SAN FRANCISCO

For the two fugitive companions of newspaper heiress Patricia Hearst - the end of the line today. William and Emily Harris of the so-called Symbionese Liberation Army - arrested by FBI agents while walking together in downtown San Francisco. The Harrises and Miss Hearst - last seen together more than a year ago; and thought to have been in hiding together since then. But, maybe not. At any rate, the FBI saying Miss Hearst was not arrested with the Harrises and her whereabouts are still a mystery.

CAPITOL HILL

On Capitol Hill--the House Intelligence Committee was hearing today--from a former CIA analyst. Samuel Adams saying high U.S. officials--deliberately underestimated the number of Vietcong troops in South Vietnam in the mid-sixties; attempting to convince the American people--the war in Vietnam was being won.

Said Adams, ~~adding, however;~~ "we succeeded best in fooling ourselves;" and thus were caught totally unprepared-- by the <sup>(NINETEEN)</sup> ~~nineteen~~ sixty-eight Tet offensive.

SENATE FOLLOW CAPITOL HILL

On the Senate <sup>has</sup> ~~side~~ a vote <sup>d</sup> ~~today~~ to reject a scheduled pay increase of more than eight per cent--for federal workers this year. The Senate agreeing to accept <sup>the</sup> ~~instead~~-- a five per cent increase, ~~as~~ urged by the President. Along the way, Senator Weicker of Connecticut saying: "Congress doesn't deserve a pay raisex"--its members "haven't earned it."

BEIRUT

All night fighting in Beirut <sup>was</sup> ~~was finally~~ ended this morning -- ~~by~~
later ~~though~~ they were back at <sup>it at a cost of</sup> ~~each others throats~~. The ~~fighting said to have claimed~~ <sup>more</sup> more than thirty lives, ~~no~~ ~~end in sight~~, and ~~the~~ Lebanese government -- still refusing to intervene.

PRESIDENT

The House was the target of blast<sup>A</sup> today from President Ford--for voting yesterday to restore domestic oil price controls. The President calling the House action--"completely contrary" to his own efforts to develop U.S. energy independence.

NEW DELHI FOLLOW PRESIDENT

In India
~~On the other side of the globe~~--at New Delhi--~~CH 7~~

President ~~himself~~ was taken to task ~~today~~ by the Indians government; for saying last week <sup>that</sup> "it is really very sad"-- ~~that~~ India has abandoned ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> "democratic processes."

An Indian spokesman saying "it is amazing that the President has chosen to comment on the internal affairs of a friendly country--without due appreciation of the issues involved." Adding that India could just as well criticize internal U.S. affairs--but chose<sup>s</sup> instead to observe, quote--"the accepted norms and courtesies of international relations."

MADRID

Five Spanish guerillas were sentenced to death today in Madrid--for taking part in the shotgun slaying of a Spanish policeman. The condemned including two women--but both said to be pregnant, which means they cannot be executed under Spanish law.

Incidentally, the sister of Generalissimo Franco saying today--he plans to retire soon; <sup>perhaps</sup> ~~and~~ October ~~the~~ twelfth, <sup>which</sup> ~~could be the day. October twelfth~~ in Spain--<sup>is</sup> a double holiday; dedicated to Christopher Columbus--and the Spanish patron saint, Saint Pilar.

GUANTANAMO

Hurricane Eloise, <sup>expanded</sup> ~~which killed more than thirty in~~ ~~Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic,~~ was venting some more of its wrath today--on ~~the~~ Eastern Cuba. The center of the hurricane passing within a few miles--of ~~the~~ <sup>our</sup> big U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay. ~~But its~~ <sup>winds</sup> ~~quickly~~
<sup>However it is now</sup>
~~dropping to fifty miles an hour--it was reclassified~~
~~merely a tropical storm, and, with luck, we may have~~ ~~seen the last of Eloise. Hopefully so.~~

WHITE HOUSE

The White House again--President Ford today presented National Medals of Science--to thirteen of the nation's top scientists. The group including two-time nobel prize winner--and veteran peace activist--Linus Pauling; who ~~was~~ twice refused the same honor--during the Nixon years.

~~Doctor~~ Pauling, who is seventy four, <sup>had said</sup> ~~earlier saying:~~

"I don't know whether the government has ~~x~~ deteriorated-- or I have."
