

U N

L.F. Cds. Wed. Aug. 24-60,

President Eisenhower will not confer with Khrushchev - at the United Nations. So stated by authoritative sources - at the international organization, Referring to the possibility - that Mr. Eisenhower may deliver America's address in the General Assembly. The President <sup>is</sup> not decided on that, <sup>he is</sup> But fully decided - that he won't confer personally with the <sup>boss of</sup> Boorish ~~man~~ from the Kremlin, who insulted him in Paris.

EISENHOWER

At his news conference today, the President denied that our relations with Cuba are hopeless. He is putting his faith - in the O.A.S., and says he'll take part in a meeting of heads of government - if necessary. At the same time, he repeated - that he will not permit the Soviet Union to establish a satellite state in the Caribbean.

President Eisenhower, as usual answered a barrage of questions - on leading issues. For one he defended Secretary of Agriculture Benson - and put the blame for the farm problem - squarely on the Democratic controlled Congress.

Turning to the U 2 flights he repeated that it was right for him to acknowledge the over-flights, remarking that otherwise pilot Francis Powers would have looked like "an adventurous fellow", who flew over Russia of his own accord.

What about - religion in the coming campaign?
He says of course, would like to see it kept out - but that he's not naive enough to believe - it won't be mentioned. However he hopes it won't have any decisive effect - on the election. President Eisenhower again emphasizing that he thinks religion is not a legitimate issue in American public life.

HERTER

The American Secretary of State today called Cuba - a threat to ~~the~~<sup>the</sup> entire hemisphere. Secretary Herter - addressing the organization of American states - in San Jose, Costa Rica, ~~Terming~~<sup>ed</sup> Castro - an agent of Soviet Imperialism. Charging that through Castro - the Soviet Union is interfering in inter-American affairs.

Secretary Herter, making a strong speech - then asking the O.A.S. to act ■■ on Castro's Cuba.

CASTRO FOLLOW HERTER

As for Castro? He's - defiant. Says he'll continue his ties with Communist ~~ties~~ countries - no matter what the O.A.S. may do. Castro, praising both Russia and Red China - referring to them as "Our friends". What does Castro think of the O.A.S.? The member nations are, in his words - "vassals of America."

As usual, the Cuban dictator saved his most vitriolic remarks - for the United States. Here are some of the epithets he used today: "rapacious, exploiting, bloody, and voracious Yankee imperialism."

In San Jose - immediate reaction to Castro's harangue. One Latin-American diplomat declaring - "Castro is losing his mind - if he hasn't lost it already."

NIXON

Vice President Nixon warns Fidel Castro that we could overthrow him - if <sup>w</sup> ~~he~~ wanted to. The G O P candidate, issuing his warning - at today's session of the Veterans of Foreign Wars - followed by a news conference.

~~Richard~~ Nixon, saying - we have enough military strength to use against Castro - but we have no intention of using it. Adding <sup>that</sup> ~~our~~ economic strength <sup>sh</sup> ~~would~~ be enough to get rid of the Dictator, but again - we're not going to go that far.

Our alternative - to show the Cuban people a better system than Communism. Show them ~~that~~ they can raise their standard of living - and do it without submitting to a Red tyranny. Which is ~~now~~ where our new aid program for Latin-America - comes in.

SENATE

The Senate vote on Foreign Aid - is aimed at Cuba and the Dominican Republic. The bill, authorizing President Eisenhower to cut off foreign aid - to any nation giving arms or economic assistance to Castro's Cuba. Senator Morse, offering an amendment - to cover Trujillo's Dominican Republic. President Eisenhower, to have the same kind of authority - to deal with nations that send ~~we~~ weapons to Trujillo.

The Foreign Aid bill itself - is ~~pretty~~ much what President Eisenhower asked for. The Senate, voting almost four billion - to help other nations.

CONGO

Civil war in the Congo may not be far off - after Premier Lumumba's invasion of Kasai Province. Kasai - which, like Katanga, wants to be an independent state.

Lumumba, answering the cry for independence - with invasion. Arming his men - with rifles and machine guns. Seizing planes - from the Sabena airline. Air-lifting his army - into Kasai. Telling his commanders to restore order. Meaning - bring Kasai back under the rule of Leopoldville.

One mission given to Lumumba's forces - to capture Albert Kalonji, the leader of the Kasai rebellion. Kalonji, massing his own forces - asserting that Kasai will defend its freedom, to the death.

The Kasai problem - complicated by an age-old tribal feud. The Balubas, fighting the Lulus - just as they did for centuries before anyone ever heard of the United Nations, or - of Belgium.

ADD CONGO

Meanwhile, the U N contradicts - Katanga's Premier Tshombe. An observer sent to Albertville, deny<sup>s</sup>~~ing~~ Tshombe's report - of violence committed by soldiers from the Mali Federation. The Malis, helping to keep the peace in Albertville - according to the U N.

WRECK

The train that cracked up near East Chicago, Indiana - was doing <sup>about</sup> eighty. A New York Central passenger- and mail train -- with eleven cars. Four of them, jumping the tracks, ~~Near~~ the Indiana-Illinois border. The four - skidding five hundred yards -- tipping over. Twenty injured - none seriously.

BEE

There's sombre irony in the fate of Delbert Shreve - of Wheeling, West Virginia. Shreve, offering to cut some weeds - for his neighbor, George Stobbs. Reason - the weeds, full of yellow jackets. And Stobbs is allergic to bee ~~sting~~ sting.

Shreve, telling Stobbs not to worry. Saying, he'd do the job - for him. So Shreve went out - to mow the weeds. And was stung by - a yellow jacket. Shreve, collapsing - hurried to the hospital in an ambulance - dead on arrival.

The doctors, discovering something Shreve never knew about himself - that he, too, was allergic to <sup>he met</sup> ~~bee~~ stings.

OLYMPICS

Tonight in Rome - the excitement that comes to the world of athletics - once every four years. The eve of - the Olympic Games. The Eternal City -- playing host to the world's ~~finest~~ finest athletes. A lot of them <sup>may</sup> ~~finding~~ it hard to sleep tonight, ~~Many~~ dreaming - of gold medals. All, tense - as they await the starting gun.

SERVICE

Some new verses by "the Bard of the Yukon" - have been discovered in Lanciaux, France. At least, Estelle Gaillard, age twelve - claims Robert Service wrote them for her. Sceptics, expressing doubt - saying they're imitation Service.

First, let's get clear - the connection between the Canadian North and a town in Central France. Robert Service - hitting the trail of Ninety Eight. Arriving in White ~~Horse~~ — and Dawson in the Klondike — in the Yukon - at the height of the gold rush. Becoming - the Yukon poet laureate. Turning out "Songs of a Sourdough" and "Rhymes of a Rolling Stone". His famous poem "The Shooting of Dan McGrew" - selling two million copies.

Robert Service - didn't strike gold in the Yukon. But - he sure struck it rich. The royalties from his verse - making him a millionaire. Allowing him to retire to France. - ~~the town of Lanciaux.~~

Service, dying two years ago — ~~in Nineteen Fifty Eight~~ - leaving a lot of unpublished poetry. Today, Estelle Gaillard produced a sheaf of poems - saying the nice Monsieur <sup>Robert</sup> Service wrote them just for her. An English critic, taking a look at them - saying they're not genuine.

One verse called "Winter Comes to the Yukon" begins like this.

The frost is here, and the snow is near
And the sourdough's back from the hill.
In the saloon, they're banging a tune
To make you forget the chill

Does that sound like Robert Service to you?

It does - to me.

SUB

Another of our nuclear powered submarines - blazing a trail through Arctic Waters. The Sea Dragon, passing through the Parry Channel - from Baffin Bay into the Beaufort Sea. Commander George Steele of Washington, D.C. <sup>traversing</sup> ~~taking~~ the Northwest Passage. Crossing the top of North America - surfacing off Alaska.

The Sea Dragon, <sup>now</sup> to continue on to the Pole - where Commander Steele and his men will gather scientific information. ~~Then they will~~ make the run down through Bering Strait - to Hawaii.
