MARIST COLLEGE

Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

Volume XV

I am caught now and then in a breeze of notions Scattered images and reflexions
... distillate of dreams
A flowing multiplicity
... merging into one

An idea grown strong leading to the verge of motion Where action alone does fulfill and our release is claimed Yet in release
 there are ever new beginnings Cast on the stage of still deeper dreams

I stand silently Weighing what has been Against what might become.

Judging the tide which has carried me so far ...
And anticipating the wind with sails full set that it may carry me beyond ...

... will the light which lent my dreams colour depth ... and meaning Shine just as surely into the darkness before me now?

Wheels
grinding out age old patterns Just one turn more and I'm freed.

I ride along leaving thoughts of other roads behind doing all I can to meet the needs of this tortuous way

Further along
I must not fail!
This ride might end or leave me behind wherefrom I cannot return

Stand high looking down on mirror like water
From this point I come to know the urge to seek cooling depths ...

... yet when the heights called unto me I knew only
I would climb

Low clouds hanging dark shadows on the land Only high places now share the sky

Each further hold, each new and involving challenge Grasped safely with sureness and skill learned of a steep and uncertain way Each painful step mounting towards this splendid view

Marist College has witnessed many accomplishments in its history. Yet, as any institution can witness its own accomplishments, those of Marist are different. They are different in the sense of Marist's own uniqueness, and the uniqueness of Marist is in its people. Every accomplishment of Marist has been personally successful.

In our four years at Marist College, the Class of 1975 has seen and been a part of all that has happened at Marist. We have seen the accomplishments of professors who have come and gone within the past four years, as well as those who are still with us. We have seen the attainments of the Classes before us in the Marist Community, and realize that those after us will fulfill goals in making our College a more viable educational experience.

As we look at the achievements of Marist College, we see the personal achievements of a solitary figure who has been among us for the last fifty years. The growth and accomplishments of Marist College have all been seen through the eyes of this one man.

To this individual, the Class of 1975 and the Staff of the 1975 Reynard would like to dedicate their yearbook. We have known him as the printer for many years—Brother Tarcisius, F.M.S.

For the last thirty eight years, Brother Tarcisius has been running the Marist College Press. He arrived in Poughkeepsie fifty years ago as a novice at St. Ann's Hermitage on March 1, 1925. In July of that same year Brother received the Holy Habit. In August of 1927, Brother was named assistant chief at the Provincial House. This building which is no longer standing, was located to the north of the swimming pool. During this time Brother was also assigned the duty of printing the Bulletin of Studies for the United States Province. Other duties included were farming on the property, as well as caring for the sick.

In 1938, Brother Provincial asked Brother Tarcisius if he would be willing to start a print shop. Brother accepted, and with equipment purchased in town, the first print shop was started in the basement of St. Peter's. In 1948, the Gymnasium was built and the print shop was moved to the north wing of this building. To this day, Brother is operating the print shop there. Now, after thirty seven years of printing, Brother Tarcisius has announced that the print shop will close and he will retire in June 1975. Marist College has been Brother's first and only assignment.

This man has seen Marist College grow from a training school for the Marist Brothers, to the present co-educational private college that Marist now is. In his own quiet way he has helped Marist College through its formative years. His dedication to the spirit and the ideals of Marist are unmatched by all.

To Brother Tarcisius, whom we thank for his many years of personal accomplishments at Marist College, we wish many more!

TO THAT FALL AFTERNOON ON HANNACROIX CREEK, GREENE COUNTY, N. Y.

It was warm that fall afternoon and as we jumped from rock to rock our bodies flashed across that cool, precious water but we only remembered golden autumn leaves floating by while fruit rotted in the tepid sun.

University Year for Action

University Year for Action got off to a good start this year, with 29 Marist and visiting students working in the community of Poughkeepsie under the direction of Dr. Michelson. Three groups of students started work in June of 1974 in areas such as Juvenile Delinquency, the Poughkeepsie School System, and Economic Development. Students work through various existing city agencies, as they try to bring about changes in some of the problem areas of Poughkeepsie. About one-third of the students work in the Poughkeepsie School System, in the classrooms. Other students work with Juvenile problems through Police Community Relations, Poughkeepsie Police Department, and the Dutchess County Youth Board. Students concerned with economic development, work through Dutchess County Manpower Programs, the Poughkeepsie Downtown Council, and the City of Poughkeepsie.

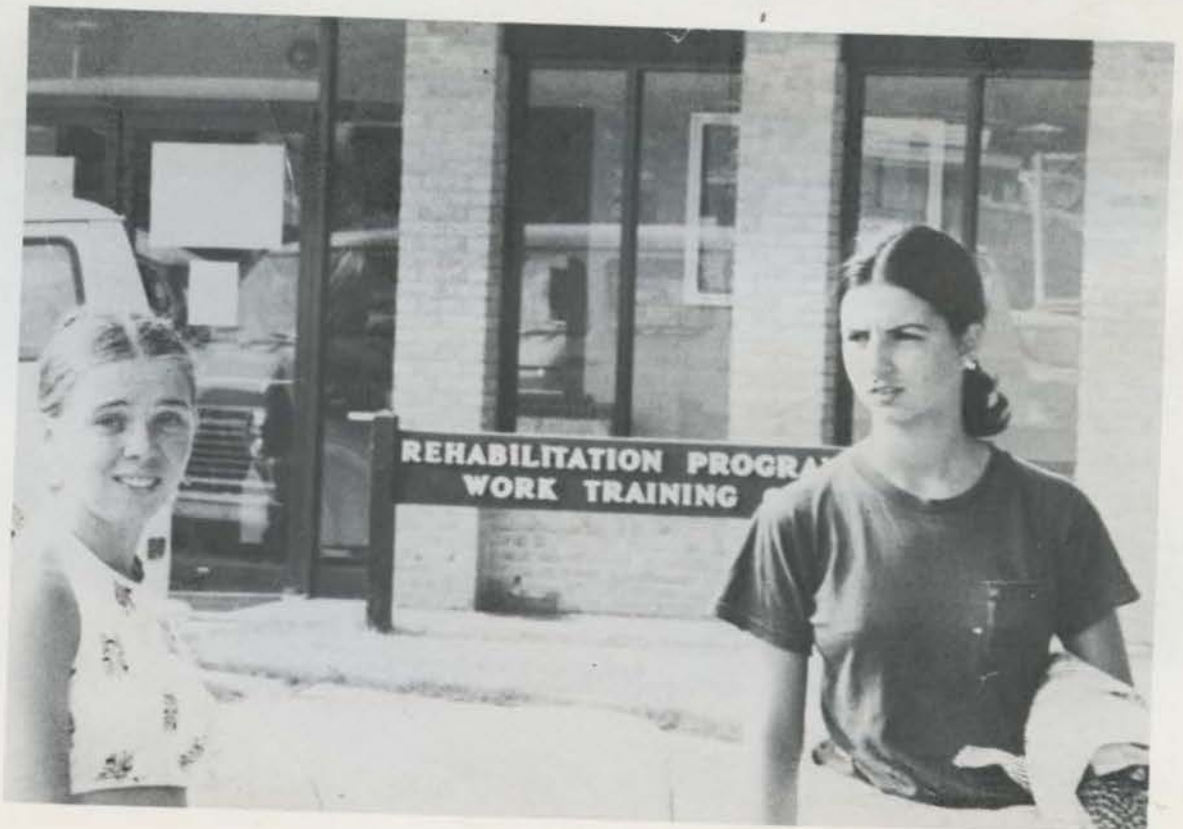

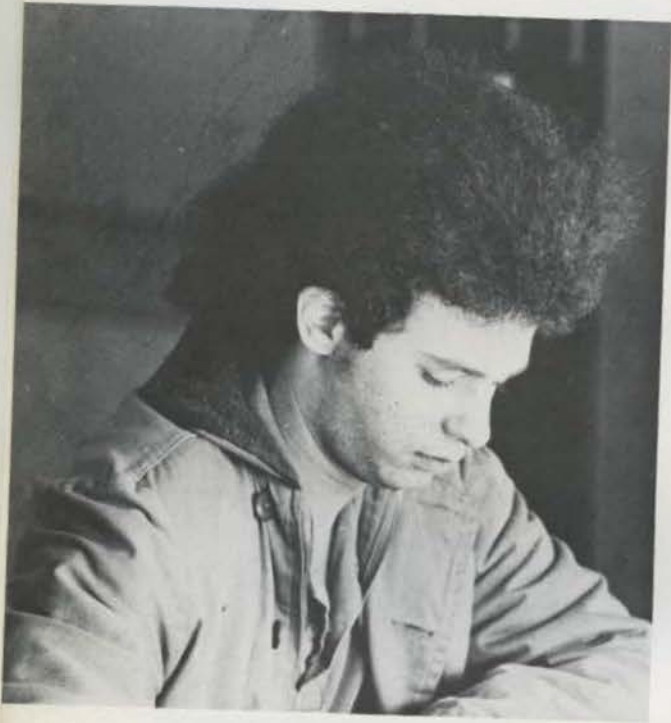

U.Y.A. students live off-campus, by rule of the program, and take two courses per semester at Marist. The students are all Action volunteers and receive a living stipend from Action. Students work full time in the area or areas of their choice, and learn how to initiate and run programs in the city, for the citizens, working through schools, city agencies, and other organizations.

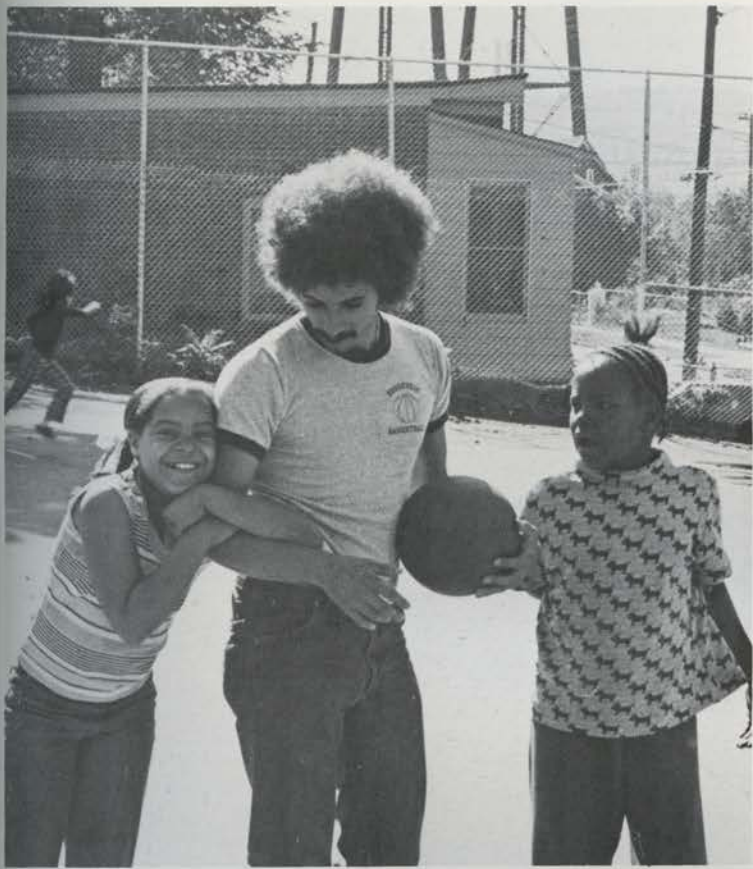

The "base of operations" for U.Y.A. is the Poughkeepsie College Center, on Vassar Street in Poughkeepsie.

Maloney's Baloney

An Editorial

As the completion of the 1975 REYNARD comes to hand, I feel it is time to reflect back on the year; and to what has been accomplished.

I had a good staff to work with; they came up with ideas, and did their jobs well. I thank them for their time and energy in coming through at the right times.

The yearbook at Marist is a continuity of a tradition that has begun over fifteen years ago, however, each year is a different story and the REYNARD has evolved with the school and with each and every graduating class. To attempt to tell the story of the school year, many inputs are necessary. If for any reason, you, the reader, feel that this yearbook is incomplete in any way, it is your obligation to contact the yearbook staff and make your input on next year's book.

From the staff of the REYNARD and myself, we send best wishes to the class of 1975, and success in all your endeavors.

Buns up!

Mike Maloney, Editor,

With all the powers of your body concentrated in the hand on the tiller, All the powers of your mind concentrated on the goal beyond the horizon, You laugh as the salt spray catches your face in the second of rest Before a new wave—Sharing the happy freedom of the moment with those who share your responsibility.
So—in the self-forgetfulness of concentrated attention—the door opens for you into a pure living intimacy,
A shared, timeless happiness,
Conveyed by a smile,
A wave of the hand.

—Dag Hammarskjöld

IN MEMORY OF SHELLEY SPERLING

1957-1975

"Seeing the sins of men, one sometimes wonders whether one should react to them by force or by humble love. Always decide to fight them by humble love. If it is carried through, the world can be conquered. Humble love is the most effective force, the most terrific, the most powerful, unequalled by any other force in the world."

(Fyodor Dostoevski)

For a Dancer

Keep a fire burning in your eyes.
Pay attention to the open skies.
You never know what will be coming down.
I don't remember losing track of you
You were always dancing in and out of view;
I must have thought you'd always be around, Always keeping things real by never wearing a frown now you're nowhere to be found.
I don't know what happens when people die, Can't seem to grasp it as hard as I try,
It's like a song playing right in my ear
But I can't sing, I can't help listening;
And I can't help feeling stupid standing around.
Crying is the easier down—cause I know you'd rather we were dancing Dancing our sorrows away.
Right on dancing?
No matter what fate is choosing you to play (there's nothing you can do about it anyway)

Just do steps that you've been shown By everyone you've ever known Until the dance becomes your very own No matter how close to yours another's steps have grown In the end there's one dance that you'll do alone.
Keep a fire for the human race,
Let your fingers go drifting into space,
You'll never know what will be coming down.
Perhaps a better world is drawing near,
Just as easily it could all disappear.
Along with whatever meaning you might have found.
Don't let uncertainty turn you around (the world keeps turning you around and around) Go make a joyful sound?
Into a dancer you have grown From a seed that somebody else has thrown—go on ahead and throw some seeds of your own And somewhere between the time you arrive and the time you go May lie a reason you were alive
But you'll never know.
