

NIXON

L.T.-Olds. Thurs June 9-'60.

Late this afternoon, the Vice President held a news conference - at Camden, New Jersey. Making a reply - to Governor Rockefeller of New York.

He said - that Nelson Rockefeller has every right to criticize the policies of the administration. Also - that the New York Governor cannot be ruled out as a possible Republican presidential nominee.

What about the Rockefeller charge that Nixon has failed to take a stand on important problems of the day. While waiting for the Republican presidential nomination? To this Nixon replies - that he has already made his ~~ex~~ position clear. He's a member of the Eisenhower team - and stands on the record of the administration. His contention is - that his views have been on ~~the~~ public record for years. Showing clearly - his opinion ^{quite} in questions confronting the nation.

ADD NIXON

Nixon offers to meet Rockefeller -- in a television debate. And let the Governor question him
-- about the vital issues of the day.

At the news conference the Vice President said -- he had received some advice from Senator Kennedy, front runner for the Democratic Nomination -- who might well be his opponent in the ~~ix~~ election. Talking ~~ix~~ ^{of} Governor Rockefeller, Kennedy said to Nixon: "You know what I would say: If the Governor wants to debate the issue why didn't he enter a ~~ix~~ primary -- and debate them there?"

But Nixon said, I felt Governor Rockefeller had a right to stay out of primaries -- and also declare his beliefs.

POLITICS EISENHOWER

President Eisenhower, today, challenged the Rockefeller statement - that our national defense program ^{is} inadequate. At the White House, the President had a meeting with Republican leaders in Congress. In the course of ~~it~~ ^{so-called} which - the Rockefeller attack on Vice President Nixon came up. How could it have been otherwise?

President Eisenhower took particular exception to the way the New York Governor suggested that we may be backward in ultra-modern armament, like missiles. Nelson Rockefeller advising - a three billion dollar increase in military spending.

Upon emerging from the meeting, Congressman Halleck of Indiana said: "The President believes, as he has all along - that the provisions we are ~~making~~ making for national defense are reasonably adequate."

The Republican legislators, bewildered by the Rockefeller challenge to Nixon, express the general opinion - that it will not have much effect in halting the nomination of the Vice President for the top spot, at the G O P National Convention. Republican ~~pi~~ politicians, for the most part - are standing fast for Nixon.

GLIDER

An American pilot, who landed behind the Iron Curtain - released by the Reds. Promptly and without any fuss. ~~today~~ ^{today}. Pilot Richard Schreder of Toledo, Ohio, ^{today} went winging across the border into Communist East Germany. But - no charge of espionage, no accusation of any kind. Even the most fanatical Communist could hardly have put any blame on pilot Schreder.

He was flying - a glider. A contestant in a glider competition - held in West Germany, near Cologne, on the Rhine. Sailing gayly - on wings without power. Riding a lively breeze - which took him all the way across the Iron Curtain. Although - he didn't ~~ka~~ know it.

When he landed in the Red area, the Communist authorities grabbed him. But ^{when they} ~~immediately~~ saw - the glider was no U-2, ~~So~~ they promptly turned him loose. A party of fellow glider pilots - driving across the border, today, Bringing back - Schreder and his glider.

EISENHOWER

The weird way things are ~~gon~~ going in Japan - is illustrated by the latest threat of the left wing student organization which now says - they ^{have} formed a "noise maker" corps, ~~To~~ play raucous tunes on trumpets, and bang away on drums - as an ear-splitting serenade. The purpose - to keep the President awake at night, and see that he doesn't get any sleep.

They say the "noise maker" corps will get a work out - when Presidential Secretary Jim Hagerty arrives at Tokyo, tomorrow, ~~To~~ make ~~the~~ arrangements - for that Eisenhower visit. Sour notes on ~~the~~ trumpets and drums - to keep ^{Jim} ~~him~~ awake.

Meanwhile, another Japanese labor organization gave urgent advice, today - asking President Eisenhower to postpone his visit. The same ~~the~~ thing - from a large group of university professors. While the Japanese mothers conference has written a letter to Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower, asking her to ~~plead~~ plead with the President - not to come to Japan.

Tonight in Tokyo, Premier Kishi spoke on television, telling the Japanese people - he guarantees the personal safety of President Eisenhower.

The news from Formosa - also noisy. But - friendly. The Chinese Nationalists - to greet the President - with dragons ten feet high. Accompanied - by a pandemonium of exploding firecrackers. That fantasy of dragons and firecrackers - a cordial Far Eastern welcome.

EATON

Here's a dispatch from Pugwash, Nova Scotia. The home town - of the Cleveland millionaire, Cyrus Eaton. The news being - that Soviet Russia will present Eaton with the Lenin Peace Prize. The ceremony - to be held at Pugwash. Somehow, the name sounds proper for the bestowed ^{al} of the Moscow ~~is~~ decoration.

Today, in London, ~~Cyrus~~ Cyrus Eaton, the seventy-seven year old Chairman of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, stated - that the collapse of the summit was the doing of people in the State Department in Washington - and certain atomic scientists.

"I feel," said he, "that powerful influences in the United States government - did not want a summit meeting."

^{Pugwash}
So says the _^winner of the Lenin Peace Prize - which will be presented at Pugwash.

EICHMANN

Word from Israel - that the government there will not return Adolf Eichmann to Argentina. And, even if they wanted to - the Israelic public would not permit it. Making it a foregone conclusion - that Israel will reject the Argentine demand.

Which is - an ultimatum, Requiring the Nazi war criminal to be sent back - within a week. The government at Buenos Aires protesting - that the seizure of Eichmann in Argentine territory was in violation of Argentine law. Which the government of Israel condones - and for which it must be held responsible.

Argentina has recalled its Ambassador to Israel, and it looks like a break of diplomatic relations between the two countries. Argentina - threatening to take the case to the United Nations.

TYPHOON

Here's a nightmare picture. Wind - ~~blowing~~ blowing at ^a ~~one~~ hundred-and-ninety-two miles an hour with rain pouring - like a solid wall. Fourteen inches of rain - in twenty-four hours. The place - Hong Kong. The British colony on the China coast - battered by a ~~big~~ typhoon, one of the most violent on record.

Hong Kong dispatches - give a growing death list. The homeless - ^{way up} ~~high~~ in the thousands. Ships in the harbor - torn from anchorage, and driven ashore.

The typhoon struck shortly before dawn - and daybreak was only a few hours ago on the China coast, where they^are just beginning to reckon - the extent of the havoc.

SPELLING BEE

The National Spelling Bee came to an end in Washington, today - and here's a sixty-four dollar word. At least, it is - to my mind. How do you spell - "spelling?"

At the hotel where the verbose event was held, ~~hm~~ there was a sign reading: "National Spelling Bee". With one "L". So the hotel, it seems, lost the contest.

The winner - Henry Feldman, thirteen years old, of Oak Ridge, Tennessee, who carried off the prize by spelling "eudaemonic" correctly. The word means - promoting happiness.

Dick - do you feel
~~The hotel - not at all, eudaemonic, after putting~~
~~out a sign - with a misspelled word.~~

BROADWAY

Broadway - to be back in show business - promptly.

A settlement announced this afternoon - between actors^{and}~~and~~ equity and the producers. Performances to be resumed - no later than Monday. The ~~an~~ agreement must be ratified by both actors and producers. A mere matter of form, apparently - ratification expected tonight. Show business, Dick - better than no business.
