He~~ held a news conference - telling reporters, he's ready to appear before the Senate Committee - when he gets home. Said <sup>he:</sup> ~~Dave Beck~~. "Why should I dodge?" ~~Then he added:~~ "I've got nothing to hide."

Asked about ~~the fact that~~ his union is paying for his trip abroad - ~~the union leader~~ <sup>he</sup> replied, <sup>that he has</sup> ~~he's got~~ union work to do in London, Paris, Rome and Geneva.

GUARD

The Governor of Alabama charges that the Army is trying to control the National Guard. Governor ~~Jim~~ Folsom, testifying before a House Sub-Committee - said he knows the Guard well - because he joined when he was thirteen. He <sup>thinks</sup> ~~claims~~ ~~that~~ it would be a step toward military dictatorship - to require Guardsmen to take six months' training, <sup>the same as</sup> ~~just like the~~ professional soldiers. <sup>and</sup> ~~He told the Sub-Committee~~ that under no circumstances should the National Guard be placed under the control of the Pentagon.

OIL

The Justice Department orders a grand jury investigation - of oil prices. Most of <sup>the</sup> ~~our~~ major companies raised <sup>crude oil</sup> ~~these~~ prices by thirty-five cents a barrel - ~~on crude oil~~, after the Suez Canal was blocked. <sup>to meant</sup> ~~The result~~, a boost of one cent a gallon - to the consumer.

<sup>Altho</sup> The Justice Department has no jurisdiction over prices, ~~But~~ it wants to know whether the sudden increase ~~by~~ — <sup>all</sup> the companies at the same time - means that they had an under-the-table agreement. -- ~~to raise prices.~~

JOBS

The number of jobs in America - dropped by one million, six hundred thousand - last month. The Labor and Commerce Departments issuing a report showing that the number of men and women looking for work, rose by almost half a million.

Reasons given: - less employment on farms. Abnormally bad weather curtailing employment in construction work - and everything out of doors. And then the survey was mad nearer Christmas than usual - so it included a larger number of workers who took temporary jobs for the holidays.

CRASH

No evidence that the crash of that airliner on Riker's Island, in New York's East River - was caused by a violation of safety rules. So says Civil Aeronautics Administrator James Pyle.

As for the two planes that collided over Los Angeles - the C.A.B. reports somebody there violated the law against test flights over congested areas.

SPAIN

In Madrid, ~~a big riot~~ <sup>another riot.</sup> of students. Five hundred members of the university - clashing with Franco's police.

First the students organized a rally - in support of a boycott of the transport system. Madrid authorities brought in mounted police - to keep the students out of the main square. But

The demonstrators marched through the streets, singing and shouting, "We want liberty!" As they reached the main square, they were met by ~~a bus load of~~ police - who ~~jumped out, and~~ started using their clubs. The demonstrators, scattering, ~~in all directions.~~

No one reported injured, - ~~but the boycott goes on.~~

WEST GERMANY

The Premier of the Soviet Union sends a letter to the Chancellor of West Germany. The first personal note, ever to go from Bulganin to Adenauer.

The text, to be released either tomorrow or Sunday - after the Adenauer government has had a chance to <sup>study</sup> ~~analyze~~ it. Reliable sources at the Soviet Embassy say - the Bulganin note offers concrete proposals - on German reunification. And Chancellor Adenauer is described as looking ~~very~~ pleased with the message.

EAST GERMANY

The Communist government of East Germany - punishes another student. Holger Hansen, ousted from Humboldt University in East Berlin. Hansen, called, in the words of the Red government, "a leader of counter-revolutionary agitation."

Holger Hansen was one of the students who wanted to start a ~~big~~ rebellion against the Reds - at the time of the anti-Communist revolt in Hungary. So now he's expelled from the university. ~~And the Communists~~ with a government promise of more crack-downs on ~~anti-Communists among the students body of the university.~~ if they get out of line.

HUNGARY

In Hungary, the Kadar government says it's worried about the children. The reason, many youngsters took part in that anti-Communist uprising in October. We are now told, the trouble with Hungary's younger generation - they've been getting too much political propaganda in the schools - not enough children's stories. So Kadar decrees - no more politics in elementary classrooms. From now on, ~~the kids are to stick~~ <sup>may</sup> ~~to reading~~ fairy tales, and stories like Huckelberry Finn.

TIBET

The Chinese Communists deny a report - that the Dalai Lama of Tibet is asking for political asylum in India.

The Dalai Lama, spiritual and political leader - of the hermit kingdom on the roof-of-the-world ~~has~~ <sup>who has</sup> been visiting the sub-continent of Hindustan. One report had it, that he would not return to his homeland <sup>which is</sup> now occupied by the <sup>Red army of</sup> ~~troops of~~

Mao Tse-tung. This report <sup>grew with rumors of</sup> ~~strengthened by~~ violent rebellion against the Chinese Communists - in many parts of Tibet.

Now Peiping declares - the Dalai Lama is on his way back to Lhasa. His caravan of two hundred mules - making its way slowly through the Himalayas. The religious leader of millions of Tibetans - held up by bad weather in the rugged <sup>But the Chinese say he is</sup> mountain passes. ~~But he is~~ definitely returning to Tibet.

~~So say the Chinese Reds~~ Returning to Lhasa - and his apartment high up in the lofty Potala.

JAPANESE

In Manila, a Japanese business man has just been exposed - as a member of the military police sent to the Philippines by Tokyo - during the occupation of World War Two.

Shoichi Yanase came to Manila a few weeks ago - as a member of a good will mission from Japan. He received a warm reception - and was entertained by high Filipinos. Shoichi Yanase, one of the most popular members of that good-will mission.

But then a Filipino war widow told the authorities - Yanase had been one of the military police at the Fort Santiago Concentration Camp - at the time of the Japanese occupation. That camp was one of the most notorious of all set up by the forces of the Emperor. Thousands of Filipinos were tortured and killed - during the years that the Philippine<sup>s</sup> Islands were under the Japanese heel.

~~was~~ <sup>So - quick</sup> that put an end to Filipino hospitality, where Shoichi Yanase was concerned. Today, he was taken to the Manila airport, under heavy guard. There he was quickly put aboard an airliner bound for Tokyo. President Magsaysay, getting rid of this guest, to avoid trouble.

The case of the Japanese business man - on a good-will visit to Manila that blew up when they found out who he was.

ATOMIC

Ten mid-west power companies announce - plans for a new atomic power plant. ~~It will~~<sup>To</sup> cost more than twenty million dollars; ~~It's to have a~~ power capacity of sixty thousand kilowatts; ~~Atomic fuel will create~~<sup>to</sup> enough ~~power~~ for a city of more than a hundred thousand people.

This new atomic plant - to be located on the Mississippi, probably in Minnesota. ~~It's expected to be in~~<sup>and in</sup> operation within five years.

The ten companies emphasize - there is no competition with plants that use coal or gas. This atomic power plant, to be mainly experimental.

WOMAN

New York police have picked up a Hungarian woman - on charges of hoarding gold. And there's a suspicion that the case may turn into something worse - possibly murder.

Dr. Mary Foldvary was arrested by Secret Service agents last Friday. She's accused of hoarding gold bullion worth twelve hundred dollars. The law is - no private person may have more than one hundred dollars worth of gold in his possession.

Now we<sup>a</sup>re told that certain information came to the attention of the police - when they were examining Dr. Foldvary. ~~They're~~ They're investigating several deaths that occurred in the New York Women's Prison - while ~~Dr. Foldvary~~<sup>she</sup> was physician there. We are told that several deaths were mysterious.

PSYCHOPATH

The police of Fall River, Massachusetts - are looking for a man they describe as "an ingenious psychopath". He's a "psychopath" because he attempted to blow up the Stevens Textile Mill. He's called "ingenious" - because of the device he made for the job.

The story broke when Foreman Raymond Brown smelled gas. He traced the fumes to a pipe - where a fitting had been deliberately removed. A further search turned up - a pile of rags soaked in oil - two feet high. When the rags were pulled aside - Brown discovered an electrical gadget rigged to go off in ten minutes! If it had - it would have caused the gas to explode and wrecked the mill.

It took a lot of intelligence to make the explosive device; but only a crazy man would have thought of the idea. So the police say - "an ingenious psychopath". And they want to find him.

TIGERS

A dispatch from Saigon tells of - terror in Central Viet Nam. Nothing to do with Communism - no mention of rebel bands terrifying outlying districts.

This report is about a much older problem. The tigers of southeast Asia - turning man eater, in big numbers.

The tigers, driven out of the jungle by hunger. Lurking along trails near villages and rice paddies. Carrying people off. At the leastest count, fifty deaths. All carried away by maneaters.

DUKE

Buckingham Palace issues a formal statement. A denial - that there is any rift between Queen Elizabeth and her ~~husband~~ husband, the Duke of Edinburgh. An official palace spokesman saying simply, "It's a lie."

This ~~statement, the result of~~ rumors that have been going around London, ~~The rumors~~ and reported by Joan Graham of the "Baltimore Sun," ~~she~~ who filed a dispatch saying ~~that in~~ that in ~~society in the British capital, have been talking openly~~ cafe ~~about~~ there has been much talk ~~treble~~ in the royal family.

According to this gossip, the Duke of Edinburgh had, what is called, "more than a passing interest" in an unnamed woman. The rumor going on to add - that this "unnamed woman" and the Duke of Edinburgh used to meet in a private apartment of the court photographer.

~~of course,~~ Nothing of this has appeared in the British press. Maybe ~~Probably~~ that's why the rumor ~~grew~~ spread so quickly. ~~There~~ ~~was no information - to check it.~~

Anyway, when the Duke went off on his tour around the world - gossip had it that the Queen was getting her husband away - before there was a scandal. This story, apparently strengthened by the fact - that the Duke's tour has been ~~very~~ leisurely. The royal consort, staying at various places - as if his main business was to use up time.

According to <sup>the correspondent</sup> ~~John Graham~~ of the "Baltimore Sun" - more and more people in London, and in Britain -- have been talking ~~openly~~ about the case, of the Duke of Edinburgh - saying, he and the Queen don't get along.

And <sup>Henry an</sup> Now, ~~we have the~~ answer direct from Buckingham Palace - the statement, "It's a lie."
