

Mon. Nov. 10-75

Columbia, South Carolina

UNITED NATIONS

At the United Nations - in spite of vigorous U.S. objections - a vote today ^{putting} ~~equating~~ ^{right along} Zionism with racism. The world body also demanding full participation by the Palestine Liberation Organization - in all Middle East peace talks; further, creating a twenty nation committee - to work out a plan for ~~a~~ Palestinian self-determination and the return of lost property.

The U.N.
Lanada, Angola.
&
Morristown, N.J.

MOSCOW

Meanwhile, a Russian request for the reconvening of Geneva talks on the Mideast - with full participation by the P.L.O. The Kremlin saying the only way to settle the Mideast dispute is by "joint, collective efforts" of all the parties involved.

and now —

STATE

Secretary of State Kissinger today held his first news conference - since the ~~President's~~ recent cabinet shake-up; ~~along the way, telling all "personal disputes" with ousted Defense Secretary James Schlesinger;~~ ^{ed that} but stressing he does not believe ^{the} Schlesinger's departure - will have any effect on detente ~~with Russia.~~

~~At the same time,~~ ^{And, he} ~~an admission~~ ^{that} that detente may be in trouble anyway, ^{with the} Dr. Kissinger saying Strategic Arms Limitation talks ~~have become~~ stalled - on matters "of considerable significance." Adding: ~~"we do not anticipate a summit or a visit by Mr. Brezhnev without a SALT agreement."~~

SALUTE

President Ford today saluted the U.S. Marines on their two hundredth birthday - by placing a wreath at the Marines' ~~Iwo Jima~~ Memorial. The President ~~saying that the Marine Corps "has become itself - a living monument to bravery and self sacrifice;"~~ also pledging to keep "American strength constant and credible, - ~~at home and on the seas.~~" "My aim" ~~he~~ he continued - "is not to train Americas' youth for war - nor to develop weapons to kill; my aim is to develop the military strength - which is our mightiest hope for peace."

MORRISTOWN

In the ~~so-called~~ "right to life" trial at Morristown, New Jersey - the parents of ~~a~~ comatose Karen Ann Quinlan ^{today} were refused ~~today~~ permission to "pull the plug." Judge Muir saying: "~~there is no~~ constitutional right to die - ~~that can be asserted by a parent~~ ~~for his ~~an~~ incompetent adult child.~~" Adding: "the single most important temporal quality Karen Ann Quinlan has is life - and this court will not authorize that life to be taken from her."

~~SAN FRANCISCO:~~ NEWSPAPER HEIRESS PATRICIA HEARST - ~~AGAIN~~ IN

COURT TODAY IN SAN FRANCISCO; ~~BUT~~ WHEN ASKED HER PLEA TO

BANK ROBBERY CHARGES - REMAINING ^{ed} SILENT. DEFENSE COUNSEL

ALBERT JOHNSON - SAYING ^{she} ~~MISS HEARST~~ IS STILL UNFIT TO PARTICIPATE -

WHEREUPON THE JUDGE HIMSELF - ENTERED ^{ed} A PLEA OF NOT GUILTY.

And now this

SACRAMENTO

At Sacramento - Lynette Fromme was given another chance, ~~today - to take part in her trial for attempted assassination.~~ Judge MacBride asking for a pledge - that she would not further disrupt the proceedings; To this ~~but~~ Miss Fromme refused ~~on~~ - on what she called "a matter of principle." She was then remanded to a holding cell - to watch the rest of the trial on TV.

And now this -

LUANDA

The city of Luanda, capitol of Portuguese Angola, was officially abandoned today by Portuguese forces - as of midnight local time. The Portuguese government refusing, however to transfer authority - to any of Angola's three rival independence groups; in effect telling the Angolans - to fight it out among themselves. High Commissioner Leonel Cardoso saying for Portugal to do anything else - "would mean interference in the sacred rights of Angola to decide its own future."

SPANISH SAHARA

Morocco's giant "peace march" into Spanish Sahara ended today - not with a bang but with a whimper. The great majority of the marchers returning glumly to their home land - as ordered by Morocco's King Hassin. The few who tried to proceed further - quickly turned back by Spanish troops. ~~And~~ ^{IF} now - an attempt to appraise the results of all this.

King Hussin - saying his people have made their point. But Prince Juan Carlos ~~de~~ de Borbon of Spain, who threatened to turn back the marchers by force, if necessary ^{today} is being acclaimed ~~today~~ a hero. And a Moroccan journalist who was in the march ^{is} now saying: "I'm afraid - to the rest of the world - we look like idiots."

3/4
And now far c —