TO OUR BACHELORS

We've Seniors four (and not one more)
Yet no one yields to sadness.
And if you knew our Seniors four,
You'd also feel our gladness.

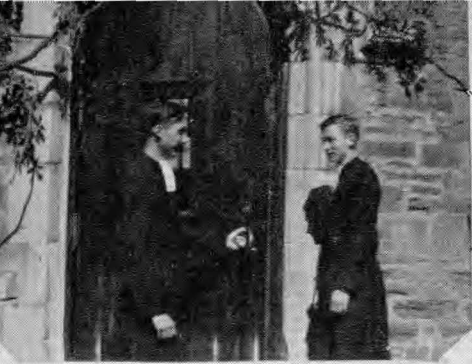

They're pillars four (real, solid stuff)
Who've braced up Marian's frame.
And be the going smooth or tough,
We'll try to do the same.

They're voices four (a perfect chord)
Who've sung a Marist song;
And we who've heard their sweet accord
Will pass the tune along.

They're horsemen four (on Marian's squad)
Who've always fought and won.
Yet only we and they and God
Will know the work they've done.

We've Seniors four (but we are more)
Who fill their boots again;
And if we're like our Seniors four,
They'll not have worked in vain.

DRAMATICS

Shakespeare has said in "As You Like It" that "All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players." The seniors have taken this to heart, for from their group have come several top-notch performances which were the topic of conversation for several days after each presentation. They have given us everything from the hilarious to the sublime.

They entertained the property with the comedy "Fiancee for Fanny" and the mysterious "Doctor Faustus" on the same night. That year when "Career Angel" was storming the country, the Greystone Dramatic Club gave us a very creditable performance of the same.

The thespians of Greystone made Lady Gregory's idol in "A Night at an Inn," come to life on a black Halloween evening.

The seniors showed that they could also write a play and so from their pens came the appreciated "In Which We Serve," that tribute to Marist life more familiarly known as the "Pageant."

Indeed, the fourth year men can leave Marian with the knowledge that they made the bungalow glow with the fine performances which they presented.

MUSIC AND SONG

Perhaps on some rainy day or on some Saturday morning we will take this yearbook from our bookshelf, dust off the edges, then open it to this page and, reading it, recall the great share music and singing had in making our three years at Marian three happy ones. It will bring back to us many pleasant memories. . . . memories of those enjoyable St. Cecilia's Day musicals. . . . memories of all the High Masses we sang, especially on Christmas eve in our little chapel and on Christmas morn at the State Hospital. . . . memories of the songs, serious and comical, that Brother Adrian taught us for occasions like Brother Master's feastday, Brother Ralph's farewell, Brother Director's feastday, Brother Anicetus' testimonial. . . . memories of songs like: The Lost Chord, Old Man Noah, Duna, Down on Jasper's Farm, The German Band, Carmen of Ybor, The Bells, The Train Song (Hoo, Hoo, Hoo-hoo), Dry Bones (our unfinished symphony). . . . memories of the songs we used to sing at the end of our picnic days at Taconic and our Salve facing Mt. St. Alphonsus. . . . memories of Brother Adrian's devotedness and interest in making us music-minded, of his quick wit and his patience. . . . memories of the records we made of our "harmony gems." Yes, truly, many years from now, all these memories and more will make us feel right back at Marian, singing those long cherished songs again.

CHIPS

He, who, in years to come, will forget "Chips"... let him turn to read this page, to bring back happy thoughts of his alma mater.

Yes, we'll remember that melodious word as long as we can remember. "Chips" is not only a title, a symbol, a name. It has become Marian's password... and that within a few short months. It is a graphic picture of Marian's spirit—a spirit of "together" and of constant "chipping in."

No doubt, "Chips" will ring in our ears for a long time to come. It will spur us on when the "Little Things" of life become boring. It will remind us of our years—happy years—at a budding College called Marian.

"Chips," as we remember, was born of an anonymous author who jotted down his thoughts on a "pile of shavings." It was so simple, so sudden. Perhaps that is why we have taken to the analogy so wholeheartedly. When it came time to name the literary, we knew that nothing would fit our little magazine better than "Chips." Indeed, what could better describe that ensemble of essays from inexperienced pens? Yes, each article may be nothing but a literary chip, but the sum makes up an impressive work—something to be proud of.

From its first two issues, it seems that our College magazine has a promising future. Though we will have nothing further to do with Chips, we are proud to have helped make it a reality. May each succeeding issue be a chip off the good old Marian block!!

GREYSTONE GAZETTE

During the past year, the Greystone Gazette has appeared regularly on the bulletin board. We discussed its articles, commented on its drawings, and offered suggestions for its improvement. Although this is the third year of publication, yet these three years, and especially the first, were unsteady ones. After a few faltering steps, and after overcoming various obstacles, the Gazette, the voice and spirit of Greystone, became more firmly established as a part of the Scholasticate. But let us listen to what the Gazette has to say for itself...

"I saw my first beam of sunlight on a Sunday morn, in September, 1944. Under the skillful hands of Brother James Thomas and Brother Bernard Frederick, I received my brief existence on the recreation hall blackboard. But alas! How soon was I forgotten! As the shadows of evening traced their long fingers across the floor, I was unceremoniously erased and I slipped back into the abyss of nothingness. At least I had one consolation: the Scholastics noticed me and reviewed me each Sunday. This 'on and off' existence began to get on my nerves. I felt it couldn't last long.

On December 17, 1944, the Scholastics were surprised to see me under different conditions, I had graduated from a 'chalk Gazette' to a two-page typewritten weekly. Tacked on the post just below the thermometer, I was the proudest Gazette you ever did see. And I had two pages! Now I was really something. My 'on and off' blackboard days were gone forever.

Sorrow filled my paper heart in January, 1945, when Brother James Thomas was called to labor in another field. The grief of such a separation was written all over my face: GAZETTE LOSES EDITOR! However, time soon effaced my sorrow and, under the masterful hand of Brother Bernard Frederick, my spirit was revived. The dominating tone was religious; the articles on the Blessed Virgin seemed to top them all. At the beginning of each week, a crowd of eager, interested Scholastics gathered around to see what I had to show them. During the week, an occasional reader would pause in order to peruse an article or two. Now and then I would have a few extra pages, besides a few more drawings. The articles were quite interesting, especially those serial stories. The House by the Side of the Road was really interesting; the Scholastics didn't know who 'Starooch' was, but I did. By the end of that year, I was beginning to grow in popularity.

Around the first week of September, 1945, Brother Bernard received an assistant in the person of Brother Robert Baptist. During this year, my bulk and content increased, as well as the drawings. By now, I was a permanent item in Greystone. In fact, I was even sent to the various establishments at certain times, bearing the words 'SPECIAL ISSUE.' A few times I almost missed my regular appearance on Sundays, due to the 'elastic deadline.' Now and then, especially around test week, I was discontinued for two weeks. However, I enjoyed a rather leisurely existence during the year 1945-1946, though I was a bit fearful that my popularity was diminishing; but the editors fixed me up a bit. Around February, they had a discussion with my readers; as a result, they dropped a few articles. I hated to see Petals leave; I rejoiced to learn that One of Ours would remain. At the end of June, publication ceased, but there was talk of building me up in the Fall.

In September, 1946, Bro. Peter Maurice increased the editorial staff to three. I was really a 'classy' weekly now. Around the middle of January, there was a shift in the editorial staff. Brother Frederick retired, and Brother Jogues Mary joined the staff. Golly, I hated to see Brother Frederick leave! He cared for me so well when the going was tough. However, my popularity was still high, and my 'SPECIAL ISSUES' that year were six in number. At times, I was bulging with sports, but there was always a good stock of jokes. This last year has been a very successful one for me. The editors really improved my appearance and I needed it in spots. I prided myself on the QUEEN'S PAGE; it invigorated my paper soul.

As I look back over my short existence of three years, I am glad to know that I have been the cause of happiness and good family spirit at Greystone. Perhaps I may be a bit of a braggadocio; after all, it was the Scholastics who wrote the articles and dressed me up. Anyway, I'm proud to be a part of such a community.

And now, that another successful year is completed, I'm looking forward to many more prosperous and interesting years here at Marian."

...So are we; may there be many more.

SPORTS

Marian's gridgers got off to an early start on September 15. This year's schedule included nine games for each of our intramural teams. Michigan, led by one of our seniors, B. B. Frederick, took top honors with a record of six wins and three losses. Pennsylvania, led by the indomitable B. Aloysius, placed second along with B. John Bosco's Crusaders who, after a losing start, finally found a winning combination to tie them with the Pennsylvanians. Down in the cellar B. Christopher's Notre Dame tried just about everything in the books to get on the road to victory. To end a great season, our "All-Stars" played it out on November 15 in honor of B. Director. B. Frederick's Bernardians were defeated by B. John's Bosconians to a tune of 19 to 7. B. Felix Michael was chosen as the out-standing performer of the afternoon. On November 1, our J.V. took on the Novitiate Junior Varsity in a game that see-sawed back and forth to finish a 0-0 score to the very end of the contest. Marian's best run of the afternoon came when B. Robert Baptist intercepted a pass for a seventy yard run. The annual Thanksgiving Day classic saw Marian's first-stringers defeat the Novitiate squad to a tune of 37 to 12. B. John Bosco's fine passing and the line's good defensive play brought a well-earned victory to the "Blue and Gold."

BASKETBALL — 1946-1947:—

Intramurals:

As soon as the pigskin had been put away the basketball debut was set for December 1. That day, Manhattan was pitted against St. Peter, while Fordham challenged St. Francis. This year there were six teams competing. Each team engaged in a ten-game schedule, which was packed with thrills and excitement from beginning to end. Laurels went to the "Kelly Greens" of Manhattan, led by B. Denis. They finished the season with a record of eight victories and two defeats. Their great defensive man was our veteran of many seasons, B. Arthur Xavier. B. Andrew's Fordham and B. Felix's St. Peter, ended in a dead-lock for second place. Both teams fought hard all season. In third place was another tie, Seton Hall and St. John. B. Clement led his Seton Hall men to four victories, but St. John's "Redmen," piloted by B. Jeorme cleverly matched that record. B. Patrick Eugene's St. Francis managed to win two games out of their scheduled ten. B. Andrew took the scoring honor with 156 points. B. Aloysius followed with 142, and B. Denis with 135. Scoring and timing were handled by B. Donald, B. Adolph, B. Damian and B. Michael Urban.

Varsity:

Marian's Varsity completed another season of play with a perfect record. This year they played 1,000 ball, winning their six engagements. The Provincial All-Stars were first swamped 71 to 13. Playing at Marist Prep, we set back Mt. St. Michael's, 37 to 23; and St. Ann's 57 to 34. Our traditional rival, the Novitiate, lost by a score of 44 to 21. Traveling to Esopus, we defeated a determined Marist Prep quintet, 39 to 25. Our only night game and the finale in our old gym saw Marian defeat B. Patrick Alban's five by a 36 to 23 score. The first team comprised BB. Aloysius and Patrick as forwards, B. Andrew in the pivot, and BB. Denis and Frederick as guards. BB. John Bosco, Jerome and Felix Michael were used quite freely to relieve the first stringers, while BB. Christopher, Clement and Jerome were used to supplement the team as needed.

BASEBALL-1947:—

This year, BB. Denis, Clement and Francis Jerome were added to our veteran baseball squad. The team so far has displayed good fielding and fair batting technique. They look forward to a summer of keen competition with the final victory on July 26. Our pitching staff includes: southpaw B. John Bosco, and three right-handers: BB. Andrew, Adolph and Patrick Eugene. Behind the plate we find BB. Denis and Adolph. On the infield we find B. Patrick at the initial sack, B. Bernard Frederick holding down second base, B. Felix at third base, with B. Aloysius completing the picture at shortstop. Patrolling the picket line are BB. Kieran, Andrew, and Christopher. BB. Jerome, Clement and Thomas Aquinas stand ready to give needed assistance to the team in any emergency.

SOFTBALL - 1947:—

Completing our summer sports picture, we have a twilight softball league which will undoubtedly prove to be as competitive as it was in the past years. The few games played so far are a good indication of the success which the league will enjoy in the future.
