WHITE HOUSE

Coming up in just a few minutes now - another

White House press conference. President Nixon to meet with newsmen - for the second time in nine days. The questioning set to begin - at Seven-Thirty, Eastern-time;

and you can hear it all right here - on many of these CBS

Radio stations.

Earlier today - a pledge of cooperation in the House impeachment inquiry. The President - through his attorney, James St. Clair - agreeing to provide the House Judiciary Committee - with all the materials furnished the Watergate grand jury. Also, agreeing to answer written questions - quit - and "participate in oral interviews," if these are "deemed necessary."

The President's pledge at a special hearing on what to do with the grand jury's "sealed report;" a report supposedly dealing with the President's involvement, if any - in the Watergate cover-up. St. Clair adding that whatever is decided with regard to that report - the White House will consider it "quite appropriate."

Meanwhile, the President vetoing, as promised and will do,
that Emergency Energy Bill, Sending it back to Congress on the grounds that it "solves none of the problems, threatens to undo the progress we have already made, and creates a host of new problems." The President again urging passage of his own energy proposals - including an excess profits tax.

And now the tates. The Senate today sustaining the President's veto. - and once again it's back to the drawing board.

pay increase - for members of Congress, high government officials and members of the judiciary. The motion to disapprace - carrying by a vote of sixty-nine to twenty-eight.

Of those expected to run for re-election this year - only two voting against killing the pay increase: Senator Javits of New York - and Senator Mathias of Maryland.

Capital Hill again - Henry Kissinger was the outlook for a possible lifting of the Arab oil embargo. Dr. Kissinger saying that much "depends on what happens" - at a conference of Arab leaders, Sunday in Tripoli.

Dr. Kissinger also telling newsmen that the U.S.

"will make a major effort - to bring about a separation of forces between Syrian and Israel." Adding that talks aimed at this end - are expected to start "within two weeks."

In the kidnapping of Patricia Hearst - a public appeal today for any information that might bear on the case. FBI Agent-in-Charge Charles Bates - saying "we'd rather have people call us than hold back." Adding no matter how unimportant any information might seem - "let us judge it."

A U.S. plane returned today to Utapoa Air Base in with the livelic.

Thailand - bearing the remains of American servicemen who died in North Vietnam. The names withheld 4 pending positive identification and notification of next of kin. A U.S. official expressing hope, however, that this will eventually lead to a full accounting - of all GI's still missing in action.

Addis Ababa - another challenge to the authority of Emperor Haile Salassie. Ethiopia's largest labor federation refusing to accept a new contract offered by the government; and going ahead with a general strike originally set for tomorrow.

The union demanding a Two Hundred per cent wage increase - free education for poor children, freedom of the press - and fringe benefits also vowing to stay out - till all their demands are met.

At Birmingham, Alabama; the annual King Cotton luncheon - to honor the producer of the state's best cotton crop. The winner - Mrs. Bettie Pride, age one hundred, daughter of a former slave.

Mrs. Pride said, alas - someone had already stolen her Five Hundred-Dollar prize. Whereupon Governor Wallace of Alabama, who attended the luncheon - took out his own wallet and put up a hundred to start a fund to make up the loss.

At Murray, Idaho - population, one hundred - a sudden attack of gold fever. Miners sinking two shafts - in the middle of the Murray business district, within a hundred feet - of Murray's "Gold-Mine-in-a-Bedroom;" that for its location - in the back room of a local store.

The "Gold Mine-in-a-Bedroom" - recently yielding a single nugget valued at Three Thousand Bucks. Hence - the new shafts. Town officials adding that prospectors are pouring in - much as they did in the Idaho gold rush of the Eighteen-Eighties. The only difference, Bill now they arrive by jeep and truck instead of with horses, donkeys and dog sleds.

From Gorleston, England - the story of an enterprising young lad named Leonard Hills. At age thirteen - starting up a newspaper route. Making three deliveries a day - by Bicycle. Covering to date more than four hundred thousand miles. But now he's moving on. Leonard at age sixty-five says it's time to quit being a newsboy - and become instead a senior citizen.
