

Thursday, October 3, 1974

LIMA

Another earthquake, in Peru, as you may have heard. Its epicenter - in the Pacific just off Lima. It was a quake measuring six-and-a-half on the Richter scale - and its shock waves were felt some three hundred miles inland. First reports - indicate only a few casualties. But officials predicting later news may tell of more tragedy.

LONG BEACH

From Long Beach hospital, in California, - ~~an~~ ~~comes word~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~announcement~~ that, former President ~~Nixon~~ is due to go home tomorrow; ~~that is~~, - if tests continue to show no complications. His doctors <sup>say</sup> ~~saying~~ that once they ~~are~~ completed their diagnostic studies - they <sup>will</sup> ~~will then~~ issue - "a final summary report a finalized future treatment plan, and a course of convalescence."

WATERGATE

~~At the same time,~~ <sup>today</sup> In Washington, an attempt was made to ~~squash~~ <sup>to</sup> quash two subpoenas ~~requiring~~ <sup>by</sup> Mr. Nixon's testimony at the Watergate ~~cover-up~~ trial.

The former President's lawyer - apparently claiming he's too sick to take the stand. ~~But the papers quickly sealed by Judge Sirica~~ <sup>will decide later</sup> ~~until~~ as he put it; when "the court has had an opportunity to review them ~~papers~~ thoroughly.

WEATHER

From the Missouri Valley to Canada and on East - another foretaste of winter today. The mercury skidding to records ~~low~~ in dozens of communities.
~~Only~~ Twenty-seven in Lexington, Kentucky; twenty-six in Chicago; ~~and~~ twenty-five in Toledo. ~~White~~ Pittsburgh recording its earliest snowfall in this century - also ~~and~~ more than eight inches of it at ~~the white stuff at~~ Syracuse, New York. The outlook for tonight - ~~pretty~~ ~~much~~ the same ~~amount~~ only more so; with heavy snows expected in northern and western New York and in ~~as well~~ ~~as~~ the mountainous regions of Maine and New Hampshire.

CLEVELAND

The Cleveland Indians back in the forties - first team in the American League to hire a black player. Now the first team <sup>in all</sup> ~~in~~ major league history ~~ever~~ to hire a black manager. He's Frank Robinson
-- the only man ever to win the most valuable ~~player~~ player award in both leagues.

CONFERENCE

A House and Senate Conference committee today began its deliberations - on the fate of that long pending foreign aide bill. The conferees quickly killing a number of restrictions ~~4~~ earlier voted by the Senate. These including a ban on U S military aide to Turkey and Chile. Senator Eagleton of Missouri ~~thus~~ predict<sup>S</sup>~~ing~~ a full floor fight - ~~within~~ when the measure again reaches the Senate.

MOSCOW

A company of U S artillery men in colorful full dress uniforms - <sup>maybe they momentarily won</sup> ~~well, you might say they conquered~~ Moscow today.

The U S military men - members of the ancient and honorable artillery company of Massachusetts - originally founded in Sixteen Thirty-Eight. During a visit to the Russian capital, laying a wreath at the tomb of the Soviet Union's unknown soldier - and then parading to a nearby hotel.

One of the marchers later saying: "The ~~entire~~ outstretched arms and the ~~conv~~ smile of those people watching were just great." "I think it shows" - said he <sup>that</sup> ~~he~~ ^ "they just want peace."

KANSAS CITY

From ~~News~~ Kansas City, Missouri - an announcement today that TWA and Pan Am Airlines - have started talks on a ~~new~~ possible merger - but merger or no said a TWA spokesman the airlines will still need federal assistance to surmount their present economic problems.

STOCKHOLM

The two winners of this year's Nobel prize for literature - announced today in Stockholm. Eyvind Johnson and Harry Martinson - both Swedish authors.
If you never heard of 'em, don't feel bad - they're both virtually unknown outside their ~~own~~ own homeland.
~~Indeed~~ Indeed, the selection of Johnson and Martinson
<sup>even</sup> -- <sup>causing</sup> ~~causing~~ a literary furore ~~even~~ in Sweden, ~~itself~~.

VIENNA

At Vienna - another in the regular twice a week performances of the famed Vienna-Spanish riding ~~school~~ school. Chief Horseman Colonel Hans Handler heading a ~~so~~ team of dancing white stallions - when he suddenly collapsed and fell from his saddle. The Colonel age sixty-three victim of a heart attack but his horses ~~had been~~ so well schooled they kept right on ~~on~~ with their performance even as his body was being carried from the arena. An aide later saying: "he dedicated his whole life to horses." Adding: "It was the finest death - he could have dreamed of."

HARTFORD

In the ~~current~~ current issue of a periodical written for Connecticut State Employees - an article on how to gauge your happiness level. An adequate income - reasonable health - a lovely nature - these all said to be <sup>vital</sup> ~~important~~. But the most important factors in human happiness - so they tell us: realism, flexibility, humor, ~~and~~ the ability to relate to other people - and most important of all, the ability to accept what you are and know in your heart it isn't so bad after all.

CAPITOL HILL

Capitol Hill again - Senator Byrd of Virginia was questioning today ~~the~~ the wisdom of more than a ~~million~~ million and a half in federal grants to Ivy League schools. - The projects already funded - said he - including <sup>g</sup>a study of the pre-history of Taiwan and a study of pre-historic urban rule relationships. The Senator adding that cheer leaders at the Yale-Harvard football game this year - could make their rooting a bit more realistic by chanting:

Pull up your socks
Hitch up your pants
Get in there and fight
For your federal grants.