POLITICS

~~Ronald Reagan~~ ^{was out} campaign~~ed~~ ^g ~~for president~~ today, in ~~a flying tour of key primary states~~ in the east and south. At Manchester, New Hampshire, the former California governor ~~told newsmen that~~ ^{said}, should he win the G-O-P nomination, he will choose a running mate who shares his conservative views.
Later, in Charlotte, North Carolina, he ~~promised NOT to run~~
~~a "divisive campaign"~~ ^{again} ~~and~~ pledged to support President Ford should the nomination go to him. Meanwhile

In Wichita, Kansas, Vice-President Rockefeller ^{was telling} ~~told~~ a conference of Republican governors their party would die if it embraces right-wing extremism.

DEMOCRATS

Sixty Congressmen - all Democrats - are urging their party to make full employment the Number One issue in next year's presidential campaign. ^{JP} At least seven of the ten declared Democratic presidential candidates ~~were~~ ^{due} ~~expected to be~~ in Louisville, Kentucky, ^{Today} for an issues convention, ~~beginning today~~.

CARVIN (felo politics)

In Miami, a Federal magistrate ordered psychiatric tests for Michael Carvin - the twenty-year-old college dropout who pointed a toy gun at Reagan at the Miami airport. During the hearing, Carvin - son of a Pompano Beach real estate investor - offered NO explanation for his action.

and now —

CIA

The Senate's ~~assassination~~ report on CIA activities says President Nixon ordered the CIA to organize a coup in Chile in Nineteen-Seveny in an effort to keep Marxist Salvador Allende from ^{taking over,} ~~coming to power as Chile's~~

~~president. The attempt failed and Allende took office - but~~

~~the report says American efforts to stop ^{Allende} him were far greater~~ than Nixon and ~~Secretary Kissinger have acknowledged.~~

In commenting on the Senate report, ^{Dr.} Kissinger

~~declined to discuss the Nineteen-Seveny coup, but he insisted~~

^{says} ~~that~~ the U.S. played NO part in the Nineteen-Seveny-Three coup that led to Allende's death. ^{Also, that while} ~~Further, he says he's~~

~~positive~~ the CIA can be stopped from plotting assassinations -

~~but~~ it must continue ^{its wide activities} ~~covert operations~~ in the national interest.

VIETNAM

The governments of North and South Vietnam today agreed to elect a joint National Assembly of reunification next year ^{and} thus ending ~~ing~~ the twenty-one-year partition of ~~the~~ Indochina, ~~nation~~.

MIDEAST

~~In Beirut, at least twenty killed - fifty~~

At Beirut in ~~wounded - in~~

renewed fighting which threatens a complete collapse of a three-weeks-old ceasefire. ^{20 more dead and 50 wounded.} Also a new wave of ~~kidnappings and shooting, ^{sweeping} ~~at the city~~ with Palestinian~~

~~Muslims joining in the religious strife.~~

Postal officials in Canberra, Australia, found and defused a mail bomb addressed to Governor-General Sir John Kerr who last week fired Prime Minister Gough Whitlam. ^Q ~~It was the~~ third bomb sent to an Australian public official in three days. One exploded - injuring ^{two} ~~three~~ mail sorters.

MISSILES

An Eastern Airlines pilot - flying over Virginia with eighty-nine on board - says he's almost certain four missiles zipped in front of his jetliner in the sky south of Richmond. Federal authorities are investigating - but say ^{the} ~~our~~ pilot may have ^{encountered} ~~seen~~ a meteorite shower, ~~instead~~.

In other words - [↑] seeing things.

WEATHER

~~Blizzard~~ snows and seventy-mile-an-hour winds!-

one of the worst storms to hit the West and Midwest in a decade

- is ~~losing its punch~~ ^{fading} tonight after a three-day ~~rampage~~ ^{session} that took at least eight lives. ~~The big dig-out is underway from~~

~~in~~ ^{all the way to} the southern Colorado, ~~Rockies eastward to~~ South Dakota,

Nebraska, Minnesota and Michigan's Upper Peninsula. ^{Many} are now digging out of huge drifts.

~~It was~~ a fashion show at West Point ~~yes, at~~ West Point ^{175 year old} as the academy's tradition of men-only came to an end, - ~~after one hundred seventy four years~~. Models moved along a runway - making ^{the usual} ~~left~~ turns ^{to} as they displayed ~~the~~ tailored gray suits, ^{and the} full dress uniforms and capes the lady cadets will soon be wearing when they join the corps. All three service academies are now open ^{to} women - and West Point expects more than eighty to enroll next July. Will standards be lowered under the new admissions' policy? ~~Not by a long~~ ~~shot~~ No, says Academy Superintendent General ~~Stewart~~ Berry, ^{and} ~~who said~~ ^{then he added:} "I would strongly recommend that these young women start ~~their~~ training right now, ^{how?} ~~For openers, they~~ ~~might try~~ ^{Oh,} running three or four miles a day."

SUITS

Despite its present fiscal tribulations, New York City is pushing ahead with its own plans for celebrating the Bicentennial. ^{Even} Retail clothing stores, ~~included - with one~~ mens' shop ^{saw} offering "George Washington suits." Says a customer who bought one - "that suit is well-named - it looks like I slept in it."
