

Monday, October 14, 1974

UNITED NATIONS

At the United Nations - an overwhelming vote today in favor of admitting the Palestine Liberation Organization to an up-coming debate on Palestine. The final tally a hundred-and-five to four, with twenty abstentions. Those voting against including only Israel, the U.S., Bolivia and the Dominican Republic. The debate next month to mark the first time to the U N has considered the Palestine question, that is separate from the over-all mid-East dilemma.