

DOUGHKEEPSIE REGATTA ❖ 1934

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE
BOARD OF STEWARDS

PRICE THIRTY-FIVE CENTS

HOW TO IDENTIFY THE CREWS

The competing crews may be identified by the color of the coxswain's jersey and of the flag on the bow of the shell, as follows:

Columbia—light blue	Navy—dark blue
Cornell—light red and white	California—gold
Pennsylvania—dark blue and red	Rutgers—scarlet
Syracuse—orange	Washington—white

ORDER OF FINISH

Announced by Salvo of Bombs

In each race, the first crew to pass under the Railroad Bridge will be announced by a salvo of bombs, the number of bombs fired corresponding to the number of the lane of the leading crew. The first crew to cross the finish line in each race will be announced in the same manner.

Indicated by Flags

The order in which the crews finish will also be indicated by flags suspended from both the Railroad and the Vehicular Bridge, the regular college colors of the winning crew being the top flag. Flags will also be hoisted on the mast of the referee's boat, the colors of the winning crew being the uppermost flag—the rest hoisted in the order of finish. The flags will be of the following colors:

Columbia—light blue and white	Navy—blue and gold with white "N"
Cornell—red and white	California—dark blue and gold with white "C"
Pennsylvania—red and dark blue	Rutgers—scarlet
Syracuse—orange with dark "S"	Washington—purple and gold with white "W"

By Bulletin Board

A Bulletin Board has been erected on the Judges' Boat, located at the Finish Line. The order in which the first three crews finish in all races will be indicated on this Board, the lane number of the crew being used in place of its college name. This use of the lane number was found necessary owing to the distance of the Judges' Boat from the shore.

The lane number of the winning crew will be at the top, and below it will be the lane numbers of the other two crews, in the order of finish.

The time made by each crew will appear opposite the number of its lane. For example, if the crew in lane No. 10 won, and its time was 20 minutes and 30 1-5 seconds, the top line on the board would read: "10-20-30-1."

LANES OF THE CREWS

The lanes of the several crews (numbered from the west shore of the river) are as follows:

Freshman	Junior Varsity	Varsity

THE COACHES

GLENDON, OF COLUMBIA

Hugh Glendon is the son of famous old Dick Glendon, Sr., of Navy rowing. Upon the death of his brother Richard last December, Hugh was appointed head coach at Columbia, and his father was named associate coach. Glendon's coaching career started in 1928, when he came to Columbia as coach of the lightweight crew. In 1929 his lightweight crew went to England where it won the Marlowe Cup, and in 1932 he turned out another championship eight which won the Henley Regatta.

WRAY, OF CORNELL

Before coming to Cornell in 1926, James Wray had many successful seasons as a coach, particularly at Harvard, where his crews won a record of six consecutive victories over Yale. He found Cornell rowing at a low ebb, but his eight years with the Red and White Navy have made his crews serious eastern contenders.

CALLOW, OF PENNSYLVANIA

Russell S. Callow, serving his seventh year as head coach of rowing at Pennsylvania, was captain of crew at the University of Washington in 1915, his senior year there. After graduating "Rusty" coached Washington crews to many triumphs, including several at Poughkeepsie. The Red and Blue varsity this year won the Adams Cup race; the 150-pound crew won the Wright Cup race; and the freshman crew defeated Yale, Columbia, Navy and Harvard.

TEN EYCK,
OF SYRACUSE

James A. Ten Eyck has become a permanent part of the rowing tradition at Syracuse, where he has made the sport popular and successful for well over a quarter of a century. Probably the only active collegiate rowing coach of the old school, he retains, at 84, all the vigor and keenness of mind that marked his own rowing days of more than sixty years ago.

WALSH, OF NAVY

Charles S. Walsh is serving his third year as head coach of rowing at the Naval Academy. A former Navy oarsman and a graduate of the Academy in 1923, he returned to Annapolis as assistant crew coach in 1924. In 1926 he was named coach of the freshman crew, and was appointed head crew coach in 1932.

© M. L. Cohen

EBRIGHT, OF CALIFORNIA

Carroll M. "Ky" Ebright, for 10 seasons rowing coach at California, has an outstanding record in Olympic rowing annals. His 1928 and 1932 crews were winners at Poughkeepsie and at the Olympics, with records of 13 and 7 straight victories, respectively, at all distances from 2,000 meters to four miles. This year his 'Varsity has lost to Washington by less than a quarter of a length, and defeated U.C.L.A.; the Junior 'Varsity is undefeated, having won from Washington by nearly 10 lengths and defeated the U.C.L.A. juniors.

TEN EYCK, OF RUTGERS

Ned Ten Eyck, son of the veteran rowing coach at Syracuse, and the first American to win the Diamond Sculls event at the English Henley, has had a long and successful career as coach of college crews and boat clubs. Of the very few crews that he has coached for Poughkeepsie Regattas, two have won the Freshman race, Wisconsin and Syracuse, the latter in 1932 when he assisted his father and was in sole charge of the Freshman eight.

ULBRICKSON, OF WASHINGTON

Alvin Ulbrickson, head coach at Washington since 1927, stroked the Washington 'Varsity in '24, '25 and '26, winning at Poughkeepsie twice. As coach, he hit his stride in 1930, and his crews have set Coast records since that time. Last year, the 'Varsity won the Olympic Games International Sprint Championship in California, and the Pacific Coast Championship, winning the latter again this year.
