

BERLIN

L.T. - Deleo. Tues. June 30 - 59.

The Chancellor of West Germany - is in West Berlin.

Chancellor Adenauer, arriving - aboard an American Air Force plane. On ^{land} the spot for - tomorrow's election ^{voting for} of a President - for West Germany.

These Voting - the members of the West German Federal Assembly, over a thousand deputies - gathering in West Berlin, in a ▲ demonstration of - German solidarity. Chancellor Adenauer summing it up with the words - "Berlin supports us - and we support Berlin." ^R So far, the East German Reds - have not tried to interfere. ~~They~~ They slowed down traffic to West Germany, during the day - but made no attempt to stop it.

No sign of - another Berlin blockade.

EGYPT

Nasser repeats ^{that} the Suez Canal will remain closed to Israeli ships. The boss of the land of the Nile, calling Suez - a trump card in the hands of the Arabs. Denouncing sea captains from other nations, who try to sail through the canal - with cargoes from Israel. Nasser insists he's not afraid of - another Israeli drive toward Suez. The strong man of Egypt, claiming ^{that} his army is now ready to meet any attack.

TIBET

Today's announcement in New Delhi - is an obvious bid to patch up the relations between India and Red China.

The announcement ^{is that} - Nehru does not recognize a Tibetan government in exile. ^{He says he is} ~~He's~~ still dealing with - the Communist administration in Lhasa.

Which contradicts what the Dalai Lama has said.

The God-King of Tibet, declaring - the true government of his country is with him, ^{in the foot hills of the Himalayas} in Moosorie, The Tibetan people - refusing to recognize anyone else. As why should they? They don't believe anyone can replace the all-embracing Buddha, the ~~xxx~~ incarnation of the Lord of Mercy - the Dalai Lama.

SATELLITE

Another to set up
~~The newest~~ nation ~~into the field~~ of artificial satellites, - ~~is~~ France. ~~Paris revealing~~, DeGaulle has ear marked the equivalent of fifty million dollars to be spent over the next four years. The President of France, in an all-out bid, to pull abreast of America and Russia.

High on the agenda - development of a new rocket at the French testing ground, deep ~~far south~~ in the Sahara desert.
When the rocket is ready - French scientists will hurl a man-made moon into orbit.

In Louisiana, Mrs. Earl Long counter-attacks against her husband's divorce suit, charging that Earl Long - threatened to kill her. She demands that the Governor be ordered to pay her alimony - to the tune of twenty-five hundred dollars a month.

What does Governor Earl Long - say to that? He says his wife should see - a psychiatrist. A nice touch of irony - considering that it was his better half who had him put in a mental hospital.

Governor Long claims he doesn't have that kind of money. Today the Governor told newsmen - "she has as much as I do, and is twelve years younger." Then the Governor adding - in a kindly voice:- "why doesn't she go to work?"

Anyway, a court has issued a restraining order - forbidding Governor Long to sell anything, until the divorce action is settled.

WARREN

The Chief Justice of the United States declines to comment on - his alleged tiff with Earl Mazo, of the New York Herald Tribune. Mazo, author of - a biography of the Vice President. ^{The title is} ~~Called~~ - "Richard Nixon, a political and personal portrait."

We're told Chief Justice Warren is angry about - one passage in the book, ~~the~~ which implies that when he was Governor of California - he opposed the Nixon congressional campaign. The Chief Justice, denouncing author Mazo for saying that. Mr. Warren is supposed to have told Mazo - "its a ~~dish~~ dishonest account, to promote Nixon."

50
The author of the book - admitting the tiff took place on Sunday. The Chief Justice saying - "no comment."

BUDGET

Uncle Sam has the biggest budget deficit ever-in peace-time. The books for the fiscal year, showing-we're thirteen billion dollars in the red. Which pushes the national debt to - two hundred and eighty-five billion.

The main ~~re~~ reason - last year's business recession.
What to do about - the deficit? The administration plan is-- to raise the interest on long-term bonds. Also - less spending this year.

MICHIGAN

The State of Michigan is facing - financial disaster. So says Governor Mennen Williams. The reason - a money famine, at the end of the fiscal year. Michigan, fifty-seven million dollars short - of what it needs. Governor Williams, asking the State legislature - to let him tap the Veteran's trust fund of fifty million.

The lawmakers - saying "no" to that. Michigan Republicans, attacking the Democratic governor, ~~They~~ say Mennen Williams let this crisis develop - because he's too interested in trying for the Democratic nomination next year.

TAYLOR

The Army loses one of its leading scholars - with the retirement of General Maxwell Taylor. General Taylor, who taught military tactics at West Point for many years. Winning a reputation for his knowledge of warfare, past and present.

Then came World War Two. General Taylor - leaving the classroom. Becoming a paratrooper - commander of the famous Hundred and First Airborne. Which made such a spectacular record - in Europe.

General Taylor, ^{WAA} at the White House today - where President Eisenhower decorated him once again. The President, commenting ^{that} there wasn't much room on General Taylor's tunic for the new oak leaf cluster.

1/2
What now - for Maxwell Taylor? A book. He's already busy on an analysis of - our defense policies.

WEDDING

Two Americans today gave the Russians - an unusual sight. A real ~~six~~ old-fashioned - church wedding, ^{in Moscow} The comrades don't make a habit of going to church - for any reason. But the Moscow dispatch says an immense crowd gathered at - the church of St. Louis, Moscow's only Catholic church. Where a Polish priest performed - the ceremony uniting two Jerseyites - Mary McMahon of Tenafly, and Dennis O'Connor of Maplewood.

The newlyweds met when they were studying ~~the~~ Russian language - in New York. Both ^{were keen} ~~anxious~~ to visit - Moscow. ^{and} Dennis, suggesting ^{ed} to Mary - that they might ^{eliminate such} ~~top off~~ a visit - by getting married, in the Soviet capital. That's how it all started.

Today's ceremony ^{was} in Russian. Mary and Dennis, saying - "da" instead of "I do". Then going to the American Embassy - where Ambassador Llewelyn Thompson held a reception for them. ^{with} Forty Soviet guests present - ^{including} ~~including~~ the head of the language department at Moscow University; ~~That's~~ where ^{Dennis,} the groom is enrolled as a student.

When he graduates next month, the O'Connors will be off on - a honeymoon - to Siberia. Then home to the States, they hope. That is, they don't plan to stay in Siberia. Now Don:-

And a-l-u-t-m,

VOLCANO

A Japanese volcano - erupting again. At Asama, a hundred miles north of Tokyo - blowing its top, for the fifth day in a row. The crater - a rim of flame, rivers of molten lava - pouring down the sides of the volcano. Smoke and ashes - hurled thousands of feet into the air.

No casualties reported. No property - damaged. That's because the Japanese know - their volcano. No one lives near Mt. Asama. And 2-l-u-t-m,