

L.T. -OLDS FISHER, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1964

GOOD EVENING EVERYBODY:

When President Mateos landed at Los Angeles Airport today, thousands of Mexicans surged toward the plane, shouting -- "viva!" and chanting "uno! uno!" Which means -- "number one."

Presidents Johnson and Mateos, greeted one another -- with the traditional Latin American "embrasso."

JOHNSON FOLLOW PRESIDENTS

The two statesmen took off by helicopter for U C L A. There to accept -- honorary doctorates. And, to speak before -- the massed student body.

President Johnson's address was notable for the phrase-- "spreading civil war." The strongest expression ever used by any American President referring to the ideological dispute between Russia and Red China.

President Mateos concentrated more on technology. The ability of modern scientists -- to raise the standard of living for people everywhere. The man from Mexico City predicting -- that poverty will one day be a museum piece for historians to investigate. Not a human problem -- for nations and governments.

IDEOLOGY

One of President Johnson's comments on the ideological dispute is corroborated by -- Mao Tse Tung. The strong man of Red China recently talked with -- six French politicians who are now back in Paris and say that Mao became scathing about Khrushchev. Terming the Soviet leader -- "a paper tiger who has betrayed Marx and Lenin." And adding that Khrushchev would ~~rather~~ rather be friends with the United States -- than with Red China.

Mao's reaction? He says he intends -- to bury Khrushchev.

TALKS

After their visit to U C L A -- the two Presidents flew to Palm Springs, to talk about the major problems of the Hemisphere, including Cuba and Panama.

Joining the talks, former President Eisenhower.

PAKISTAN

In Rawalpindi, the President of Pakistan says - "no pacts, no treaties, no alliances." Mohammed Ayub Khan referring to his talks with Chou En Lai. There had been speculation that the Premier of Red China came to Pakistan - to negotiate a new agreement, between Peking and Rawalpindi. An agreement aimed at India, which both nations consider an enemy. Red China - because of the Himalayan border war. Pakistan - because of the dispute over Kashmir.

48
But Ayub Khan insists - there's nothing to that speculation. ^{Says} He's not lining up with Chou En Lai - against anybody.

TURKEY

The would be assassin of the Premier of Turkey had followed him around for three years. Mesut Sunay was furious about the coup -- lead by Ismat Inonu in Nineteen Sixty; and decided to assassinate the new Premier -- ~~no~~ no matter how long it took. Wherever Inonu went Sunay went -- biding his time 'til he could get within pistol range. Today -- his chance came. Sunay reaching Inonu's car and firing at him point blank. The Premier a sitting target there in the back seat. The would be assassin had three clear shots -- at him. And missed -- every time.

SIKKIM

The capital of Sikkim is a riot of color tonight.

Gangtok, celebrating -- with lamps in every window. Bon fires -- in the streets. Flags flying -- Monks in saffron robes -- streaming into the temples. Nobles riding Himalayan ponies -- through the milling crowds. And the sounds of spinning prayer wheels, the exxlesiastical chant, and the booming of temple gongs.

All in honor of -- a westerner. The Maharanee of Sikkim -- who used to be Hope Cook of New York. Hope has just presented the Maharajah of Sikkim -- with a son. Hence -- the age old rites of the Himalayas for the Maharanee -- who only two ~~z~~ years ago, was a Sarah Lawrence coed.

GREECE

The condition of the King of Greece -- is "grave" tonight, after a stomach operation so delicate -- that two specialists were flown to Athens from London merely to act as observers. Word from the Greek capital is that the main reason for it was to relieve the agony of the patient.

OLYMPICS

The most recent echo from the Innsbruck Winter Olympics comes from a nountain in the Adirondacks -- Mr. Von Hoevenberg, site of the only bob-run 'in the western hemisphere. This weekend some of the Olympians will be making that spine tingling, hair-raising (those sound like cliches but what else can you say?) runs down the ice walls of the Mt. Von Hoevenberg bob-run. Among those taking part in addition to members of our Olympic team, will be Canada's Olympic star, Vic Emery and Sergio Zardini who was one of the silver medalists at Innsbruck.

American bob-sledder, Tim Snow from Ausable, who was in a wild accident on a run-away bob this week, and who might have been killed if it hadn't been for his crash helmet, is getting along fine, according to reports from the Lake Placid hospital.

This whole Olympic thing still has me puzzled, and I'm afraid I'll have to disagree with my favorite sports expert, Red Smith, who says we should continue to run our Olympic teams as we have done up to now. Flying back from Europe this week, on a Pan Am jet that was forced to land us in Canada instead ~~in~~ of the Flying back from Europe this week, on a Pan Am jet that was forced ~~to~~ to land us in Canada instead of the U.S.A. because New York and Boston had more snow even than Canada, I spent part of the time high over the Atlantic discussing this ~~matter~~ with ^a ~~an~~ interesting little lady from Duluth, ~~Minnesota~~. me that the members of the American Olympic hockey team had to go out and drum up their own financial backing, ^{personally} raise money to make the trip by playing a series of games in December.—Twenty-five games in thirty-six days. One night stands - jumping ~~off~~ around the country. ~~Straining themselves a terrific beating,~~ Which took so much out of them ~~that~~ they were ~~pretty well~~ exhausted when they ^{got} ~~went~~ to Europe, where at the Winter Olympics they had to take on teams from ~~each countries~~ ~~in~~ Sweden, Czechoslovakia and especially Russia, ~~teams~~ made up of hockey players who do nothing but play hockey. ~~In other words, they were~~ ^{we'd} ~~what we~~ ^{then} ~~call~~ ^{call} ~~them~~ ^{pros.}

So, why ^{not} ~~don't we~~ send ^d our professionals to play ~~against~~ them, instead of allowing the world to get the idea that the Russians ~~are~~ can easily walk all over us?

to Europe, where at the Olympics they had to take on teams from Sweden, Czechoslovakis and especially Russia, made up of hockey players who do nothing but play hockey. We'd call them pros. So, why not send our pros to play them, instead of allowing the world to get the idea that the Russians can easily walk all over us?

Are we running the Winter Olympics just to give the Russians another opportunity for spreading their propaganda?

In a way we do take the Olympic Games seriously. But, we don't get serious until the eleventh hour. The Russian players on the other hand do nothing but play hockey for eleven months and then for the twelfth month are given a holiday at a Black Sea resort.

Now Dick -- it's all yours.

FIRE

The fire that whipped through^g the wooden buildings of Manila today jumping from roof top to roof top; destroyed brick structures also -- halting finally -- at the water's edge.

Damage estimated at fifty million dollars. Manila's worst fire -- since the Japanese bombed the city, during World War Two.
