

CONGO

L.T.-Odds. Tues, Nov, 22nd. 60,

The government of the Congo has finally got ^{ten} rid of - the Ambassador from Ghana. The Congolese army, fighting that battle last night - forcing the Ghana diplomat and his colleagues to come out of the Embassy, whereupon, they were placed aboard a plane for Accra.

- that's his name -

Dapper National Welbeck _^ - still in the debonair pose he affected, Meticulously groomed - with a black astrakan hat, swagger stick, and spats. He carried a tartan suitcase
- and left smiling and waving. Also- still defying Mobutu.
Welbeck, pretending he wasn't expelled.- Just called home to Ghana for a report. He told newsmen solemnly - "my government has asked me to leave."

To which a Leopoldville official retorted - "just don't come back." Welbeck flew out - on a Russian plane. Just before it took off, a group of Congolese gathered at the cockpit - jeering the Soviet crew, who stared back unsimilingly - and seemed ~~sixsixsix~~ glad when the takeoff signal was given.

What about last night's battle? The Congolese claim that the U.N. guards from Tunisia -- fired first. Touching off the fight at the Ghana Embassy.

PARIS

Today's meeting between Lyndon Johnson and Charles DeGaulle -- is described as 'very cordial'. The Vice President elect of the United States - conferring for an hour with the President of France. Afterward, Johnson said he was grateful - for the chance to meet a great leader of the free world. DeGaulle termed the meeting with Johnson - "memorable."

The day was "memorable" for DeGaulle - for two other reasons. This was his seventieth birthday. And he won a vote of confidence - in the Paris National Assembly. The issue - a separate nuclear striking force under French control. The deputies voting for DeGaulle, on that.

DOLLAR

Our government has decided not to curb tourist spending - in an effort to strengthen the dollar. A ceiling on spending abroad - could stop a big leak in the flow of gold out of this country. Last year the figure was -- almost one and a half billion. Some Washington officials thought we should lower that figure - by setting a limit on individual spending.

But to interfere in this way - would be contrary to our free trade policies. We would be doing - what we have asked our allies not to do. And we would weaken the economics -- of friendly nations.

So if ~~you~~ you^are thinking of traveling - you can still take with you all the dollars you can accumulate.

PATROL

Washington announces that our patrol of the Caribbean off Central America - will be continued indefinitely. The State Department, making this reply to rumors - that we might pull ~~out~~ ^{the} flotilla back - in a few days. Instead of doing that - we ^are adding another ship. The aircraft carrier "Wasp" sailed from Boston - to take part in the operation. She'll relieve the carrier "Shangri-La" which is already in the Caribbean. The "Wasp" carries bombers, search planes, helicopters - and a complete radar warning system. She's ready for action - in case Castro should attempt to send an invasion ~~■~~ force from Cuba to Central America.

SCIENCE

The new center for atmospheric research will be located - on Table Mountain, Colorado. So announced by ~~our~~ ^{the} National Science Foundation.

The head of this meteorological laboratory - Doctor Walter Robberts, of the observatory at Boulder. Dr. Roberts is starting out with two million dollars for his first fiscal year, ~~will use~~ ^{using} the money to set up buildings - and ~~to gather~~ ^{assemble} a staff. The hope is that this ~~our~~ atmospheric research center - will be a going concern by this time next year. Scientists ~~near~~ everywhere are waiting to see its first reports - concerning weather patterns, earth magnetism, the effect of ~~in~~ cosmic rays, and so on. ^{The} Ultimate aim ~~out there~~ at ~~in~~ Table Mountain, Colorado ^{will be to get} data that will lead to man's control of the weather around ~~our~~ ^{the} planet.

NEW ORLEANS

For the first time in the History of Louisiana - the State is unable to pay its teachers. Superintendent James Redmond today asked his teachers to stay on for a while, and admitting he has no idea when he'll be able to pay their salaries. At any rate not tomorrow, when the two million dollar payroll falls due.

And that's not the end - of this financial crisis. The New Orleans school board has other expenses - such as books, buses, milk, labor - and so on. Superintendent Redmond also unable to meet these bills.

The banks unwilling to make the usual loans because they don't know who is in control of the New Orleans schools. The Superintendent says that the only hope now - is Governor Davis, who could release enough State funds - but has already declared repeatedly that he won't lift a finger to help integrated schools. He's ignoring an appeal from the

The University of California isn't going to lose superintendent, who begs the Governor - as he puts it:- biologist - after all, Senator, a good -
"to rise above the noisy emotions of the Louisiana once picked the House committee on Un-American Activities.
legislature."

The Immigration Service, calling this - a violation of the conditions of entry. Asking - to deport him.

The University says Dr. Johnston's departure on the ground that this is a free country. Adding - The loss of this brilliant biologist would be a blow to the university. The Immigration Service, finally convinced - saying it's okay with them for biologist John Johnston to stay in) - at New Orleans.

BIOLOGIST

The University of California isn't going to lose biologist John Johnston - after all. Johnston, a Scot - once picketed the house committee on Unamerican Activities. The Immigration Service, calling this - a violation of the conditions of entry. Acting - to deport him.

The University came to Johnston's defense - on the ground that this is a free country. Adding - the loss of this brilliant biologist would be a blow to the university. The Immigration Service, finally convinced - saying it's okay with them for biologist John Johnston to stay on - at Berkeley.

MINER

In Timmins, Ontario, a miner said today - "I prayed, how I prayed!" ~~It's not hard to see why.~~ Alan Rose was trapped in a ~~xi~~ gold mine - for three days. A sudden cave in toppled tons of ~~xxx~~ debris on him - seventeen hundred feet below the surface. He was lucky - because he wasn't crushed - unlucky - because he was pinned down, and had no idea whether anyone would ever ~~xxxxxx~~ ~~be~~ be able to reach him in time.

~~Upon the surface,~~ His mates began to drill through ~~ten feet of rock~~ on Saturday, ^{and finally,} ~~They cleared away - a~~ ~~hundred feet of earth, stones, and timber.~~ They reached Alan Rose today - then slowly and carefully, ^{they} lifted the debris holding him down. Their efforts -- successful.

The miner's prayer^s - answered. Tonight he's in the hospital - with minor injuries - after being buried for three days ^{- Dick -} at the bottom of a gold mine.

Up in Groton, Connecticut, there was a naval engagement in the Thames River - just before the Navy launched our newest Polaris submarine. The "Ethan Allen" was all set for the ceremony. Her missile tubes -- glistening in the sunlight.

Suddenly, an enemy flotilla - came sailing up to the attack. A skiff, a canoe, and four rowboats. Manned by - a militant group of Pacifists. The ones who have been trying to prevent our atomic subs - from going to sea. Their object today - to put a boarding party on the "Ethan Allan".

But Lieutenant Commander Leland Wilkie - was equal to the occasion. He promptly ordered his own forces to counter-attack. Six coast-guard boats cut off -- the Pacifist armada. Throwing towlines -- over them. Hauling the entire flotilla into shore - one skiff, one canoe, and four rowboats.