

KEENE PROVIDENCE

Fri. June 2nd. 42.

*First - a double barreled salute - to CBS
radio station W K N E -- Keene, New Hampshire;
today celebrating - it's forty-fifth anniversary on the air. And to CBS radio station W E A N, Providence Rhode Island today celebrating its fiftieth anniversary on the air. Now the news.....*

WHITE HOUSE

The White House - a special debriefing today. President Nixon conferring with Congressional leaders - numbering thirty in all, from both parties; spelling out the details - of his newly negotiated agreements with the Soviet Union. First and foremost - ^{the} new Salt pact. And then a question and answer period - Henry Kissinger ~~was~~ ^{with} presiding. The President's goal, ~~of course~~, an attempt to assure speedy Senate ~~and~~ ratification of the Moscow summit. ~~And, indeed,~~ White House press secretary Ron Ziegler later ~~described~~ describing the Congressional leaders as "most receptive." Ziegler further predicting the Salt pact would be approved - after, quote "careful consideration." Also, quoting the President as having said - this will clear the way for additional arms limitation talks. Hopefully, the first step ^{toward} world wide disarmament.

KEY BISCAIYNE

~~And now - it's time~~ for a ~~so~~ little rest and relaxation. The First Family flying today to Key Biscayne where the President and Mrs. Nixon will spend a long weekend, recharging their ~~batteries~~ batteries ~~so to speak~~, after thirteen days of nearly non-stop travel. Presumably a much needed rest.
~~A rest well earned, wouldn't~~
~~you say?~~

SAN FRANCISCO

On the West coast - the ~~no~~ home ~~area~~
stretch in that ~~side~~ all important California presidential primary campaign. With George McGovern starting out today in San Francisco; there/attempting to off-set the possible impact of a major statewide poll - showing him way out in front.

Said he: "The poll may show where we are ~~not~~ on Friday but it doesn't show where we'll stand on Tuesday." McGovern adding: "The principal problem
we have right now - is over confidence."

BAKERSFIELD

To the south at Bakersfield - McGovern's chief foe was also taking note of the same poll.

Hubert Humphrey calling announced results - "a lot of nonsense, baloney. Adding: "If I didn't think this was true I wouldn't even take time to campaign."

LOS ANGELES

Meanwhile, at Los Angeles, the ~~start~~ start of a last minute ~~in~~ write-in campaign in behalf of George Wallace. The Governor's wife, and his son, George Jr. just arrived from Silver Spring ^{to} ~~helping~~ to get the ball rolling. Cornelia Wallace saying her ~~husband~~ husband still wants the nomination - and California can still help. ^{Said she:-} ~~Adding;~~ "That's why I'm here."

VIETNAM

In South Vietnam - for the ~~SEVEN~~ second straight day - a temporary ^{lull} in the ground fighting.

But U S war planes ^{were} again taking a heavy toll ~~in~~

in the Communist North, ~~Down~~ Destroying ~~today~~ two important railroad bridges - and knocking out a major power plant. ~~And this was~~ said to be - ^{their} ~~our~~ most successful day yet.

LONDON

At Windsor Castle

~~in London~~ today - a dramatic demonstration

that the people still care. More than ten thousand

Britons standing in line - a line at times a mile long

-- in order to pay their last ~~and~~ respects to the Duke of Windsor. One by one - filing past the Duke's ⁱⁿ the Castle's bier, -- ~~to~~ historic St. George's Chapel, finally ^{causing them} ~~forcing Buckingham Palace~~ to extend by two hours -

~~the~~ ^{of} scheduled closing time.

PALACE FOLLOW LONDON

~~In the midst of all this - the woman he~~

~~loved~~ The Duchess of ~~W~~ Windsor arriving in London

almost unnoticed - no longer "that woman," as she was once called - the Duchess met by the Queen's personal representative - Earl Mountbatten; later travelling to Buckingham Palace ^{— Where} for the first

^{she is} time, a guest of the British Royal family. The Duchess - accompanied by her personal ~~physician~~ physician ^{is} said to appear frail but still proud and erect, still every inch the woman he loved.

— the girl from Baltimore who is sure to appear as one of the most important women in all history.

HOUSTON

Found, at last: A cure for so-called "muscle-bound heart" as reported today - by Doctor Denton Cooley, the famed Houston heart surgeon. This said to call for replacement of the heart's mitral value -- which regulates the flow of blood. According to Doctor Cooley, a technique proven successful so far - in nine out of nine cases.

BOSTON

In the same vein - a remarkable break through in the treatment of adult leukemia; reported today from Peter Bent Brigham Hospital up in Boston. The doctors there - using a three drug combination over the past eighteen months - achieving complete remissions in fifty-five percent of all cases treated. And so for those afflicted with adult leukemia for the first time -- a ray of hope.

FLINT

Flint, Michigan - another birthday for billionaire auto ~~the~~ pioneer, C S Mott; as of today - age ninety-seven. An occasion he celebrated - by keeping busy - the same as any other day. "Keeping busy" - we are told - including a close check of "business and family affairs;" especially - the heavily endowed C. S. Mott Foundation.

As a concession to public interest though Mr. Mott did meet with at least one reporter. Telling the newsman: "I'm a little handicapped in the matter of physical ability - but it hasn't affected my ~~me~~ brain and to prove it ^{Warren} - he added "I still ~~don't~~ know that two and two make four - which is something
a lot of people don't understand."

WOODBURN

At Woodburn, Oregon - well, you might say it was like Christmas in June today. At any rate, the state highway department - calling out a number of its snow emergency trucks; ~~to~~ despite a beautiful spring day sanding down a section of busy interstate highway five. The reason - an overturned ^{tractor} trailer; spilling out over the highway - thousands and thousands of ~~bananas~~ ^{always} slippery ~~goose~~ ^{bananas} mess. Till the sand trucks arrived - a traffic hazard driving drivers literally 'bananas.'
