

SAIGON

Mon, Sept. 21 - 75

~~At the top of the news tonight~~ <sup>Saigon - Pres.</sup> Thieu quits, as <sup>you may have</sup> ~~no doubt you've~~ heard by now. The South Vietnamese President announcing his resignation - in a speech bitterly critical of U S policy.

Thieu telling of ~~how~~ how he fought against the signing - of the Nineteen Seventy-Three Paris peace agreement - how he felt that such an agreement - would be a sell-out to ~~the~~ North Vietnam. How he was assured by President Nixon - in writing <sup>that</sup> he would get "all necessary military and economic support" to prevent a communist take-over. <sup>So</sup> ~~And~~ now, in his own view - he was then betrayed. Thieu saying: "The Americans promised us - we trusted them;" but the promised aid - was not given.

Thieu also <sup>putting</sup> ~~laying~~ much of the blame ~~to~~ on Secretary of State Kissinger, saying: "I never thought a man like Mr. Kissinger - would deliver our people to such a disastrous fate.

PARIS FOLLOW SAIGON

After Thieu - what next? -- ~~as yet hard to~~ ~~tell~~ The Viet Cong delegation to <sup>the</sup> Paris peace talks - today applauding <sup>ed</sup> his resignation. Adding, however, the rest of the Thieu - ~~the~~ "clique" and ~~the~~ all remaining Americans will ~~it~~ also have to get out - before peace can come to Vietnam.

WHITE HOUSE

Here at home - President Ford met for more than an hour with Dr. Kissinger. A spokesman later saying: "The U S ~~is~~ expects to be working with the new government" in Saigon. Adding only that the President still believed ~~that~~ one billion in emergency aid to South Vietnam - should be approved. ~~But the~~ ~~subject will doubtless~~ <sup>all this will</sup> come up again when the President submits to questioning by a team of CBS news reporters <sup>tonight</sup> at ten eastern time; ~~a session~~ <sup>which</sup> you <sup>will hear on</sup> ~~'ll be able to here; incidentally, right here on~~ many of these CBS radio network stations.

And now -

Later today the House Approp Com. approved a 300 mil ~~of~~ package of military & humanitarian aid to Sa. Vietnam.

ATHENS

The U S Embassy at Athens, Greece -

was stormed today by thousands of left wing

demonstrators. This by way of marking <sup>as</sup> "abominable"

April twenty-one - the date of a right wing military coup eight years ago. The demonstrators smashing

windows, doors and furniture - till finally driven

off by police using tear-gas.

RIYADH

Saudi Arabia's new king took his first major initiative today - in dealing with the continuing Arab Israeli impasse. King Khaled meeting at Riyadh - with ~~Egypt~~ Egypt's President Sadat and Syria's President Assad; attempting to mend the rift - which has long separated his two guests; and thus ~~to~~ forge a unified Arab policy in what they're now calling the "post-Kissinger" phase of mid-East negotiations.

ARLINGTON

Today at Arlington, Mass. once known as Menotomy, ~~Mass.~~ Mass. the largest Patriot's Day parade in U S history. More than eight ~~th~~ thousand marchers - thirty floats - and nearly a quarter of a million spectators. The parade route - followed a half mile stretch of old Battle Road; where the Minute men and the British ~~redcoats~~ redcoats engaged in their bloodiest fighting - on the first day of the American Revolution two hundred years ago.

ADELAIDE

The realization of what may be called - the ultimate womens lib dream # is reported today from Adelaide, Australia. Dr. Earle Hackett, of Adelaide's institute of medical research, telling a womens symposium: "We can if we like, have an almost female world" - right here and now.

What about children? No problem at all - says Dr. Hackett. Explaining: "The human species could be maintained- with only a small bank of men to <sup>serve them</sup>
~~men as a source of semen.~~" Any volunteers?

And now this -

NOTTINGHAM

At Nottingham's Sherwood Forest - a British clairvoyant recently "communed" ~~or~~ so he said - with the spirit of the ~~legend~~ legendary hero Robin Hood.

The famed archer later described as really a ~~very~~ "despicable character who gloated over his evil exploits." Robin ~~also~~ <sup>Hood is</sup> quoted as saying that Maid

Marian was actually a nymphomaniac. ~~And so on~~ <sup>Tonight we hear</sup>

they try and get thru to Robin Hood again, ~~attempt tonight - at a repeat performance.~~

This - at the insistence of Nottingham's

Robin Hood Society, <sup>play</sup> whose members ~~hope~~ to be present

-- when the spirit <sup>of the Sherwood Forest bandit</sup> is summoned up again. A spokesman saying: "Robin ~~was~~ <sup>Hood was</sup> chivalrous and good - ~~and we~~ want to clear his name." <sup>In the woods</sup> ~~An attempt to~~ prove that

Robin <sup>Hood</sup> ~~is~~ was no hood.

And now for -
