Good evening everybody. In the strife-torn Arab world, a day of dramatic events. Starting out with the crash of an Iraqi jet - at Jeddah Airport in Saudi Arabia; carrying to their deaths three Iraqi emissaries - to the new pro-Communist revolutionary government of Sudan. This almost coinciding with the buzzing of a British airliner + by Libyan jets; with the big aircraft - finally forced to land at Benghazi; where two key members of Sudan's new revolutionary council - bound home from London - were forcibly removed and taken into custody.

And shortly after - angoutbreak of fighting near the Sudanese Presidential Palace in Khartoum. The start of a counter-coup - by military forces still loyal to ousted President Jaafar Numeiry, who was deposed three days ago.

Numeiry himself - later taking to national radio. Announcing his restoration to power - and calling upon his people to hunt down all Communists as "traitors." Observers later explaining Libya's hand in all this - on the grounds that

KHARTOUM - 2

Libya's Premier - Colonel Moammar Khadafy - is strongly anti-Communist. Libya's action drew a strong protest from London.

As for the leaders of Monday's coupagainst Numeiry the coup that failed today - the Sudanese radio says all of them have been arrested.

At the peace table in Paris - an enemy rejection today of the re-stated American and South Vietnamese proposal - for a controlled ceasefire. The Communist side calling it an "absurd" proposition - again demanding total U.S. withdrawal this year.

And then - at a news conference - an enemy spokesman laughing off the possible effects - of President Nixon's planned trip to Red China. Observing that China backs "fully" - Hanoi's latest peace offer. Adding that the President's visit - would have no bearing on the peace talks.

In private though - a Communist source later indicated that North Vietnamese delegates - would be in Peking at the same time as the President; and would be willing to talk - if he so wished.

From Chiang Kai-Shek of Nationalist China - a message addressed to the World Anti-Communist League - currently meeting in Manila. President Chiang charging that the goal of the Red Chinese remains the same - no matter how friendly they may appear; and that goal - he said - is to divide and conquer" the free world - "through infiltration and subversion." Though he failed to mention it directly - this clearly a reference to President Nixon's planned visit to Red China.

PEKING FOLLOW TARPEI-MANILA

Reverse side - a blast from Peking; calling attention to South Vietnam's latest offensive -in eastern Cambodia; which is said to indicate that "U.S. imperialism
- has further intensified its war of aggression against Indochina." Thus Peking also calling attention to the fuct that it has never ceased attacking U.S. involvement in Vietnam - Presidential visit or no.

SAIGON FOLLOW PARIS

The war continues to wind down - as evidenced by the latest casualty report from Saigon; which sets the number of American combat deaths over the past week at eleven - the lowest figure in six years.

At the same time, both South and North Vietnamese losses - also showing a marked drop; with a U.S. spokesman adding that fighting in Vietnam is now at its lowest level - since Nineteen-Sixty-Five.

But the figures notwithstanding - death is ever close at hand; as shown by the loss of twenty-one South Vietnamese Rangers - in the crash of a big U.S. helicopter in Quang Tin Province. This coming in the midst - of a routine ferrying operation; the worst helicopter accident in Indochina - in nearly a year - blamed on mechanical trouble.

On the political front - an admission from General Duong Van Minh - that he really does not want to be President of South Vietnam. The famed "Big Minh" explaining: "You get criticized from everywhere." Adding: "My wife doesn't want to live in the Presidential Palace, anyhow."

Then why is he running? Because - said "Big Minh"

- "we have to show the people that we can have honest elections".

And "the question is not whether I win or lose" - said he
"but what I can do for my country."

Defense Secretary Melvin Laird spent more than three hours today - with the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Discussing the present military situation - in Southeast Asia in general and Laos in particular.

That done - Laird later told newsmen that

Congressional failure to enact a new draft bill by September

- could cause "serious" personnel shortages. But these would not show up - till sometime in Nineteen-Seventy-Two - said he. Adding that in any event - they would not affect U.S.

capabilities in Vietnam.

WHITE FOLLOW SENATE

Elsewhere on Capitol Hill - "George White's" scandals - part two. Mystery witness "White" - an alias

- telling Senate probers that organized crime has infiltrated many financial institutions; so deeply - said he - that "you could place orders for stolen securities - just as you would a car." With the result - he added - that underworld influence now affects "the whole economy of the United States."

Martin Zweig - former chief administrative aid to

John McCormack when McCormack was Speaker of the House

- entered Federal prison at Lewisburg, Pennsylvania this afternoon - to begin a thirty-month sentence. Zweig was convicted of lying to a Federal grand jury investigating influence peddling and mis-use of the Speaker's Office.

SUGGESTED LEAD-IN TO THOMAS TAPE "SAN FRANCISCO"

Next - Lowell Thomas; reporting tonight on the latest in tattooed ladies - and not in the circus either. Lowell...

it cost to put it on.

6

Here's one - a story today from San Francisco taki telling of "the perfect gift" to give the "lady of your life;" one blooked's that's "inexpensive, tasteful, unusual - and indelible;" namely - a tattoo. Except you don't call it that. San Francisco Lyte Tattle Ex the city's last established tattoo artist observing that women prefer to think of it as body jewelry. Whatever the name though & it's a growing fad. With more and more of the West Coast ladies - getting themselves adorned with dainty flowers, lacy butterflies and so on; on their shoulders, wrists, ear-lobes and elsewhere. But The biggest seller - se are told: 4 tiny red heart - appropriately located. RA local psychiatrist -- attempting to explain the fad; saying women use tattoos "as they do clothes - to titillate and suggest," But he also urges caution - noting that the cost of removing a tattoo - is generally about five times what

From Armour and Company - St. Paul division - an order today recalling all the firm's "Genoa Salami" - now on grocery shelves across the nation. This - at the request of the Department of Agriculture; a precautionary measure - following nine cases of illness apparently caused by tainted salami. And that's no baloney!

his jack makeners - obsays a TWA jettiner toned for L'Menga to forced it to exturn to New York . landing at La Guardel's stelltett. There - he hidnesped two cirties andiques ca hestages - and commandegred a truck for a mild ride to scress Long triand . to the larger coun F. Krunady nipport there demand we a plant to fig him to Miles. Male, it all came to a wait house with two cities week - from the Parwarnt mon sept Warmstell men ours. his toutang cours we receou has been commissible to retain wild entrol desperation