

L1 - Selco. Mon, Apr, 27 - 59,

A British plan - for a settlement with Soviet Russia.

Announced - in the British House of Commons, today. Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd stating - the British proposals would be placed before the Western Foreign Ministers in Paris this week, in the hope that they'll okay it - for presentation at the East-West conference of the Foreign Ministers, next month.

A "package" plan - combining a series of suggestions.

One - a limitation of armed forces in central Europe. With inspection - as a safeguard.

Selwyn Lloyd said - this does not mean "disengagement."

A word that's being used - in proposals for a zone of disarmament in central Europe. Selwyn Lloyd saying - that such "disengagement" would leave a "vacuum" between the Soviets and the West. His notion being - merely a reduction of armament in that area.

Another point in the British "package" plan - a postponement of elections for all Germany. Those free elections - on which the West has been insisting.

Britain proposes concessions to the Russians. But Selwyn Lloyd insisted in Parliament - that there could be no weakening in the protection of the freedom of West Berlin.

RED CHINA

Red China - has a new head of government, Chosen, today, by the puppet Parliament - to succeed Mao Tse-tung. He's Liu Shao-Chi -- described as a grim Communist fanatic, trained in Moscow. His election as President - having little significance, in so far as the policies of the Chinese Reds are concerned. Mao Tse-tung -- still remaining the boss, Keeping - the all-important post of Chairman of the Communist Party.

No wild surprise in this - but there's certainly one thing that will astonish you. The Red Parliament - electing Vice-Chairmen of a <sup>government</sup> ~~governing~~ committee. Various dignitaries - given that high rank. One of them - the Dalai Lama of Tibet. That exiled ruler - named a Vice-Chairman in the Red regime.

Of course, the Dalai Lama is in India - bitterly denouncing the Communist oppression of his country. Which, however - seems to make no difference. The Reds - pretending all along, <sup>that</sup> the Dalai Lama was abducted. His ~~anti-Communist~~ ~~proclamation - extorted:~~ So they're keeping up the ridiculous fiction - and there's a surmise that they have hopes of persuading the Dalai Lama to come back, and give in.

Today, the <sup>Red hand-picked phoney</sup> ~~alleged~~ Panchen Lama was also ~~elected~~ <sup>made a</sup> Vice-Chairman. But that's no surprise. <sup>The man the Chinese call</sup> The Panchen Lama, being strictly a Communist puppet.

At New Delhi, today, Prime Minister Nehru stated - that India has made a formal protest, Complaining of Communist allegations - that the Dalai Lama is being held in India, under duress. Nehru telling the Chinese Reds, in the most positive way - that the spiritual and political ruler of Tibet is in India of his own free will. Entirely responsible - for the statements he made, Charging Communist oppression on the Roof-of-the-World.

CHINA

Red China - in a formal protest. Complaining - to the government of Norway. The squawk indicating - how touchy the comrades can be.

An Oslo newspaper, in commenting on the brutal Communist oppression in Tibet - published a cartoon. A picture of Mao Tse-tung, with a big X - smeared across the visage of the boss of Red China. The cartoon captioned - "Mao Loses Face."

So that's what draws the diplomatic protest. Showing once again - that the truth hurts.

PANAMA

The President of Panama charges - that, "lawless foreigners" have invaded the Panamanian Republic. The "lawless foreigners" identified as a band of Cubans, who landed - intending to support a revolutionary movement headed by Roberto Arias. A couple of them, who were captured, say - they're <sup>a</sup> supporters of Castro. The Panama charge is that they ~~who~~ left Cuba eight days ago - and landed, yesterday, on the San Blas Peninsula, in Panama.

DULLES

Today's medical report on John Foster Dulles - depressing. The former Secretary of State - given a series of X-ray treatments, To relieve - the cancerous growth at the lower part of the neck. The treatments resulting - in virtually no improvement. Mr. Dulles - now being given drugs to relieve pain.

TRUMAN

Now, folks - meet Professor Truman. The former President - beginning a series of academic lectures at Columbia University, today. Professor HST - in fine form.

"I was not one of the greatest presidents," he told the class. <sup>"But," he added,</sup> ~~"But"~~ "I had a good time - trying to be one."

Professor HST - not at all solemn and scholastic.

Referring to his home state of Missouri - as being the stamping ground for a number of notorious characters. "The most notorious of them," said he, "were Mark Twain, Jesse James, and me."

Which would seem to leave a good bit of latitude - for comparisons. The more ardent of Democrats, no doubt - saying that Harry Truman has all the wisdom of Mark Twain. But some benighted Republicans may mutter - Jesse James.

PARTY

Here's something for a quiz. Can you tell - what the professor is talking about? No, it's not any profound point of mathematics or nuclear physics. Something much simpler - a cocktail party.

Dr. Howard Hardy, of Chicago, investigates problems of acoustics - noises of one kind or another. Like the rise and fall of noise - at a cocktail party. So here's how he describes it - as the babble and the gabble get going.

"There is," he says, "a thermo-dynamic change of state from a condition where there are more sound receivers than emitters, to the opposite condition. This is marked by a rise in the thermal and acoustic level."

So what's the answer? Yes, Don, it all means - that more people talk and fewer listen, as your cocktail party - gets warmer and noisier.
