

TIBET

L.T. - Olds. Mon. Nov. 6, 1961.

The Indian news service reports - three more big battles in Tibet. The hard-riding men of ~~Kang~~^{Kham} ambushing truck convoys - along the historic trail from Lhasa north into the Chinese province of Sinkiang. The trucks, loaded with winter supplies - for Mao Tse Tung's army of occupation, heavily guarded - by infantry and armored cars.

The Khambas, ambushing the convoys - inflicting heavy casualties. Riding off - with food and equipment. Preparing for their winter campaign - by stocking up on supplies from ~~Red~~ Red China.

SUBSTITUTE EQUADOR

The resignation of Ecuador's cabinet - was caused by today's rioting. A mob of students, attempt^{ed}ing to storm the government ~~buildings~~ buildings - in Guayaquil, ^{and were driven} ~~rolled~~ back by riot police - who fired into the crowd. Four students - killed. Around a score injured.

Result - the cabinet out. Premier Jose Velasco Ibarra - setting up an emergency regime. Guayaquil - seething tonight.

BERLIN

of Berlin

Today's battle was caused by - a Red invasion of allied territory. Two hundred East German guards, taking up position along a section of barbed wire - inside the French zone. Whereupon, the West German police attacked - with tear gas grenades. The battle, lasting - an hour-and-a-half. Decided, by a shift in the wind - which carried a cloud of tear gas into the ranks of the East Germans. The Reds, retreating in confusion - and in tears. The West Germans, pulling down - two hundred feet of barbed wire.

SOVIET

Moscow is all lit ~~■~~ up tonight - in preparation for tomorrow's anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution. Meanwhile western Kremlinologists are taking a hard look at - the results of the Communist Party Congress.

Of course, there were - the pyrotechnics. That open clash - between Russia and Red China. The expulsion of Stalin - from the Lenin Mausoleum. The castigation - of the anti-Khrushchev faction. The promise of - a coming Red utopia.

But here's a significant point - that the experts are paying special attention to. The rise to power of new men - in the Soviet Union. Khrushchev, ousting the old Bolsheviks - bringing in younger party leaders. A new phrase - of the Soviet bureaucracy.

The tip-off, an increase in the membership of the Central Committee. Now, a hundred and seventy five - with the majority in their ~~forties~~ forties. Only a handful of the Central Committee - ever saw Lenin. Most of them - never knew Stalin.

SOVIET - 2

But they are acquainted with - the present boss of the Soviet Union. The word is that naturally these new men in the Central Committee - are all in favor of Comrade Khrushchev - hand picked because they are.
The vote in favor of the western proposal - sixty-seven to eleven. One of the eleven Cuba.
And in the organization of American states - Castro's delegate spoke as the mouthpiece of the Kremlin. The issue
- condemnation of Khrushchev's fifty regaton explosion.
The vote - in favor of condemning Khrushchev, unanimously.
That is, unanimously - except for the man from Havana.

ATOMIC

Two votes on the question of atomic testing - show the subservience of Castro's Cuba to Soviet interests.

In the U N, only Cuba sided with the Red bloc - against a treaty banning nuclear tests. The resolution - introduced by Britain and America - backed overwhelmingly in the U N political committee. The vote in favor of the western proposal - sixty-seven to eleven. One of the eleven Cuba.

And in the organization of American states - Castro's delegate spoke as the mouthpiece of the Kremlin. The issue - condemnation of Khrushchev's fifty megaton explosion.

The ^{vote} ~~case~~ in favor of condemning Khrushchev, unanimous~~ly~~.

That is, unanimous~~ly~~ - except for the man from Havana.

NEHRU

The keynote of the talks between Prime Minister Nehru and President Kennedy - "world peace." A broad subject they narrowed down - to the issues that could touch off a major war:- Berlin, southeast Asia, the Congo, atomic testing - and so on.

The two statesmen met - at Quonset Point, Rhode Island. Nehru, flying - from New York. Kennedy, crossing Narragansett Bay - on the Presidential yacht. Following today's meeting - on to Washington - where more formal conferences will be held.

SHIP

Empty lifeboats are bobbing up and down - in the Mediterranean tonight. Witnesses to the tragedy of - the "Clan Keith". The seven-thousand ton freighter - that blew up off Tunis. An explosion, tearing the British vessel apart - after which she was engulfed by fire. The "Clan Keith" - sinking to the bottom within a few minutes.

The disaster, so sudden - there was no chance to launch the lifeboats. Tonight, ~~a massive~~^{an} air and sea ~~search~~^{is on} for survivors - of whom there are likely to be few.

ISLANDERS

If you want to know what it's like to move from the early Nineteenth Century into the Twentieth - listen to a refugee from Tristan Da Cunha. Says Leonard Glass - "I feel ~~xx~~ dazed by the people, and the buildings, and the bustle." The rest of the two hundred and sixty two refugees - echoing ~~the~~ this. sentiment. They've been in London for three days - and ~~they just~~ can't get used to it.

~~After all,~~ an island They've just come from "the land" that time forgot" - ~~in Jules Verne's famous phrase. Tristan de Cunha~~ in the far ~~far down in the~~ South Atlantic. Populated in Eighteen-Fifteen - by soldiers from the garrison guarding Napoleon on Saint Helena. Later, joined by ship wrecked men and women. All, deciding to stay on their island paradise - instead of returning to civilization.

Then, a couple of weeks ago, ~~as you've probably heard~~ in sleeping the volcano erupted. Burying Tristan de Cunha - under molten lava. The people of the island - taken to Cape Town aboard a freighter. Continuing their odyssey - on to England, Where they're now trying to fathom the ways - of a cultured society. Including - traffic, running water, supermarkets, and TV.

No wonder, they say they're dazed. Tristan de Cunha was never like - London.

FIRE

In Sherman Oaks, California, an official said today - "its like the fires caused by bombing during the war."

The reference - to the inferno raging across the hills of Sherman Oaks. Across - a swank ~~xxx~~ residential area.

The blaze, whipped up - by winds of sixty-five miles an hour. The flames, erupting faster - than the firemen can put them out. Like the wartime fire bombings - that couldn't be contained while the raid lasted.

The area between the Los Angeles basin and the San Fernando valley - "a major disaster area" tonight.

CONVICT

The police of San Francisco are wondering - how they ever caught convict Robert Brooks so easily. They found him hiding - in the closet of a friends home.

How Brooks ever got that far - is rather astonishing. He slipped out of his cell at the city prison - and shined up a bar to the top of the cell block. Squeezing through an air vent to the roof - he reached the next building by swinging hand over hand along a pipe, five stories above the ground.

Then - he climbed down, on the outside. A little matter of five stories, - ~~using one inch metal strips every three feet apart.~~ Brooks, Clinging by toes and fingertips - ~~the gradually working his way down~~ Just like ~~the legendary~~ "human fly" technique.

So convict Brooks made one of the most daring escapes - in the history of San Francisco. ^{Dick,} Only to be picked up a few hours later - hiding in a closet. ['] ~~the unlucky~~ human fly.
